WILLIAM O. DEWITT JR.

PRINCIPAL OWNER AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Bill DeWitt Jr. has served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Cardinals since 1996, when he led the purchase of the team from Anheuser Busch, and he and his immediate family acquired controlling interest in the team. DeWitt oversees all baseball, operational, financial and league matters for the team. He is Chairman of the Major League Baseball Finance Committee, former Chairman of the Executive Council, a member of the Competition Committee and served on the Labor Policy Committee which reached agreement with the Players Association on the current five-year Collective Bargaining Agreement. During 2014, he served as Chairman of the Commissioner's Succession Committee. Mr. DeWitt is also a member of the board of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

DeWitt, a native St. Louisan, is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School, received his B.A. Degree in economics from Yale University in 1963, and M.B.A. Degree from Harvard Business School in 1965. As the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt, he has deep roots in baseball dating back to his childhood. Mr. DeWitt's father began his career with the Cardinals in 1916 and worked in a variety of executive positions under Branch Rickey until the early 1940s when he joined the St. Louis Browns as General Manager. He was twice named Major League Baseball Executive of the Year, was sole owner of the Cincinnati Reds from 1961-67 and majority owner of the Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's bat boy. His uniform (number 1/8) was worn by Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch hitting appearance on August 19, 1951.

DeWitt, Jr. has been a prior owner of the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He was also a shareholder of the Cincinnati Bengals Football Team and the Cincinnati Stingers Hockey Team, and has had a long career in private equity with Reynolds DeWitt & Co. and DeWitt Capital Group. He is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis, and they have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew, and Margot, and 12 grandchildren.

Under his leadership, the Cardinals have had a number of significant achievements, including the following:

- Opened a new spring training facility in Jupiter, Fla., in 1998.
- Purchased the Palm Beach Cardinals of the Florida State League (A) in 1998.
- Purchased the Springfield Cardinals of the Texas League (AA) in 2005 and opened the new Hammons Field in Springfield, Mo.
- Privately financed, built, and opened the new Busch Stadium in April, 2006.
- Hosted Major League Baseball's 2009 All-Star Game.
- Developed special events business highlighted by concerts by Dave Mathews Band, the Eagles, U2, Paul McCartney, Billy Joel, Metallica, international soccer matches and the National Hockey League Winter Classic.
- Surpassed 3 million in attendance 20 times since 1996, including the last 15 consecutive seasons.
- Won 11 Division Titles (1996, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2013, 2014, 2015), two Wild Cards (2011, 2012), four National League Pennants (2004, 2006, 2011, 2013) and two World Championships (2006, 2011).
- Won 71 postseason games - most amongst all National League teams since 1996.
- Opened Ballpark Village, March 2014 and broke ground on Phase II of Ballpark Village in December 2017.
- Purchased the Memphis Redbirds of the Pacific Coast League (AAA), March 2014; and subsequently sold 75% of the team in April 2016, retaining a 25% interest.
- Signed a new 15-year rights agreement with FOX Sports Midwest that began in 2018 and includes an equity component as part of the overall transaction.

WILLIAM DeWITT, III
PRESIDENT

Bill DeWitt III was named President of the St. Louis Cardinals in March, 2008. In his role as team President, DeWitt oversees all aspects of the team and its affiliates, including the Memphis Redbirds, Springfield Cardinals, Palm Beach Cardinals, Fox Sports Midwest, and Ballpark Village. He led the effort to develop Ballpark Village, a 120,000 sq. ft. retail/entertainment project adjacent to Busch Stadium which opened in 2014. In 2017, the Cardinals and their development partners, The Cordish Companies, broke ground on Phase II of the project which will open in late 2019/ early 2020 and include an apartment tower, hotel, office tower, and additional retail.

Prior to his appointment as team President, DeWitt was Sr. Vice President of Business Development with the Cardinals and oversaw the design and construction of the new Busch Stadium, which opened in April, 2006. Prior to that, he was involved in several merchandising, marketing, and operational projects for the team. DeWitt was also involved in the planning for Roger Dean Stadium in Jupiter, Florida, where the Cardinals conduct Spring Training.

DeWitt, 51, graduated cum laude from the Taft School in 1986 and went on to graduate cum laude from Yale University in 1990. He then served as an assistant to William Reilly, head of the U.S. EPA in Washington D.C. He earned an MBA from Harvard Business School in 1995.

DeWitt is chairman of the Board of Cardinals Care and also sits on the boards of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Eastern Missouri, the St. Louis Sports Commission, the St. Louis Regional Chamber, Downtown Now, and the Gateway Arch Park Foundation.

DeWitt and his wife, Ira, live in St. Louis with their two children - daughter Natalie (20) and son, Will (17). Bill is an avid golfer and ice hockey player.

JOHN MOZELIAK
PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

John "Mo" Mozeliak was named President of Baseball Operations on June 30, 2017, the first to be named to that position in franchise history. Mozeliak had served as the team's Senior Vice President and General Manager for almost 10 full seasons, since October, 2007. He was the 12th general manager in the over 125-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, and had previously held the position of Assistant General Manager for six seasons. His contract runs through the 2020 season.

Under Mozeliak, the Cardinals have reached the postseason six times, including five-straight seasons from 2011-2015, the first time in team history the club had reached the playoffs in five consecutive seasons. During that run, the Cardinals won three-straight National League Central Division titles (2013-2015), and have won four N.L. Central Titles overall (also 2009) under Mo's leadership. The five-year postseason run began with St. Louis' 11th World Championship in 2011.

The 2018 season was the Cardinals 11th-consecutive winning season, a streak that began when Mozeliak was named General Manager prior to the 2008 season. The Cardinals 985 wins in those 11 seasons under Mozeliak's watch are third only to the New York Yankees (1,010) and Los Angeles Dodgers (992), while they and the Yankees are the only teams to have posted 11 consecutive winning seasons in that time period. Last season, the Cardinals 492-402 (.550) overall organizational record placed them 2nd behind Tampa Bay (539-345; .604) in total wins among all minor league systems. Memphis (AAA) won its 2nd-consecutive Pacific Coast League title and the Triple-A National Championship Game, while Peoria (A) reached the Midwest League Championship Series.

A consistent culture of retaining key players has resulted in several significant deals aimed at keeping the organization's top talent in St. Louis. Since 2012, the club has worked out multi-year deals with All-Stars Yadier Molina (2012 & 2017), Carlos Martinez (2017), Matt Carpenter (2014), Adam Wainwright (2013), and inked Kolten Wong (2016), Paul DeJong (2018), José Martínez (2019) and Miles Mikolas (2019) to multi-year deals as well.

Mozeliak engineered a series of late season moves in 2011 that transformed the Cardinals and saw the team go from 10 ½ games back in late August to winning the franchise's 11th World Championship. Baseball America named the Cardinals the 2011 Organization of the Year, the first time the franchise had received the honor. Mo was the 2011 recipient of the MLB.com GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly) Executive of the Year award and he was named, along with Tony La Russa, as the 2011 Baseball Man of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In 2012, the Cardinals fell just one win shy of capturing the N.L. Championship, and with the team's success, Mo was honored by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum with the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award as Executive of the Year. The 2013 team won the National League Championship and returned to the World Series just two years removed from winning the World Series title in 2011. Following that season, the organization was recognized by Baseball America as the Organization of the Year - the second such honor in three years - and was honored by USA Today Sports as having the best franchise among Major League baseball teams. The 2014 team captured the Central Division title for a second-straight season and returned to the National League Championship Series for a fourth-straight year. St. Louis led all Major League Baseball teams in wins and reached the postseason for a fifth-straight season in 2015, the ninth time in franchise history a Cardinals team had won 100 games.

Mozeliak, 50, is a 24-year veteran of the Cardinals front office, having joined the organization following the 1995 season where he initially served as an assistant in scouting operations during both the 1996 and 1997 seasons. Mo was named assistant scouting director in 1998 and was promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of '99 and 2000 under Mo's direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft, as well as catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named Director of Baseball Operations and in 2003 he was promoted to Assistant General Manager. During his time as Assistant GM, Mo's duties increased as he focused more on the Major League Club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and the University of Colorado. He currently serves as the National Trustee for the Foundation Fighting Blindness, is an active fund raiser for American Parkinson Disease Association and sits on the Mercy Hospital Foundation board. Mozeliak lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, daughter, Allyson, and son, Will.

MICHAEL GIRSCH
VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Michael Girsch was promoted to Vice President and General Manager on June 30, 2017, becoming the 13th General Manager in franchise history. His contract as General Manager runs through the 2020 season, and he is responsible for handling the day-to-day work of the team, including coordinating the efforts of the team's baseball development group, contract negotiations, player evaluations and player transactions.

Prior to his appointment as GM, Girsch served as Assistant General Manager for seven seasons after being appointed to that position in January 2011.

From 2008-11, he served as the Director of Baseball Development, a newly created department focused on supporting Baseball Operations via internet applications, analytical models and decision support tools. Girsch joined the Cardinals in 2006, starting his career with a two year stint as the Coordinator of Amateur Scouting.

Before the Cardinals, Girsch, 42, earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Webster Groves with their four children, twins Addison and Eleanor (14), Claire (12) and Tommy (11).

MOISÉS RODRIGUEZ
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Moisés Rodriguez was named the team's Assistant General Manager on September 27, 2017. Rodriguez has been a part of the organization for 11 seasons as the Director of International Operations. In his role as Assistant General Manager, Rodriguez will assist both the President of Baseball Operations and VP & General Manager with Major League player transactions, contract negotiations and player evaluations, and will help oversee all aspects of Baseball Operations including amateur and pro scouting, player development, international operations and baseball development.

Before becoming Assistant GM, Rodriguez directed the team's amateur scouting effort overseas, and supervised the player development and facility operations at the Cardinals Dominican Republic Academy. During his tenure, the international scouting department identified Cardinal pitchers Carlos Martinez and Alex Reyes as well as the late Oscar Taveras. Under his supervision, the Cardinals moved into a newly built player development academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic in 2015.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez worked for Major League Baseball in New York from 1998-2007, the last three-plus years as Manager of International Baseball Operations in the Commissioner's Office. During his tenure in the Commissioner's Office, he also specialized in the day-to-day handling of the waiver wire and rule enforcement related to clubs' Major and Minor League player movement transactions. His first position at MLB in 1998 was as an assistant in Media Relations and waivers for the National League office. He began his work in sports as an Assistant Director of Sports Information at the University of Connecticut.

Rodriguez, 45, was born in Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, before moving to New York City. He received a communications degree from the University of Connecticut. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons: Moisés Angel (10) and Christian (6).

RANDY FLORES
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Randy Flores was promoted to Assistant General Manager on November 27, 2018. He has been the Director of Scouting since August 28, 2015, overseeing all aspects of the scouting department including the amateur draft.

Flores, 43, was part of the Cardinals 2006 World Series Championship team and spent eight seasons in the Majors. The left-hander played for St. Louis from 2004-08, appearing in over 200 games as a relief pitcher. He was drafted in 1997 by the New York Yankees from the University of Southern California, where he holds its all-time record for wins (42). Flores made his Major League debut in 2002 with the Texas Rangers and also saw big league action with Colorado (2002, 2009-10) and Minnesota (2010).

Prior to joining the Cardinals front office, he returned to USC, earning a M.Ed Postsecondary Administration in 2014. During graduate school he was USC's Pitching Coach (2013), worked as a college baseball analyst for ESPN and Pac-12 Networks, and founded a sports video technology company.

GARY LaROCQUE
DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gary LaRocque was named Director of Player Development prior to the 2014 season and in this role oversees all aspects of player development. LaRocque joined the St. Louis organization in 2008 as Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager and was named Senior Advisor to Player Development prior to the 2013 season.

LaRocque is in his 44th year in professional baseball in player development and scouting. He served in senior management levels for the New York Mets beginning in 1998 as Scouting Director, Assistant General Manager, VP Player Development & Scouting and was Vice President of Professional Scouting in 2006.

Before joining the Mets, LaRocque started his professional playing career as an infielder in 1975 with the Milwaukee Brewers, and in 1979 began a 19-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers as a minor league coach. LaRocque was a manager in the minors through 1988 before moving into the Dodgers' scouting department from 1989-97.

LaRocque acquired his degree in secondary education (mathematics) in 1975 from the University of Hartford, West Hartford, Conn., and was elected to the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Hartford in 1993. LaRocque was awarded the George Kissell Award in 2018 for his efforts as voted on by his peers.

LUIS MORALES
DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS & ADMINISTRATION

Luis Morales enters his ninth season with the Cardinals and second as the Director of International Operations and Administration. He was promoted to his current role in November 2017 after previously serving as the Assistant Director of International Operations for the previous three seasons. Morales started with the Cardinals as an International Operations Intern in 2011. His main responsibilities in his position are coordinating the organization's amateur scouting effort overseas, and supervising the player development and facility operations at the Cardinals Dominican Republic Academy.

Prior to the Cardinals, Morales worked four years with the Cleveland Indians as a Coordinator, Venezuelan Scouting. He started his career with Leones Del Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Morales, 36, earned his Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Universidad Catolica Andres Bello in Venezuela and his Master's degree in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla.

Born and raised in Caracas, Venezuela, Morales currently resides in Jupiter, Fla.

JOHN VUCH
DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

John Vuch is in his 32nd season in Baseball Operations and 41st overall with the Cardinals. He was named to his current position following the 2013 season and he assists the VP/General Manager in all aspects of the Major League club, including taking the lead on arbitration cases and Rule 5 draft preparation, as well as handling contract negotiations for some of the 40-man roster players and minor league free agents.

Vuch held the title of Farm Director from September 2010 through the 2012 seasons, and during that time oversaw Championships for three teams [Quad Cities (A) & Johnson City (R) in 2011, Springfield (AA) in 2012]. The two championships in 2011 marked the first time since 1994 multiple Cardinals minor league affiliates won league championships, and the 2012 Springfield Cardinal team was recognized as the Minor League Team of the Year. Under his leadership, the 2010 Cardinals Minor League system had the highest combined winning percentage of any Major League organization and the Cardinals were recognized as the 2011 Organization of the Year by Baseball America. At the conclusion of the 2012 season, the Cardinals minor league system was ranked #1 by Baseball Prospectus, Baseball America and ESPN. He served as Director of Minor League Operations in 2013 and 2007-10, and was responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals' farm system including minor league player personnel decisions. He began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985-87.

Vuch was awarded the 2009 Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA of America at their 51st annual dinner.

A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife, Maria, reside in south St. Louis County and have three children: Jack (24), Hayley (21) and Anna (18).

BOB GEBHARD
SENIOR SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Gebhard joined the Cardinals in 2017 as Sr. Special Assistant to Sr. VP/ General Manager John Mozeliak, and is in his 55th season in professional baseball. He came to St. Louis after 12 seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks as Vice President & Special Assistant to the GM, the same role he held with the Cardinals from 2000-04.

Gebhard was on the ground floor of the Colorado Rockies franchise, joining the club during the winter of 1991 as the first General Manager in the team's history. He joined the Rockies from the Minnesota Twins where he won a pair of World Series rings in 1987 and 1991.

Gebhard was drafted by the Twins in the 15th round of the first June draft in 1965 and had an 11-year playing career with both the Twins and Montreal Expos. He was a player/coach in the Montreal organization from 1974-75, then coached in Montreal's system through 1986, including on the Major League coaching staff in 1982.

In 2012, Gebhard received the Roland Hemond Award from the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR) and in 2011 was named the recipient of the Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award from Minor League Baseball.

A native of Lamberton, Minn., Gebhard earned 16 letters in four sports in high school. His athletic career continued at the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and played basketball. Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, reside in Centennial, Colo., and have three children, Angie, Jenny and Casey, and eight grandchildren.

DANE SORENSEN
DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL DEVELOPMENT

Dane Sorensen is in his eighth year with the Cardinals and third as Director of Baseball Development, where he leads a group that provides analytics and decision support tools to all other departments of Baseball Operations.

He joined the Cardinals in 2012 as a Baseball Development Assistant where he focused on creating and improving data workflows and models to predict player performance, as well as contextualizing the increasingly complex and diverse information available to MLB clubs and players.

Sorensen, 32, is a native of Apple Valley, Minn. He earned a BA in Mathematics from Lawrence University before spending two years as an engineer in Healthcare IT and moving to Indiana University where he was a PhD candidate in Music Informatics before leaving to join the Cardinals with a MS in Informatics.

Sorensen lives in St. Louis with his wife, Andrea.

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE

Robert Butler is in his fourth season in Major League Baseball with the St. Louis Cardinals. As the Director of Performance, Dr. Butler oversees player training and care for the St. Louis Cardinals organization and all affiliates.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, he served as an Assistant Professor and Associate Director of the Michael W. Krzyzewski Human Performance Laboratory at Duke University for 5-1/2 years. A native of Wilmington, Del., Butler graduated from Marietta College where he earned his Bachelor's in Biology, Springfield College where he earned his M.S. in Biomechanics and Movement Science, and the University of Delaware where he earned his Ph.D. in Biomechanics. Following his doctoral training, he completed a post-doc at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and also completed his Doctorate in Physical Therapy at the University of Evansville.

MATT SLATER
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM, PLAYER PROCUREMENT

Matt Slater joined the Cardinals in 2007 and was named Special Assistant to the General Manager, Player Procurement in December 2017 after previously serving as the club's Director of Player Personnel.

He is in his 29th year in Major League Baseball where over the course of his career, he has helped build division winners and playoff teams in Baltimore, Los Angeles and St. Louis. In his current role as senior talent evaluator, Slater works hand in hand with the President and General Manager in all player acquisitions including Major League, minor league, amateur draft and international talent. Furthermore, he aids in contract negotiations and roster composition. For the past 11 years, Matt has served as a consultant to the Orix Buffaloes Baseball Club of Japan's Nippon Professional Baseball league. In addition, Slater continues to push the Cardinal organization forward in the emerging player procurement markets of Asia and Cuba.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Slater served in various management capacities for the Los Angeles Dodgers for nine years, including Director of Scouting Operations, Director of Baseball Operations and Director of Professional Scouting. With the Dodgers, he oversaw scouting operations while also being involved with contract negotiations, arbitration and roster management. He worked with the Baltimore Orioles from 1995-98 as the Administrator of Scouting. Slater got his start in professional baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers when he was 19 years old. Beginning in 1991, he served as the Brewers' Scouting and Player Development Assistant.

A native of Fort Wayne, Ind., Slater graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. in 1993, with a degree in Business Administration – Organizational Management, and holds a law degree from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, Calif. He serves on the board of directors for Independence Center, a non-profit mental health facility in St. Louis. He resides in Chesterfield with his wife, Thomasine, and their three children, Brandon (18), Madison (15) and Jacob (15).

ADAM OLSEN
DIRECTOR OF MEDICAL OPERATIONS/ HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Adam Olsen was named Director of Medical Operations for the Cardinals on January 7, 2019. He begins his fourth season as Head Athletic Trainer after completing six seasons as their Assistant Athletic Trainer/Physical Therapist.

Prior to his time in St. Louis, he served for four seasons as the Medical/Rehab Coordinator for the Cardinals out of their Spring Training Complex in Jupiter, Florida.

Olsen is a native of Green Bay, Wisconsin and is a graduate of Auburn University where he earned his Athletic Training Certification. Olsen worked as an athletic trainer for Disney's Wide World of Sports and Wildwood High School in the Orlando area before returning to school for his Master's in Physical Therapy from The University of Wisconsin – Madison. Following graduation, Olsen completed a post-professional Sports Physical Therapy Fellowship at Champion Sports Medicine and the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI) under the direction of Dr. James Andrews and Kevin E. Wilk in Birmingham, Alabama.

CHRIS CONROY
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris is entering his eighth season with the St. Louis Cardinals Major League staff, after 13 years in their minor league system.

Chris spent time with five different affiliates, including the Memphis Redbirds, where he spent seven seasons. During his minor league career, Chris was awarded the Eastern League Athletic Trainer of the Year, as well as the Pacific Coast League Athletic Trainer of the Year.

Along with being a certified athletic trainer, he is a certified strength and conditioning specialist, a performance enhancement specialist, a corrective exercise specialist, and is currently working on advanced SFMA/ FMS based treatment paradigms.

Born an Irish citizen, Chris (42) was naturalized as a United States Citizen on July 3, 2010. He and his wife Kristi, and two daughters Madelyn, and Cecelia reside in St Louis.

JEREMY CLIPPERTON
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremy is entering his fourth season with the Cardinals Major League staff, after serving four seasons with the Memphis Redbirds (AAA).

Before joining the Cardinals organization in 2012, Jeremy spent 11 years in the Seattle Mariners organization, including two in the PCL with the Triple-A Tacoma Rainiers. He also spent time at four other affiliates in the Seattle Mariner farm system and had one year (2001) in the Northwest League with the Spokane Indians in the Kansas City Royals Organization.

The Iowa native is a two-time award recipient, recognized by the Midwest League in 2006 and again in 2008 as the Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Athletic Trainers Society, the highest Minor League award as the top athletic trainer in all of the Minor Leagues. He was also named the Southern League Trainer of the Year in 2008.

THOMAS KNOX
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PERFORMANCE

Thomas Knox is in his fourth season with the Cardinals, and first as the Assistant Director of Performance. He served the previous three seasons (2016-18) as Major League Physical Therapist,

Knox joined the Cardinals before the 2016 season after completing three seasons as Director of Player Performance and Rehabilitation for the NBA Washington Wizards.

Knox received a BS in Exercise Science in 2006 and Doctorate of Physical Therapy in 2009 from the University of Evansville. He completed a post-graduate residency in sports physical therapy through ProRehab in Evansville, Ind. Knox worked for EXOS (formerly Athletes' Performance) for three years as a performance specialist and physical therapist in Frisco, Texas and Gulf Breeze, Fla., whose clientele included professional athletes and members of the military special operation groups.

Knox, is a Board Certified Sports Clinical Specialist, a certified strength and conditioning specialist, certified in Functional Movement Systems and Kinetacore Dry Needling.

Born and raised in nearby Woodlawn, Ill., Knox currently resides in St. Louis.

LANCE THOMASON
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Lance Thomason enters his seventh season with the Cardinals organization and first in St. Louis as strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to joining St. Louis, Thomason served in the same capacity with Triple-A Memphis (2017-18), Double-A Springfield (2015-16), Single-A Peoria (2014) and Rookie-level Johnson City (2013).

Before the Cardinals, Thomason interned with the University of Wyoming Performance Department after graduation and also was a volunteer strength coach.

Thomason graduated from Evanston (Wyo.) High School and earned an bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and Health Promotion from the University of Wyoming. He resides in Evanston, Wyo., with wife, Crystal, son, Brooks (4) and daughter Everly (2).

JASON SHUTT
PERFORMANCE SPECIALIST & PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Jason Shutt begins his fourth season as a Performance Specialist with the Cardinals and his third season in St. Louis with the Major League club. In 2016, Shutt was based out of the Cardinals Complex in Jupiter, Fla.

In his role as Performance Specialist, Shutt seeks to optimize player readiness, durability and physical performance. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he consulted with professional and Olympic athletes while at the Michael Krzyzewski Human Performance Laboratory at Duke University.

CARDINALS MEDICAL TEAM

St. Louis based Mercy is entering its seventh year as the team's official medical provider. Mercy manages the team's orthopedic and sports medicine needs, as well as providing other medical services for the team, the Cardinals organization and front office.

CAREER NOTES:

Mike Shildt was named the 50th manager in franchise history on July 15, 2018, serving on an interim basis after replacing Mike Matheny. After guiding the team to a National League best 26-12 (.684) mark in his first 38 games at the helm, Shildt was named manager on August 28, 2018, agreeing to a contract that runs through 2020. Shildt was serving in his second season as a member of the Cardinals Major League coaching staff prior to his appointment as interim manager, and his first season as the team's bench coach. Shildt began the 2017 season as quality control coach on the Major League staff before taking over as third-base coach in June.

Shildt's 41-28 record (.594 winning percentage) to finish out the 2018 season, tied with the Milwaukee Brewers and Colorado Rockies for the top mark in the National League from his appointment on July 15. He posted the best 40-game start by a Cardinals first year manager going 27-13. In August, the Cardinals were a Major League best 22-6 (.786), their first 22-win August since 1946 (22-9) and the team's best record in the month of August since 1944 (25-8). Shildt's efforts were recognized by BBWAA voters, earning him a 4th place finish in the 2018 N.L. Manager of the Year voting.

Prior to joining the Major League staff, Shildt had logged eight seasons as a minor league manager in the Cardinals organization, the most recent at the triple-A level with the Memphis Redbirds (2015-16). He compiled a career managerial record of 471-432 (.522) over his eight seasons in the minors, winning league championships in each of his three career playoff appearances.

Shildt served as a coach for the Pacific Coast League All-Star team in 2016 during the Triple-A All-Star Game that was held at BB&T Ballpark in his hometown of Charlotte, N.C.

Sixteen of his players off the Memphis roster made their Major League debuts during the 2015 and 2016 seasons. Shildt won his first league championship at Johnson City in the Appalachian League in 2010 and followed it up with another title in 2011. In his first season at double-A Springfield (2012), Shildt led the Cardinals to a team-record 77 wins and their first Texas League Championship defeating Frisco 3-1 after knocking off Tulsa 3-2 in the opening round. This marked his third consecutive title in his fourth year of managing in the minor leagues.

In 2011, Shildt's Johnson City team set a short-season franchise record with 45 wins, just a year after tying the previous mark of 42. While at Johnson City, Shildt compiled a 124-77 (.617) record over three seasons, averaging 41 wins per season and guided the team to their first championship since 1976. In his first year at the helm of Johnson City (2009), he led the squad to their best record in 13 years (37-30), a year removed from serving as the hitting coach for the squad in 2008.

Shildt began every season from 2004-07 serving as an area scout and player development instructor before moving on to coach for a Cardinals short-season team, first as hitting coach at New Jersey in 2004-05, bench coach in State College in 2006 and position coach for Batavia in 2007.

Shildt earned the George Kissell Award in 2010 to add to his 2010 Appalachian League Manager of the Year award after his success at Johnson City as well as serving as the Cardinals Minor League Field and Spring Training Coordinator, a position he held from 2008-12. Shildt managed the Salt River Rafters of the Arizona Fall League to a 19-12 record in 2013, winning their final seven games, and finishing a half-game back of first place in the East Division.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, from 1999-2003, Shildt was an associate scout for the MLB Scouting Bureau and was head varsity coach at West Charlotte High School from 1994-96.

Shildt has five years of collegiate coaching under his belt, working as the hitting coach and recruiting coordinator at both UNC-Charlotte and UNC-Asheville.

Shildt, 50, is a 1991 graduate of UNC-Asheville with a degree in business and currently resides in Matthews, N.C. He was a three-year letter winner on the Bulldogs baseball team and grew up working for the Orioles double-A team in Charlotte with Cal Ripken, Jr., and Eddie Murray, performing clubhouse detail and working the scoreboard. He is also co-director of a Charlotte-based non-profit organization, Baseball for Life.

CAREER NOTES:

Jeff Albert was hired as the St. Louis Cardinals hitting coach in November 2018 after the previous six years in the Houston Astros organization.

The 38-year old hitting instructor was the second hitting coach with the Astros in 2018 after serving as the minor league hitting coordinator from 2014-17 and 2013 as the roving hitting instructor.

Prior to his time with the Astros, Albert launched his professional coaching career with the Cardinals organization starting as hitting coach for the Batavia MuckDogs of the short-season A ball affiliate in the New York-Penn League. The MuckDogs won the New York-Penn League title in 2008 knocking off Jamestown 2-0 in the championship series.

Albert advanced to the Cardinals High-A Florida State League affiliate in Palm Beach where he served as hitting coach from 2009-12.

CAREER NOTES:

Budaska joins the St. Louis Cardinals major league coaching staff as assistant hitting coach for his first full season in 2019 after serving as an interim hitting coach during the second half of 2018 and filling in during Bill Mueller's brief leave of absence in 2017.

From 2008-18, Budaska was the Memphis Redbirds hitting coach, and during that time has mentored several current Cardinals including Matt Carpenter, Kolten Wong, Paul DeJong, Harrison Bader, Adolis García, Patrick Wisdom as well as former Cardinals' World Series MVP David Freese, who all posted career minor league years in Memphis before moving on to St. Louis.

In 2010, Budaska was the hitting coach for the Pacific Coast League All-Star Game staff representing Memphis at the Triple-A All-Star game in Lehigh Valley, Pa.

Budaska spent three seasons (2010-12) as the hitting and outfield coach for the Tigres de Aragua in the Venezuelan Winter League. The 2011 Tigres won the championship over the Tiburones de La Guaira.

Budaska previously served as hitting coach from 2004-07 at Pawtucket (AAA) in the Boston Red Sox system and had been with the Red Sox since 2002. In 2001, he coached for the Angels' Little Rock (AA) affiliate in the Texas League and saw the Travelers win the Texas League Championship, ranking fourth in the league with a .266 team average.

Budaska worked Internationally serving as the hitting coach and first base coach for the Kaoping Fala of the Taiwan Major Leagues from 1998-99 and then served as hitting coach for Chainan Luka also in the Taiwan Major Leagues.

The former switch-hitting outfielder signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Athletics organization and began his professional career in 1973 with the Athletics' Lewiston (Idaho) affiliate in the Northwest League.

After six years in the minor leagues, Budaska made his Major League debut with Oakland on June 6, 1978 against the Boston Red Sox at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, entering the game as a defensive replacement in left field in the seventh inning. He recorded his first Major League hit two days later in a pinch-hit role off Paul Hartzell of the California Angels, a double to centerfield.

Budaska played high school baseball at Granada Hills (Calif.) High School before moving on to play college baseball at Pierce College (Calif.).

He made a cameo as a third base coach for the California Angels in the movie "Talent for the Game." Budaska resides in Kihei, Hawaii

CAREER NOTES:

Stubby Clapp joins the St. Louis Cardinals coaching staff after serving as the manager of the triple-A Memphis Redbirds of the Pacific Coast League for the past two seasons (2017-18).

Clapp won back-to-back PCL titles in his two years as manager of the Redbirds and won the Triple-A Championship in 2018 as Memphis crushed Durham 14-4 in the title game giving the Redbirds their first such title after finishing runner-up in 2000, 2009 and 2017.

In two years as the Memphis skipper, Clapp recorded a .619 winning percentage (174-107) including a franchise-best record of 91-50 in 2017.

Clapp has been recognized as Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year in 2017 and 2018. Baseball America recognized Clapp as their Minor League Manager of the Year in 2017 and he received the J. Roy Stockton/Bob Broeg Award for outstanding achievement in baseball from the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA.

Prior to 2017, Clapp managed two years (2011-12) in the Astros organization with Tri-City of the New York-Penn League leading the Valley Cats to a first place division finish in 2012 and runner-up in the championship series to Hudson Valley.

Clapp came to the Cardinals from the Blue Jays organization where he was a hitting coach for double-A New Hampshire (2015-16) of the Eastern League and before that with single-A Dunedin (2013-14) of the Florida State League. In 2014, Clapp received the Blue Jays' 2014 Bobby Mattick Award for excellence in Player Development.

Often referred to as the "Mayor of Memphis," Clapp became the first and only Memphis Redbirds player to have his number retired by the team in 2007. Known for his grit and hard play day in and day out, Clapp was beloved by fans for his energy and the backflips he routinely performed when taking the field.

In his Redbirds career, Clapp appeared in a total of 425 games. He sits at the top of the Redbirds' career leaders in walks (222) and triples (19), while also ranking second in runs scored (258) and third in games (425), at-bats (1,556), hits (418), doubles (87), and extra-base hits (128). He was a member of the Redbirds' first PCL Championship team in 2000, where he hit three homers and drove in 11 during the playoffs. Earlier that year, Clapp recorded the first hit in AutoZone Park history, with a single to center, and set the Redbirds' single-season record for triples with eight.

A graduate of Texas Tech University, the Windsor, Ontario, native was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 36th round of the 1996 First-Year Player Draft. He played for Johnson City (R) in 1996, Prince William (A) in 1997 and Arkansas (AA) in 1998 before making his debut with Memphis (AAA) on April 8, 1999 against Calgary at Tim McCarver Stadium.

Clapp made his Major League debut on June 18, 2001 against the Cubs. He appeared in 23 career games for the Cardinals that season, posting a .200 average with two doubles and one RBI.

Clapp played the 2003 season for the Braves' Richmond (AAA), followed by a 2004 campaign that was split between New Hampshire (AA) and Syracuse (AAA) in the Blue Jays organization. Clapp finished his career playing 2005-06 seasons for the Edmonton Cracker-Cats of the independent Northern League.

Following his playing career, Clapp spent 2007-12 in the Houston Astros organization: three seasons as the hitting coach for Lexington (A), one season as hitting coach for Corpus Christi (AA), before taking on his first managerial role with Tri-City.

Clapp has represented Canada in numerous international baseball competitions. He recorded a game-winning, bases-loaded single to beat the United States in the first round of the 1999 Pan American Games in Winnipeg. Clapp also played for the Canadian National team in the 2004 Olympics in Athens, 2008 Olympics in Beijing, and the 2006 and 2009 World Baseball Classics. Clapp served as a coach in the 2013 World Baseball Classic and was third base coach for the gold medal-winning Canada national baseball team at the 2015 Pan American Games.

The 46-year-old was the third member of his family to be given the nickname "Stubby," along with his grandfather and father. He and his wife, Chastity, have three children: sons Cooper (aka "Stubby IV") and Cannan, and daughter Crosbie.

CAREER NOTES:

Bryan Eversgerd is in his second season as Bullpen Coach on the Cardinals' staff. Previously, he served five years (2013-17) as the pitching coach for Memphis (AAA).

The 2018 bullpen saw 12 pitchers make their first relief appearance as a member of the Cardinals including free agent, Bud Norris, who led the team with a career-high 28 saves, ranking 6th in the National League. Rookie Jordan Hicks, a 21-year old, who was converted from starting pitcher after Spring Training, appeared in a team-high 73 games while setting the franchise record for velocity on pitches at over 105 miles per hour. Rookie Dakota Hudson earned four wins out of the bullpen after arriving on July 28 after working as a starting pitcher in Memphis.

Prior to arriving in St. Louis, Eversgerd's Memphis staff led the Pacific Coast League with a 3.77 ERA in 2017 while winning the league championship. The Redbirds' 3.77 ERA was the only sub-4.00 ERA in the PCL that season.

Prior to his stint at Memphis, Eversgerd spent two seasons (2011-12) in Springfield (AA) as pitching coach for the Double-A Cardinals. While in Springfield, Eversgerd's 2012 staff registered a 3.83 team ERA and surrendered the second fewest hits en route to the Texas League Championship. The staff went on to hurl a postseason best 2.48 ERA over nine games in the Texas League playoffs. Eversgerd was awarded the George Kissell Award in 2012 for his efforts as voted on by his peers among the Cardinals minor league coaching staffs.

Eversgerd has been the pitching coach for three Cardinals Minor League Pitchers-of-the-Year in Jack Flaherty (2017) and former Cardinals hurlers Shelby Miller (2011) and Seth Maness (2012). In 2013, Eversgerd was the pitching coach for 2013 National League Championship Series MVP Michael Wacha, who spent the majority of the year in Memphis and represented the Redbirds at the Triple-A All-Star Game.

His coaching tenure began at the Cardinals' Carolina League affiliate in 2001 at Potomac, before taking a two-year hiatus and returning as pitching coach for Peoria in the Midwest League. He remained in the Midwest League at Peoria and Quad Cities from 2004-07 before joining Double-A Springfield from 2008-09 and a year later at High-A Palm Beach in 2010.

Eversgerd began his playing career with the Cardinals, signing as a non-drafted free agent on June 14, 1989. He pitched a scoreless inning of relief in his Major League debut for the Cardinals on April 26, 1994, and picked up his first big-league win in his only Major League start on May 20, 1994 at Florida. The left-hander also pitched for Montreal and Texas before returning to St. Louis from 1998 to 2000.

CAREER NOTES:

Mike Maddux is entering his second season as the Cardinals pitching coach, joining the club for the 2018 season after spending the previous two seasons (2016-17) serving in that role for the Washington Nationals.

Last season, Cardinals pitchers allowed just 144 home runs the fewest of all Major League teams in 2018. Cardinals starting pitchers finished second in the National League with 59 wins and boasted the lowest opponent slugging percentage (.361) and fewest home runs allowed per nine innings pitched (0.85).

Newly acquired pitcher Miles Mikolas went 18-4 in an All-Star season, including a perfect 10-0 road record becoming one of nine pitchers in MLB history to post an unblemished mark on the road with double-digit wins. His .818 winning percentage led all National League pitchers and was the best by a Cardinals pitcher since Kyle Lohse set the franchise record with an .842 win percentage in 2012. Free agent acquisition, Bud Norris, posted a career-high 28 saves at the age of 33, the most by a Cardinals pitcher of that age since 2009.

In his two seasons with the Nationals, their pitchers posted a 3.69 ERA, including a 3.51 mark in 2016 that ranked 2nd in MLB. His starting staff struck out an NL single-season record 1,012 batters in 2017, surpassing their mark of 987 in 2016 . In 2016, the Nationals relievers posted the best bullpen ERA in MLB at 3.35.

Maddux was also integral in the coaching of back-to-back National League Cy Young Award winner Max Scherzer in 2016-17.

Maddux, 57, went to Washington from the Texas Rangers where the Rangers had earned four postseason berths. From 2010-13, the Rangers were one of just five clubs (along with ATL, STL, OAK, and TB) to post four consecutive sub-4.00 team ERAs, accomplishing that feat for just the second time in Rangers history (six straight, 1974-79). Prior to Maddux's arrival, the Rangers had not posted an ERA lower than 4.00 since 1990. During his first five seasons with Texas (2009-13), their 3.94 team ERA was Texas' lowest ERA over a five-year span since 1981-85 (3.92) and in 2014, his staff ranked second in the American league with 17 shutouts, second-most in Texas history.

Maddux joined Texas after six years (2003-08) with the Brewers as pitching coach where he oversaw a Brewers staff that ranked second in the NL with a 3.85 ERA in 2008, the lowest mark by a Milwaukee club in 16 years, en-route to securing the Brewers' first postseason berth in 26 years.

He coached three seasons as the pitching coach for Houston's Double-A Round Rock from 2000-02. The Express made the Texas League playoffs all three seasons in which he was the pitching coach winning the league championship in 2000, crowned as co-champs in 2001 with Arkansas and lost in the semi-finals in 2002.

Maddux enjoyed a 15-year Major League playing career, going 39-37 with a 4.05 ERA in 472 games (48 starts) with Philadelphia (1986-89), Los Angeles (1990, 1999), San Diego (1991-92), New York Mets (1993-94), Pittsburgh (1995), Boston (1995-96), Seattle (1997), Montreal (1998-99), and Houston (2000). The right-hander appeared in the postseason with Boston in 1995, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings in two appearances vs. CLE in the American League Division Series.

Mike is the older brother of 2014 National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee Greg Maddux. He played three years at the University of Texas-El Paso and graduated from Rancho (NV) High School in 1979. Mike and his wife, Lise, and daughters, Makayla and Lexie, reside in Westlake, Texas. Maddux is an avid hunter, golfer, and fisherman.

CAREER NOTES:

Oliver "Ollie" Marmol is entering his third season on the Cardinals Major League Coaching Staff and first as Mike Shildt's Bench Coach after serving the previous two years as the First Base Coach.

In 2016, Marmol completed his second season as manager at Palm Beach and fifth year managing in the Cardinals organization. He piloted his teams to the postseason in four of his five years managing in the minor leagues.

In 2015, his first season managing at Palm Beach, the Cardinals reached the postseason for the first time since 2008, winning the Florida State League South Division second half before being eliminated in the first round. Prior to 2015, the last time Palm Beach had reached the FSL postseason, Marmol was playing second base for the squad.

In 2014, Marmol led the State College team to the New York-Penn League Championship, defeating Hudson Valley in two straight games when facing elimination, then defeated Tri-City for the crown. The Spikes posted 48 wins for the second consecutive season, a year after Marmol led State College to the best record in the New York-Penn League at 48-27. He was awarded the 2013 George Kissell Award as voted on by his coaching peers in the Cardinals organization.

The former Cardinals minor league infielder has skippered his teams to a combined 268-225 record (.544), averaging 45 wins per season during his years with short-season clubs. He led the 2012 Johnson City squad to a 39-28 record and a playoff appearance in his first season as a manager. Marmol began his coaching career in 2011 as the hitting coach at the Gulf Coast League level under manager Steve Turco.

Marmol spent four years playing in the Cardinals system, finishing his career with the Palm Beach Cardinals in 2010. Marmol was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2004 out of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., but decided to forego professional ball to attend college, where he batted .327 over three seasons at the College of Charleston. He was drafted out of college in the sixth round of the 2007 June First-Year Player Draft by St. Louis.

CAREER NOTES:

Willie McGee returns to the Cardinals Major League coaching staff for his second season and will be responsible for a variety of areas including outfield play, base running and hitting. Prior to 2018, McGee spent several seasons serving as a Special Assistant to the GM, assisting with instruction at both the Major and Minor League levels.

McGee, 60, is a decorated member of the Cardinals organization, a beloved figure among Cardinals fans and a member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame (inducted in 2014).

McGee, who came to the Cardinals organization in October of 1981 in a trade with the New York Yankees for pitcher Bob Sykes, emerged on the national scene in 1982 when he starred during the World Series with his spectacular catches and a pair of key homers that helped the Redbirds to their first World Championship since 1967.

As a key member of the Redbirds during the "Whitey Ball" era, McGee helped the Cardinals to two additional World Series appearances in 1985 and 1987 and in 1985 he became the first Cardinal voted the National League's Most Valuable Player since 1979 (Keith Hernandez), leading the Senior Circuit with his .353 batting average, 216 hits and 18 triples. His .353 batting mark and 216 hits from 1985 still stand as the Cardinals single-season records for a switch-hitter.

A four-time All-Star (1983, 1985, 1987, 1988), the fleet-footed McGee posted a career batting mark of .295 with 352 steals and 94 triples in 18 seasons with St. Louis (1981-90 & 1996-99), Oakland (1990), San Francisco (1991-94) and Boston (1995). He currently ranks among Cardinals all-time top-10 leaders in stolen bases (301-4th), triples (83-7th) and pinch-hits (59-3rd).

In July of 1990, McGee was traded to the Oakland Athletics and helped them to the American League Championship. That year he became the first player in Major League history to win a batting title (.335) in one league after having been traded to a team in the other league. After stints in San Francisco and Boston, Willie returned to St. Louis in 1996 and helped the Cardinals to the N.L. Central title before retiring after the 1999 season.

McGee won Rawlings Gold Glove awards for defensive excellence in 1983, 1985 and 1986 and was a National League Silver Slugger recipient in 1985.

A 1976 graduate of Harry Ellis High School in Richmond, Calif., McGee and his wife, Vivian, have five children, Nanuashika, Jessica, Whitney, Virginia, William, and eight grandchildren.

CAREER NOTES:

Warner enters his 29th season in the Cardinals organization and his first on the Opening Day Major League coaching staff as the third base coach. The 2019 season marks his third straight year in some capacity on the Major League staff with the previous two seasons being transferred onto the Major League coaching staff midway through the season following coaching transactions.

Warner has 11 years of managerial experience in the Cardinals organization, most recently as the manager of triple-A Memphis (2012-14) with double-A Springfield (2007-11) and high-A Palm Beach (2005-06) also under his tutelage. In 2003, his managerial career began with the rookie league Johnson City Cardinals of the short-season Appalachian League.

In 2005, Warner managed the Palm Beach Cardinals to the Florida State League playoffs, where the squad knocked off the Vero Beach Dodgers in three games (2-1) before winning the league championship in five games (3-2) over the heavily favored Lakeland Tigers. The resilient Palm Beach squad took the title game with home runs in the 9th and 10th innings tying and taking the lead on the road. Warner was named the 2005 George Kissell Award winner by his peers following his efforts.

Warner guided his teams to the postseason in five of his first eight years and 6-of-11 overall. His minor league managerial record stands at 734-730 (.501).

His coaching career began in 2000 serving as the batting practice pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals before moving on to take a coaching role for double-A New Haven in 2001. In 2002-03, Warner was the hitting coach for short-season New Jersey (A) and then held the same post with single-A Peoria in 2004.

2005: Palm Beach (A)

Following his days as a minor league manager, Warner took roles as the team's Minor League Infield Coordinator (2015-16) and then Assistant Field Coordinator (2017-18).

Originally a 17th round draft pick (441st overall) by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1991 out of the, now defunct, University of Wyoming baseball program, Warner played nine years in the Cardinals minor leagues covering 792 career games. He batted .267 with 40 home runs and 242 RBI playing a myriad of positions including all infield spots, outfield and made three relief appearances as a pitcher. He played in 238 games as a shortstop, his most at any position.

Warner, 50, resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife Laura, sons, Colin Michael (1/9/04) and Benjamin Anthony (1/25/10) and daughter Callie Marie (10/2/11). He wears uniform No. 75 to honor the late Darryl Kile (flipping the 5-and-7), as the Cardinals have not issued uniform No. 57 since Kile's untimely death in 2002.

JOEY PREBYNSKI
GAME PLANNING COACH

Joey Prebynski enters his first season as game-planning coach with the Cardinals. In his role, he works closely with the Major League coaching staff in game day preparation throughout the season and also conducts projects and studies aimed at enhancing player development processes.

Prebynski spent the last three seasons (2016-18) as a professional scout with the Milwaukee Brewers. Prior to the Brewers, Prebynski worked with the Texas Rangers serving as instant replay consultant, writing Major League Advance Scouting reports, conducting statistical studies for the baseball operations department, and oversaw the use of video at the Major League level and in the Player Development system as well as within the Amateur, Pro, and International Scouting departments.

Prebynski, 36, was the Director of Baseball Operations at the University of Texas at Arlington from 2005-08, where he earned his undergraduate degree in Business Administration, along with a Master of Arts in Communication and an MBA at the school. A native of Mansfield, Ohio, Prebynski is actively involved with the Miracle League, Junior Achievement, & Big Brothers-Big Sisters. He resides in Clayton, MO.

CHRISTOPHER (CHRIS) JOHN CARPENTER
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Following his retirement in 2012, after 15 seasons with Toronto and St. Louis, Chris has remained active in player instruction and evaluation for the Cardinals.

The New Hampshire native played nine seasons (2004-12) with the Cardinals and was selected as a National League All-Star three times (2005, 2006 and 2010). He made 18 starts for St. Louis during the postseason, including starts in both the 2006 and 2011 World Series.

The game that most solidifies Carpenter in Cardinals fans hearts may very well be Game 5 of the 2011 Division Series vs. Philadelphia when he pitched a complete-game, 3-hit shutout, clinching the Division Series on the way to the team's 11th World Championship. He had 3-0 mark with a 2.00 ERA in his four career World Series starts.

A member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame, Carpenter was voted the National League Cy Young award winner in 2005 after a 21-5 season, and National League Comeback Player of the Year in 2009. Carpenter's .683 winning pct. ranks 2nd on the Cardinals franchise all-time list and his 1,085 strikeouts rank 4th all-time.

Carpenter is the Cardinals all-time leader in postseason wins (10) and innings pitched (108.0).

JAMES (JIM) PATRICK EDMONDS
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Jim Edmonds enters his first season as a Special Instructor with the Cardinals. Edmonds has worked most recently the last six seasons on the Cardinals television broadcast team for FOX Sports Midwest.

An eight-time Gold Glove recipient and four-time All-Star, Edmonds was one of the best outfielders to play center field for the Cardinals. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in the inaugural year of the Hall opening in 2014. Edmonds played parts of 17 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Angels, Cardinals, Padres, Cubs, Brewers and Reds, and holds a career .284 batting average after playing in over 2,000 games. He ended his career just shy of 500 doubles (437), 400 homers (393) and 1,200 RBI (1,199).

The bulk of Edmonds career was spent wearing a Cardinals uniform, as he played for eight seasons with St. Louis (2000-07), hitting .285 with 241 home runs and 713 RBI. He helped lead the team to six playoff appearances, including the 2006 World Series Championship, and in 2000 and 2004 finished in the top five in National League MVP voting.

The left-handed hitting Edmonds was known for his highlight reel catches, perhaps none bigger than his diving catch in Game 7 of the National League Championship Series vs. the Houston Astros at Busch Stadium in 2004. One night after Edmonds forced Game 7 with a 12th-inning, two-run, walk-off homer, he snared a line drive in the left-center field gap with a diving catch and his back to the plate.

Edmonds, 48, has four children, daughters Lauren, Hayley and Sutton, and a son, Landon. He and his wife, Meghan, split their time between St. Louis and Orange County, California.

- Selected by St. Louis Cardinals in the 13th round (399th overall) of the June 2009 free agent draft.
- On St. Louis disabled list (right oblique strain), May 23 - June 22, 2012; included injury rehabilitation assignments to Springfield (AA) and Memphis (AAA).
- On St. Louis paternity list, May 26-28, 2016.
- On St. Louis disabled list (right oblique strain), July 7 - August 4, 2016; included injury rehabilitation assignment to Springfield (AA).
- Served one-game Major League Baseball suspension, April 25, 2017.

CAREER NOTES

- Leads all active MLB players in on-base percentage (.389) while batting in the No. 1 position (min. 900 PA).
- His .522 batting average (24-46) with the bases loaded is the highest in Major League history (min. 60 PA) since 1974. Has one grand slam (walk-off HR) and 72 RBI.
- Ranks among active leaders in Interleague play for slugging percentage (.606, 1st), on-base percentage (.408, 2nd), OPS (1.014, 2nd), and batting average (.323, 5th).
- In 2018, his 42 doubles, 36 home runs and 102 walks joined him with Albert Pujols (2008-09) and Stan Musial (1949, '53-54) as the only Cardinals to hit 40 doubles, 30 home runs, and draw 100 walks in a season.
- In 2018, became the first Cardinal since Albert Pujols (2008-09) and the first Major Leaguer since Miguel Cabrera (2011, DET) to score 100 runs, draw 100 walks, hit 40 doubles and 30 home runs in a single season. It marked the 32nd instance all-time in MLB history, and first ever without hitting into a double play during the season.
- Since 2013, leads all Major Leaguers in doubles (241) while ranking 2nd in runs (609), 5th in walks (540) and 9th in on-base percentage (.378). His 264 career doubles over eight-year professional career rank 18th all-time in Cardinals history.
- Set the St. Louis franchise record for most doubles by a left-handed batter (55) in 2013, breaking the mark (53) held by Stan Musial since 1953. The 55 doubles were also a team record for a second baseman.
- Hit single-season franchise record of eight leadoff home runs in 2018, breaking his previous record of five (2015) that was shared with Lou Brock (1967, 1970) and Ray Lankford (1994).
- His 23 career lead-off home runs are the most in Cardinals history and rank 10th among active Major Leaguers.
- Has hit 103-of-133 career home runs while batting in the No. 1 position in the lineup, T-28th in Major League history with Lou Whitaker; leader is Rickey Henderson (293).
- Hit 86 home runs from No. 1 spot in the lineup over the last four seasons (2015-18), ranking 4th in MLB behind Charlie Blackmon (101), Brian Dozier (90), and Mookie Betts (88).
- His career high and team-leading 36 home runs in 2018 were the most hit by a Cardinal since Albert Pujols (37) in 2011 and the most by a Cardinals left-handed hitter since Jim Edmonds (42) in 2004. He finished the season ranked T-6th (Stan Musial, 1949) among Cardinals left-handed batters in single season home runs.
- In 2018, was the only MLB player to lead his team in home runs (36) and start 100 or more games from the leadoff spot in the same season, and second Cardinal in franchise history, joining Jesse Burkett (10 HR, 141 GS) in 1901. (Elias).
- Did not hit into a double play during the 2018 season (last: 9/4/17 at SD). Became the first MLB player to play an entire season with at least 550 at-bats and no GIDP's since Houston's Craig Biggio (1997) and the first all-time with the St. Louis Cardinals. Led MLB with a 0.0 GIDP percent.
- Is the only MLB player over the last six seasons (2013-18) to hit 30 or more doubles and draw 70 or more walks. Only Stan Musial (14) and Albert Pujols (9) have more in Cardinals history.

2018

- Garnered votes for the Most Valuable Player Award by Baseball Writers of America (9th place finish) and was a Major League Baseball All-Star Final Vote finalist.
- 2018 Hank Aaron Award Nominee
- Voted NL Player of the Month for July, his first monthly award and the first Cardinals N.L. Player of the Month selection since Albert Pujols (August 2010).
- Led the National League in July in runs (22), home runs (11), extra-base hits (19), and slugging (.774); ranked 2nd in on-base pct. (.447), T2nd in walks (19), T4th in doubles (8), T5th in RBI (21), 6th in hits (31).
- Led MLB with 11 home runs in July and ranked T-6th in August with 9, but led MLB with 20 HR over those two months combined. Was the first Cardinals player with double-digit home runs in July since Jim Edmonds with 13 (July 2004).
- Twice named National League Player of the Week: July 16-22 and July 29-August 5.
- Set Busch Stadium III record with 318 career runs scored, surpassing Albert Pujols (312).
- Drew 100 or more walks for the second straight season, joining Joey Votto as the only two players in MLB to draw 100 or more walks in each of the last two seasons and the first Cardinal since Albert Pujols (2008-10).
- Joined Mike Trout and Carlos Santana as the only three players with 80 or more walks in last five seasons (2014-18).
- Walked two or more times in 24 games, ranking T3rd in the NL and T5th in MLB.
- His 42 doubles, 36 home runs and 102 walks had him join Albert Pujols (2008-09) and Stan Musial (1949, '53-54) as the only Cardinals to hit 40 doubles, 30 home runs, and draw 100 walks in a season.
- Is the only MLB player to hit 30 or more doubles and draw 70 or more walks over the last six seasons (2013-18). Only Stan Musial (14) and Albert Pujols (9) have more in Cardinals history.
- Did not hit into a double play during the entire 2018 season (last: 9/4/17 at SD). Became the first MLB player to play an entire season with 550 or more at-bats and no GIDP's since Craig Biggio (1997) with the Houston Astros and the first all-time with the St. Louis Cardinals. Led MLB with a 0.0 GIDP percent.
- Became the first Cardinal since Albert Pujols (2008-09) and the first Major Leaguer since Miguel Cabrera (2011, DET) to score 100 runs, draw 100 walks, hit 40 doubles and 30 home runs in a single season. It marked the 32nd instance all-time in MLB history, and first ever without hitting into a double play during the season.
- His career high and team-leading 36 home runs in 2018 were the most hit by a Cardinal since Albert Pujols (37) in 2011 and the most by a Cardinals left-handed hitter since Jim Edmonds (42) in 2004. He finished the season ranked T-6th (Stan Musial, 1949) among Cardinals left-handed batters in single season home runs.

- St. Louis was 11-17 in his 28 starts, which were most by a Cardinals rookie pitcher since Shelby Miller (31) in 2013.
- Pitched at least 6.0 innings in 11 starts (2nd on STL) and at least 7.0 innings in four outings (T2nd on STL).
- Limited the opposition to one run or fewer in 15 starts (T4th among NL pitchers) and 4 earned runs or fewer in 27 starts.
- His team-leading 182 strikeouts led Major League rookie pitchers, ranked 11th among all NL pitchers, and were the 3rd-most all-time in Cardinals single-season history for rookies, trailing only Dizzy Dean (191 in 1932) and Rick Ankiel (194 in 2000).
- Struck out 95 batters after the All-Star Break, 5th-most among NL pitchers.
- His 202 strikeouts in his first 34 career games are the most ever by a Cardinal and rank 17th all-time in National League history (since 1908).
- Averaged 10.85 strikeouts/9 IP in 2018, ranking first among rookies in franchise history (min. 150 IP) and 4th all-time for rookies behind Kerry Wood (12.58 in 1998), Dwight Gooden (11.39 in 1984) and Hideo Nomo (11.10 in 1995), all who went on to win Rookie of the Year awards.
- His .199 average against ranked as the 5th-lowest mark in MLB history among rookies (min. 150 IP). Jose Fernandez (2013) and Hideo Nomo (1995) co-lead at .182.
- Ranked 7th among NL starters in 2018 with a .177 average against (40-226) the first time through a lineup.
- Ranked 6th in the NL in Hits/ 9 IP (6.44), which also tied Fred Beebe (1906) for lowest all-time among rookies in franchise history (min. 150 IP).
- Threw his curveball 11.2 % (289 of 2,587) of the time and allowed only 8 singles and no extra-base hits (.178 slugging). Opponents hit just .181 (34-188) against his slider (Statcast).
- 14.0% of his pitches were put into play, 6th-lowest in NL single-season history and lowest by a Cardinal (min. 150 IP).
- 30.1% of opposing swings were put in play, 2nd-lowest in the NL in 2018 (Max Scherzer 27.5), 8th-lowest NL single season history and lowest by a Cardinal (min. 150 IP).
- His 31.5% swing-and-miss percentage was T3rd-highest in the NL, highest by a Cardinal in single-season history (min. 150 IP).
- Yielded team-leading 20 home runs (1.19 HR/9 IP), accounting for 28 of his total 59 (47.5%) runs allowed. Surrendered at least one homer in 18 starts (T7th in NL). Sported the 5th-lowest ERA of NL pitchers to allow 20 or more homers, behind Max Scherzer (2.53, 23 HR), Jameson Taillon (3.20, 20), Zack Greinke (3.21, 28), and Jon Lester (3.32, 24).
- Ranked T4th among NL pitchers with 11 hit batsmen, including four Cubs.
- Received team-low 4.41 run support average, 13th-lowest in the NL. Received one run or fewer of support in 11 starts & 2 runs or fewer in 18 starts. He was 7-0 (STL 8-2) in games which he received 3 or more runs of support.
- Was one of nine NL pitchers to not allow a hit with the bases loaded (min. 9 batters faced). His 6 strikeouts with the bases loaded ranked T8th in NL.

- Recalled (3/28) when Adam Wainwright was placed on the 10-day DL and made his 2018 season debut at Milwaukee (4/3), striking out a-then MLB career-high nine Brewers in a 5-4 loss at Miller Park.
- Earned his first career Major League win with a 13-strikeout masterpiece, leading St. Louis to a 5-1 victory over the Phillies (5/20) at Busch. Established single-game career highs in innings (7.2), strikeouts and pitches (120). Retired the first 10 batters and 12 of the final 13; his lone blemish was a first-pitch solo home run to Rhys Hoskins in the 4th inning.
- Became the 8th Cardinal to post 10 or more strikeouts in one of his first nine MLB starts and the most recent since Luke Weaver (8/31/2016 at MIL).
- Fanned 13 batters on two occasions (5/20 vs. PHI & 6/22 at MIL), most by a Cardinal in 2018 and tying a Cardinals rookie record shared with Shelby Miller (5/10/13 vs. COL), Dick Hughes (5/30/67 at CIN) and Scipio Spinks (6/25/72 at NYM).
- His 13 strikeouts in one of his first 10 career MLB games surpassed the previous Cardinals record of 11 by Alan Benes (1996) and Harvey Haddix (1952).
- Joined Milwaukee's Freddy Peralta (5/13/18 vs. COL, 13) as the second MLB pitcher to strike out at least 13 batters while recording his first career MLB win in 2018.
- Joined Ernie Broglio (7/15/60 vs. CHI), Bob Gibson (6/17/70 at SD), Todd Stottlemyre (5/11/98 vs. MIL), Shelby Miller (5/10/13 vs. COL) and Jaime Garcia (4/14/16 vs. MIL) as the 6th Cardinal in franchise history to allow 2 or fewer hits, 2 or fewer walks, and strike out 13 or more batters in a start.
- Is one of just six pitchers in MLB history to have two or more 13+ strikeout performances in their first 17 career games: Kerry Wood (4-1998), Hideo Nomo (4-1995), Don Wilson (2-1967), Bob Turley (1953-54) & Bob Feller (2-1936)
- Was the first MLB pitcher to throw 120 or more pitches in one of his first 10 MLB games since Odrisamer Despaigne vs. NYM (123, 7/20/2014) and the youngest Cardinals pitcher to do so since Bud Smith's (21.315) no-hitter at San Diego on 9/3/01 (134 pitches).
- Finished June ranked T5th in the NL in strikeouts (37) and 6th in opponent BA (.194).
- Carried a no-hitter for 6.1 innings at Milwaukee (6/22), before allowing a Jesus Aguilar solo HR. Matched his own Cardinals rookie single-game record with 13 strikeouts.
- Hurled 5.0 scoreless frames in a no-decision to lead St. Louis to a 5-0 shutout win over the Cubs on ESPN Sunday Night Baseball on Father's Day (6/17) at Busch. Became the 3rd Cardinals starting pitcher 22 years or younger to throw at least 5.0 shutout innings in a start against the Cubs since 1963, joining Andy Rincon (9.0 IP, 4/21/1981) and Shelby Miller (5.0, IP, 6/17/13).
- His 38 strikeouts in July ranked 2nd in the NL and was the 2nd-highest total by a Cardinals rookie in the month of July, behind only Dizzy Dean (54 in 1932).
- Was 4-0 with a 1.13 ERA in five August starts, ranking T3rd in the NL in ERA leading the league with .136 opponent batting average. Became the 5th rookie starter in the last 30 seasons with four or more wins and an ERA below 1.20 in a calendar month (Elias).

- Southern California native held the Dodgers hitless over his first 5.1 innings (8/22) before allowing Joc Pederson solo HR in the 6th inning, his lone hit allowed. Struck out 10, taking no-decision in a 3-1 Cardinals loss at Dodger Stadium. It marked his seventh-straight start with 7 or more strikeouts; first Cardinal to do so since Chris Carpenter (7 straight, June 8-July 17, 2005).
- Took the loss after holding the Dodgers to one run (Yasiel Puig solo HR) while striking out eight in a 3-0 defeat opposite Walker Buehler at Busch Stadium on 9/14. Was his first lost since July 31 vs. COL (spanning 7 starts). Passed Dick Hughes (161, 6th) and Harvey Haddix (163, 5th) among Cardinals rookie strikeout leaders during that game.
- St. Louis lost his final six starts (9/3-present) to end the season.
- Made five starts over two stints for Memphis (AAA), going 4-1 with a 2.27 ERA (31.2 IP) and 41 strikeouts (11.7 SO/9 IP).
- At the time of his final recall (5/15), ranked among the Pacific Coast League leaders in wins (4, T2nd), ERA (2.27, 2nd), strikeouts (41, T6th) and WHIP (0.92, 3rd).
- Was one of three Redbirds pitchers in the Top 6 in the PCL in strikeouts, joining Austin Gomber (44, T2nd) and Daniel Ponce de Leon (44, T2nd).

- Named the Cardinals 2017 Minor League Pitcher of the Year and appeared in six games (five starts) for St. Louis during his Major League debut season.
- Led Cardinals minor league pitchers in ERA (2.18) & strikeouts (147), co-led in wins (14), and ranked 3rd in innings pitched (148.2) and T4th in starts (25) in 2017.
- The last Cards pitcher to lead the minor league organization in all three categories at the end of the minor league season was Rick Ankiel in 1999 (13-3, 2.35 ERA, 194 K); 13 wins co-led with Larry Luebbers.
- Became the 11th different Cardinal to make his MLB debut in 2017 and the 7th different Cardinals pitcher to make a start behind the original starting five, following Marco Gonzales and Luke Weaver.
- As a starter in five outings, went 0-2 with a 6.64 ERA (20.1 IP/15 ER), 20 strikeouts and 10 walks (St. Louis was 3-2).
- Also made one scoreless relief appearance on 9/25 vs. CHI (1.0 IP).
- Had contract purchased (9/1) and made his Major League debut that night in St. Louis' 11-6 comeback win at SF. Allowed 5 runs on 8 hits and struck out 6 over 4.0 innings in no-decision.
- Became the first Cardinal to draw a starting assignment in his MLB debut since Luke Weaver (8/13/16 at CHI).
- Was 4th Cardinals pitcher to make his MLB debut during the season and was the first Cards pitcher since Kurt Kepshire (1984) to debut as a starter at SF.
- Was the 15th youngest Cardinal to make his MLB debut in a start at 21 years and 321 days old and the youngest since Rick Ankiel (20 years-35 days) at Montreal on 8/23/99.
- Michael Wacha was the next oldest (16th on St. Louis' list) at 21.333 when he made his MLB debut start on May 30, 2013 vs. Kansas City.
- Was also the youngest pitcher to make a start in his MLB debut since the Dodgers' Julio Urias (19.289) vs. Mets on 5/27/16.
- Was the 7th Cardinal in club history to make MLB debut in a start vs. SF & first since Lance Lynn (6/2/11 at STL).
- Fanned his first Major League batter faced (Denard Span, swinging) on 9/1.
- Made a combined 25 starts between Memphis (AAA) and Springfield (AA), leading Cardinals minor league pitchers in ERA (2.18) & strikeouts (147), co-leading in wins (14), and ranking 3rd in innings pitched (148.2) and T4th in starts (25).
- His 14 wins were T7th-most among all minor league pitchers, while his 2.18 ERA was the 12th-lowest.

2017 CONTINUED…

- Rated by Baseball America as the NL's "Best Defensive First Baseman", "Best Hitter" (No. 2), "Best Baserunner (No. 3)" and having the "Best Strike-Zone Judgment" (No. 2) in their Best Tools Survey following the season.
- Nominated as the Diamondbacks Heart and Hustle Award winner and Roberto Clemente Award for the fourth consecutive season.
- Became the first player in team history to reach the 30 HR/100 RBI plateau 3 times (also: 2013, '15)…one of six active players to do so three or more times since 2013, joining Edwin Encarnacion (4), Nelson Cruz (3), Anthony Rizzo (3), Nolan Arenado (3) and Jose Abreu (3).
- Was one of 10 NL players to reach the 30 HR/100 RBI mark along with Giancarlo Stanton, Nolan Arenado, Charlie Blackmon, Marcell Ozuna, Votto, Ryan Zimmerman, Rizzo, Travis Shaw and teammate Jake Lamb.
- He and Lamb became the second set of Diamondback teammates to reach the 30 HR/100 RBI, joining Jay Bell (38 HR, 112 RBI), Steve Finley (34 HR, 103 RBI) and Matt Williams (35 HR, 142 RBI) in 1999.
- He and Lamb were also the fifth set of NL teammates all-time to each have 30+ home runs, 100+ RBI and 85+ walks in a single season, joining Bobby Abreu and Jim Thome (2004 Phillies), Jeff Bagwell and Lance Berkman (2001 Astros), Barry Bonds and Jeff Kent (2000 Giants) and Ray Lankford and Mark McGwire (1998 Cardinals).
- Became the first Diamondbacks right-handed hitter with five seasons of 20+ home runs, tied with Steve Finley for second place overall in club history, behind Luis Gonzalez (6).
- Became the first player in Diamondbacks history with four seasons of 100+ runs scored (2013, '15-17).
- Made his sixth Opening Day start at first base, extending his club record and tying for second most in club history (Randy Johnson, Steve Finley and Chris Young).
- Notched his 100th career stolen base on 4/5 vs. San Francisco, becoming 1 of 5 Major Leaguers (since 1974) to have 100 home runs and 100 stolen bases as a first baseman (Jeff Bagwell, Andres Galarraga, Dan Dreissen and Derrek Lee).
- Moved into sole possession of second place on the club's all-time hit list on 4/6 vs. San Francisco, surpassing Steve Finley (847).
- Drew three walks in back-to-back games from 4/17-4/18, the fourth time in team history that feat had been accomplished (last: Goldschmidt, 4/24-4/25/16).
- Recorded four hits and three RBI on 4/25 vs. San Diego, marking the seventh such game of his career…the only Major Leaguer with more games of 4+ hits and 3+ RBI since 2012 at that point was Miguel Cabrera (11).
- Recorded a club-record five straight multi-RBI efforts from 4/21-4/26…was the third NL player since 2014 to accomplish this feat, joining Charlie Blackmon (4/21-4/25/17) and Adam Lind (8/28/9/5/15).
- Tied a club record by reaching base safely in nine consecutive plate appearances from 4/25-4/26 vs. San Diego (fourth time).

- Was born in Wilmington, Del. but moved to Texas before he was one year old.
- Grew up a fan of the Astros' Jeff Bagwell & Craig Biggio.
- As a high school senior, was seated in the center field upper deck at Minute Maid Park when Albert Pujols hit the famous home run off Astros closer Brad Lidge to launch the Cardinals to a dramatic comeback victory in Game 5 of the 2005 National League Championship Series.

The Woodlands (Tex.) High School

- Graduated from The Woodlands (Tex.) High School in 2006. Did not start on the baseball team until his junior year.
- Played third base as a senior in 2006 as the Highlanders (38-1 record) won the Class 5A Texas state baseball championship and were crowned National Champions by Baseball America, USA Today, and Collegiate Baseball.
- Originally selected by Los Angeles (NL) in the 49th round of the June, 2006 First-Year Player Draft, but did not sign to attend Texas State University.
- The Dodgers expected Goldschmidt to opt for college, but selected him anyway because he was highly recommended by then Dodgers scout Chris Smith, whose son was a high school teammate of Goldschmidt.
- Also was high school teammates of pitcher/shortstop Kyle Drabek, who was selected by Philadelphia in the first round (18th overall) that year.

Texas State University

- Played three seasons at Texas State University (2007-09), where left as the school's all-time leader in home runs (36) and RBI (178).
- His No. 37 was retired in Feb. 2015, becoming the first Texas State baseball player to have his jersey retired and just the fifth across all sports at the university.
- As a sophomore in 2008, faced off against fellow Houston-native Matt Carpenter (red-shirt junior) and Texas Christian University twice.
- As a junior in 2009, helped lead the Bobcats to the Southland Conference championship that included a record 41 wins.
- Won back-to-back Southland Conference Hitter of the Year titles (2008-09).
- Named 2009 All-SC Player of the Year after breaking school records with 18 homers and NCAA Division I-leading 87 RBI.
- Two-time SC Scholar Athlete of the Year (2008-09) and tabbed as Texas State's 2009 male Student Athlete of the Year after making the dean's list every semester he was enrolled.
- Boasted a 3.87 GPA in Finance through his junior year at Texas State, and was 10 hours short from securing his degree when signing with Arizona.
- Played for the Anchorage Bucs in 2008 Alaska Baseball League where he was an All-League Selection at Designated Hitter.
- Selected by Arizona in the 8th round of the June, 2009 First-Year Player Draft.

University of Phoenix

- To honor both himself and to fulfill a promise to his family, graduated from the University of Phoenix with a bachelor's of science degree in Management in 2013, the season where he finished second in the NL Most Valuable Player voting. Took 10 classes to earn his diploma, completing his classwork on team flights and at the hotel while on the road throughout his first two full Major League seasons.

Philanthropic Efforts

- He and his wife began volunteering at Phoenix Children's Hospital during the winter of 2011, and later received permanent visitors' credentials due to visting so frequently.
- He and his wife started the Goldy's Fund 4 Kids (GF4K) charity in 2014. It's mission is to help Phoenix Children's Hospital patients and their families through hands-on volunteering, time together, and providing tangible products to help patients stay positive and get healthy during their stay.
- Teamed with the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and raised money to benefit Phoenix Children's Hospital through his Goldy's Fund 4 Kids, launching a "Bleacher Creature" program (2014) and hosting "Goldy's Bowling Bash" (2016 and 2018).
- On April 4, 2017, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation dedicated Paul Goldschmidt Field, the 39th field in the "Diamonds Back" Youth Field Building Program. Located at Falcon Park in nearby Goodyear, the field received a new scoreboard, fencing, windscreen, sports lighting system and fixtures, irrigation system, sod, stabilizer and other general field updates.
- In 2017, surprised a second grade class at Edison Elementary School in Phoenix for National Teacher Appreciation Day.
- In 2018, he and his wife were named honorary chairs for the Hope Lives Here capital campaign to raise funds for the building of the new Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders at Phoenix Children's Hospital.
- In 2018, chaired events for Chrysalis, a non-profit domestic violence shelter; and assisted Soldier's Best Friend, a local non-profit that pairs veterans with adopted animals and then certifies them as a service animal.

Miscellaneous

- Traveled to Australia and New Zealand on a goodwill tour with Diamondbacks officials in November 2013, in advance of the 2014 Opening Series in Sydney.
- Cites Lyle Overbay as one of the most influential players in his career (Paul made his debut on 8/1/11 and Overbay signed on 8/13/11)…helped him on defense and positioning.

- Was the Cardinals most used reliever over a 15-game stretch (6/2-7/3), appearing in 15 games that ranked T4th-most in MLB over that period.
- Recalled on 7/24 and made his first career MLB start at Cincinnati that night…began start with 6.1 no-hit innings before Joey Votto singled in the 7th after the game was delayed by stadium fire alarms.
- He and Daniel Ponce de Leon (7/23 at CIN) became the first pair of rookie teammates to carry consecutive no-hitters into the 7th inning since 1964. Also joined Michael Wacha (6/3 vs. PIT) and Ponce de Leon as Cardinals to carry no-hitters 6.0 or more IP in 2018.
- Joined Daniel Ponce de Leon and Jack Flaherty as rookies to make three consecutive starts in a series at Cincinnati (July 23-25), marking the first time St. Louis started three rookies (Mike Busby, Matt Morris and Manny Aybar) since their final series of the 1997 season (Sept. 26-28 vs. Chicago), and the first time outside of expanded September rosters since August 8-9, 1959 vs. Philadelphia (Marshall Bridges, Ernie Broglio, Bob Gibson).
- Earned first MLB win vs. Colorado (8/1) in relief, striking out two during a scoreless 6th.
- Threw 5.0 scoreless IP to gain his first win as a starter at Kansas City (8/10), combining with Chasen Shreve (1.0) and Daniel Ponce de Leon (3.0) on a 7-0 shutout.
- Stretched win streak to three games with 6.0 shutout innings in 4-2 win over Washington (8/15), matching his career-high with six strikeouts.
- Blanked the Dodgers over his first 4.0 innings (8/20), improving his scoreless inning streak to 15.0, but took ND in the Cardinals 5-3 win at Dodger Stadium that featured 9th inning home runs from Jedd Gyorko & Matt Carpenter.
- Improved to 4-0 with a 12-3 Cardinals win at Coors Field (8/26). He became the Cardinals first left-handed starter to win a game at Coors Field since Kent Mercker (1999).
- Hurled quality start in a no-decision in 5-3 walk-off loss at Detroit (9/7). Joined Rick Ankiel (6/10/00) as the 2nd Cardinals rookie left-hander to start a game at Comerica Park, and the 5th Cardinals rookie to start a game in Detroit in the regular or postseason, joining Paul Dean (10/8/1934 - W.S. Game 6), José Jimenez (6/4/1999 at Tiger Stadium) and Anthony Reyes (10/21/2006 - W.S. Game 1).
- Earned his sixth win at Atlanta (9/18), limiting the Braves to one run over 5.0 IP in St. Louis' 8-1 win. His lone run blemish was a Ronald Acuña solo homer in the 3rd inning.

- Was on Opening Day roster for ninth consecutive season and was on the Astros active roster all season.
- Made 65 appearances during the regular season, his eighth season (of nine total) when making at least 60 appearances. Joined Tyler Clippard, David Robertson, Brad Ziegler and Fernando Rodney as the only Major League pitchers with eight 60+ appearance seasons since 2009 (Gregerson's debut).
- Finished the season with a 4.57 ERA (31 ER/61.0 IP), his highest ERA in any of his nine career seasons.
- Struck out 70 batters in 61.0 innings (10.33 strikeouts per 9.0 innings). The 70 strikeouts were his most since 2012 (San Diego, 72).
- Enjoyed success away from Minute Maid Park, going 1-1 with a 3.29 ERA (10 ER/27.1 IP) and 34 strikeouts in 27 outings on the road.
- Had three scoreless appearances (April 3-6), before giving up a career-high six runs on five hits in only 0.1 of an inning vs. KC (4/8). Gave up two homers, marking only the third time in his career when allowing two HR in an outing. His ERA on the season not including his six runs allowed on April 8, was 3.71 (25 ER/60.2 IP) with a .242 opponent batting average.
- Following the 4/8 outing, threw eight consecutive scoreless outings (7.1IP) to finish off the month of April.
- Won his first game of the season vs. DET (5/25), despite also taking a blown save.
- Notched his only save of the season vs. SEA (7/18), pitching 1.1 scoreless innings. The one save was his single-season low since 2011 with the Padres when he had none.
- Was scoreless in 23-of-27 outings (5/9-7/22) and owned a 1.69 ERA (5 ER/26.2 IP) with 36 strikeouts and a .177 opponent batting average in that span dropping his ERA to a season-low 3.76.

2017 POSTSEASON: Made five scoreless postseason appearances: two in the ALDS vs. BOS, one in the ALCS vs. NYY and two in the World Series vs. LAD. Yielded only two hits in his 3.2 combined innings.

- Earned the save on Opening Day at NYY (4/4) becoming the 3rd pitcher in Astros history with two career saves on Opening Day joining Billy Wagner (3) and Dave Smith (2).
- Led MLB in swing-and-miss percentage (42.6%, min. 200 batters faced). Was the second-highest mark by an Astros pitcher since 1988, behind a 48.1% mark set by Brad Lidge (2004).
- Ranked 5th among American League relievers in opponent batting average (.183). Was the 2nd-lowest mark of his career behind a .170 opponent average in 2010.
- Ranked 6th among A.L. pitchers in opponent BA against right-handed hitters (.156). Also ranked 8th all-time in Astros history for a single season (min. 100 batters faced).
- Ranked 10th among AL relievers with a career-best 61.4% groundball rate.

minimum 600.0 IP*

- Posted a 0.97 WHIP, marking his second consecutive season with a WHIP under 1.00.
- Was one of six A.L. relievers to post a WHIP under 1.00 in the 2015 and 2016 seasons, joining Zach Britton, Koji Uehara, Roberto Osuna, Andrew Miller and Nate Jones.
- Was placed on the Bereavement/Family Medical Emergency List from June 14-16.
- Placed on the 15-day Disabled List (8/2-12, retroactive to 7/28) with a left oblique strain. Was activated from the D.L on Aug. 12.
- Converted 16 consecutive saves from (8/12/15-5/6/16) marking the longest consecutive saves streak by an Astro since Brandon Lyon saved 16 straight in 2010.
- Picked up the win in three consecutive outings (6/23-27). Became the seventh pitcher in club history to record a win in three consecutive relief outings, and the first since RHP Doug Henry in 1998.
- Recorded a strikeout in a career-best 17 consecutive appearances (6/4-7/19) with 25 strikeouts over 16.1 innings (13.78 SO/9) in that span. Was the longest streak by an Astros reliever since RHP Jerome Williams had a 17-game streak in 2014.

- Signed a three-year deal with the Astros in the offseason as a free agent and was immediately installed as the club's closer.
- Became the 11th pitcher in club history to record a save on Opening Day, as he closed out Houston's 2-0 victory vs. CLE (4/6). Prior to Gregerson, the last to do it was LHP Erik Bedard (3/31/2013 vs. TEX).
- Began his season with seven consecutive scoreless outings (April 6-20). The only other Astros closer to begin his career with a scoreless streak of at least seven games was Doug Jones in 1992.
- Successfully converted 31-of-36 save opportunities (86.1%), posting a 7-3 record with a 3.10 ERA (21 ER/61.0 IP), 59 strikeouts and 10 walks in 64 appearances.
- Ranked 10th in the American League with 31 saves. Recorded the most saves by an Astros reliever since RHP Jose Valverde saved 44 games in 2009.
- His eight wins in relief ranked T2nd among A.L. relievers behind only the Royals Wade Davis (8).

2015 CONTINUED…

- Became the second pitcher in Astros history to record seven wins and 31 saves in a single season, joining RHP Doug Jones, who won 11 games and saved 36 in 1992.
- Marked his seventh consecutive season with at least 60 appearances and his 7th consecutive season he posted an ERA below 3.25.
- Set two club records, as the Astros won each of the first 21 games in which he appeared. It marked the longest start of season streak in club history (previously RHP Donne Wall, 10 games in 1996). Also marked the longest streak by a player to begin his career with the Astros, surpassing RHP Roger Clemens (7 games in 2004) and RHP Peter Munro (7G in 2002).
- Held right-handed batters to a .189 (20-106) batting average. The only Astros reliever since 1974 to hold righties to a lower batting average for a single season (min. 70 BF) was LHP Tony Sipp in 2014 (.176, 16-91).
- Ranked sixth among AL relievers and set a new career high in groundball percentage (61%).
- Made his seventh consecutive Opening Day roster.
- Placed on the Bereavement/Family Medical Emergency List twice (5/9-12 & 6/14-16) and was inactive for three games each instance.
- Missed three games from (9/16-18) for the birth of his son.
- Allowed a home run to Logan Morrison vs. SEA (5/1), which was the first homer he allowed to a left-handed hitter since Sept. 3, 2012 at LAD (OF Andre Ethier). Had gone 169 games without allowing a homer to a lefty.
- Recorded his 12th save of the season at BAL (5/26) tying an Astros record by recording 12 saves within the Astros first 46 games of a season.
- Recorded nine saves in May, which ranked T3rd in the A.L. and tied for 3rd in Astros history with Fred Gladding (1969).
- Posted his longest outing of the season with 2.0 scoreless innings vs. TB (8/18).

2015 POSTSEASON: Pitched in four postseason games, recording three saves while posting a 2.25 ERA (1 ER/4.0 IP and six strikeouts…became the first pitcher in Astros history to record a save in each of his first three postseason appearances with the club recording the save in the AL Wild Card Game at NYY with a perfect 9th inning, and recorded the save in Games 1 & 3 of the ALDS against the Royals…the save in Game 3 of the ALDS vs. KC was a four-out save, his first four-out save since (9/11/12) vs. STL with San Diego…joined Brad Lidge (NLCS Games 2, 3, 4) as the only pitchers in club history to record a save in the postseason by throwing more than one inning.

CAREER NOTES

- Selected by MLB to represent the Cardinals on the 2018 National League All-Star team in Washington D.C., his first career MLB All-Star nod. Missed game to return home to Jupiter, Fla., with his wife Lauren, as they welcomed twin daughter (Madelyn) and son (Miles) on July 16, 2018.
- Finished 6th in the 2018 NL Cy Young Award voting.
- In 2018, co-led the National League in wins (18) with Max Scherzer and Jon Lester, becoming the first Cardinals pitchers to do so since Adam Wainwright (19 in 2013) and the first to do so in his very first season with the Redbirds.
- His league-leading .818 win pct. (18-4) was the best by a Cardinal since Kyle Lohse paced the Senior Circuit in 2012 (16-3, .842).
- Was a perfect 10-0 on the road in 2018, becoming only the 3rd MLB pitcher (dating to 1908) to post a 1.000 road winning pct. while winning 10 or more games, joining Greg Maddux (13-0 for 1995 Braves) and Jimmy Key (10-0 for 1994 Yankees).
- Ranked among 2018 NL leaders in wins (18, T1st), ERA (2.83, 4th), innings (200.2, 6th), starts (32, T9th), shutouts (1, T1st), WHIP (1.07, 5th), quality starts (20, T6th), batters faced (808, 8th), HR/9 IP (0.72, 4th), and hits allowed (186, 1st).
- Also ranked in the 2018 Top 10 among NL pitchers in strikeout/walk ratio (5.03, 4th), baserunners/9 IP (9.96, 5th), opponent OBP (.278, 7th), opponent slugging pct. (.350, 7th) and opponent OPS (.628, 7th).
- Led the National League in 2018 in fewest walks/9 IP (1.30) and walks/batter faced (0.36), and finished 4th in strikeouts/walks (5.03).
- Issued one or fewer walks in NL-leading 25 starts and no walks in 12 starts (T1st in NL with Clayton Kershaw and Ivan Nova 12). He (29 walks, 32 starts) and Nathan Eovaldi (20 walks, 21 starts,) were the only MLB pitchers to issue fewer walks than starts in 2018 (minimum 20 starts).
- Threw 71.1% his first-pitches in 2018 for strikes, highest in the NL and highest in Cardinals single-season history. Also ranked among NL leaders in percentage of pitches taken (47.5, T1st), percentage of pitches put in play (20.8, 2nd), swing-and-miss percentage (20.0, 4th), percentage swinging at the first pitch (35.4, 1st).
- Recipient of the 2018 Darryl Kile Award, voted on by his teammates.
- Pitched three seasons in the Japanese Central League (2015-17) and was a combined 31-13 with 2.25 ERA in 62 starts for the Yomiuri Giants.
- Won Central League MVP of the Month awards in June 2015 and August 2017, becoming the first foreign-born Giants player to win MVP of the Month multiple times.
- Made 244 relief appearances between starts from 9/6/2009-5/25/2014.
- Converted 66 of 80 career minor league save opportunities.
- Signed a four-year contract extension through 2023 on February 26, 2019

2018

- Established career-bests in wins (18), starts (32), innings pitched (200.2), strikeouts (146) and opponent batting average (.245) in the first year of a two-year deal following a three-year stint in Japan.
- Was one of five Cardinals (Jordan Hicks, Matt Carpenter, Bud Norris, Francisco Pena) and the only starting pitcher to be active for every game all season.
- Selected by Major League Baseball to represent the Cardinals on the 2018 National League All-Star team. It was his first MLB All-Star nod and second recognition of his career (2010 Midwest League Mid-Season All-Star with A-Fort Wayne).
- Missed the All-Star Game in Washington D.C., as he returned home to Jupiter, Fla., with his wife Lauren, as they welcomed twin daughter (Madelyn) and son (Miles) on July 16.
- Was the first Cardinals starting pitcher in franchise history to earn an All-Star nod in his first season after signing as a free agent, and the only non-rookie player selected in 2018 who didn't play in the Majors the previous year.
- Finalist for National League's Comeback Player of the Year by MLBPA Player's Choice Awards, in a voting by his peers.
- Was 10-0 with a 3.53 ERA (97.0 IP) in 16 road starts, ranking T2nd in the NL in road wins. Joined Eddie Yuhas (9-0 in 1952) as one of only two pitchers in Cardinals history with a perfect road winning percentage (since 1913).
- One of eight pitchers in MLB history (since 1913) to post a road record of 9-0 or better in a single season (last: Daisuke Matsuzaka, BOS, 9-0, in 2008).
- Joined Atlanta Braves' Greg Maddux (13-0 in 1995) and New York Yankees' Jimmy Key (10-0 in1994) as the only starters in Major League history to win at least 10 games on the road without absorbing a loss (since 1913).
- Ranked 2nd in the National League in home ERA (2.17). All four of his losses came at Busch Stadium, despite allowing three runs or fewer in all four defeats.
- Became the first Cardinal to win 18 games in a season since Adam Wainwright (20) in 2014, and the first Cardinal to post 18 wins in his first season with the Redbirds since Darryl Kile (20) in 2000.
- His .818 winning percentage led the National League and was the 2nd-highest single-season qualifying mark in Cardinals history behind Kyle Lohse (.842, 16-3) in 2012.
- Ranked among NL leaders in wins (18, T1st), ERA (2.83, 4th), innings pitched (200.2, 6th), starts (32, T9th), shutouts (1, T1st), WHIP (1.07, 5th), quality starts (20, T6th), batters faced (808, 8th), opponent at-bats (760, 4th), HR/9 IP (0.72, 4th), and hits allowed (186, 1st).
- Also ranked in the Top 10 among NL pitchers in strikeout/walk ratio (5.03, 4th), baserunners/9 IP (9.96, 5th), opponent OBP (.278, 7th), opponent slugging pct. (.350, 7th) and opponent OPS (.628, 7th).
- His 15.0 pitches per inning ranked 2nd in the National League (NYM's Jacob deGrom, 14.8), and was the lowest average by Cardinal since John Lackey (14.3 in 2015). Averaged 3.72 pitchers per batter faced, 2nd in the NL to Ivan Nova (3.70).
- Led the National League in fewest walks/9 IP (1.30) and walks/batter faced (0.36), and finished 4th in strikeouts/walks (5.03). Joel Piñeiro (2009) was the last Cardinal to lead the NL in walks/9 IP (1.14) and walks/batter faced (0.31).
- Issued one or fewer walks in NL-leading 25 starts and no walks in 12 starts (T1st in NL with Clayton Kershaw and Ivan Nova 12).
- Mikolas (29 walks, 32 starts) and Nathan Eovaldi (20 walks, 21 starts,) were the only MLB pitchers to issue fewer walks than starts in 2018 (minimum 20 starts).
- Did not walk a batter over three starts (4/22-5/4) totaling 21.0 IP, T4th-longest streak in the NL behind Ivan Nova (27.2), Tanner Roark (24.2) and Ross Stripling (24.0).
- Also logged walk-less streaks of 15.0, 12.0, and 10.2 IP in 2018.
- Issued MLB-low two walks in March/April (33.0 IP) and September/October (33.2 IP).
- Matched Joaquin Andujar's (36.0 IP in 1982) mark for fewest walks by a Cardinals pitcher in March/April, and tied five Cardinals for their September/October records. (30 or more innings pitched).

- Paced National League pitchers in ground balls (304), and ranked 3rd in ground ball percentage (50.0), T5th in ground ball double plays induced (18) and 5th in ground ball/fly ball ratio (1.83).
- Limited opposing right-handers to a .264 opponent slugging percentage, 2nd-lowest in the NL and 5th-lowest in Cardinals single-season history. Twelve of his 16 home runs allowed were hit by left-handers.
- Threw 71.1% his first-pitches for strikes, highest in the NL and highest in Cardinals single-season history. Also ranked among NL leaders in percentage of pitches taken (47.5, T1st), percentage of pitches put in play (20.8, 2nd), swing-and-miss percentage (20.0, 4th), percentage swinging at the first pitch (35.4, 1st).
- Pitched 7.0 or more innings in 12 starts (T5th in NL) and at least 6.0 innings in 24 of his 32 starts (T6th NL). Worked 7.0 innings in four consecutive starts (4/14-5/4), T4th-longest among NL pitchers (Jacob deGrom led the NL with 7).
- Logged scoreless streaks of 14.2 (5/16-5/27) and 14.0 (4/27-5/10), the 4th- and 5th-longest scoreless streaks by a Cardinal in 2018.
- Ranked 3rd in the NL in both run support (131) and run support average (5.88). Sported a 18-0 record with eight no-decisions (St. Louis was 23-3) when receiving two or more runs of support in his starts.
- Among NL pitchers defensively, finished 2nd in total chances (51), 3rd in putouts (19) and T4th in assists (30), all team-leading totals.
- Allowed two stolen bases in three chances, tied with Zack Greinke for fewest stolen bases allowed among qualified NL Pitchers.
- Made his Cardinals debut against the Brewers at Miller Park (4/2) and won, 8-4. Marked his first Major League start (and victory) since August 25, 2014 at Seattle (with Texas Rangers).
- Struck out a then career-high seven batters while working 7.0 IP for his third straight start at Pittsburgh (4/27). Was in line for the win before Pirates scored three in the 9th and went on to win, 6-5, in 11 innings.
- Pitched 6.2 innings and only allowed a solo home run (Raffy Lopez) against his former drafting team in a 2-1 Cardinals win over the Padres at Petco Park (5/10).
- Was one of 19 MLB pitchers and eight in the National League to throw a shutout in 2018. Threw his first career shutout firing a four-hit gem with nine strikeouts vs. KC (5/21). Set career highs in innings pitched (9.0) and strikeouts (9). Retired 15 straight from the 4th to the 9th inning and 16-of-17 to finish game.
- The Jupiter, Fla. native allowed one unearned run over 7.0 innings for a win in home stand finale vs. Miami (6/7), lowering his ERA to 2.27.
- Earned his team-leading 17th win of the season and his 4th in as many starts in a 9-2 victory over San Francisco (9/23) at Busch Stadium. Held the Giants to his season-low two hits and struck out eight, his highest total against a National League team.

2018 CONTINUED…

- Finished his season going 5-0 with a 2.14 ERA (33.2 IP) in five September starts. Became the first Cardinal since Adam Wainwright (2014) to win five games in only five starts in September, and only the 3rd Cardinals pitcher all-time (Flint Rhem, 1930).
- St. Louis was 9-0 when he recorded a hit in 2018.
- Shared the Major League lead in home runs among pitchers (2) in 2018; also NYM's Steven Matz, teammate John Gant, and CIN's Michael Lorenzen who had 4, but 2 as pinch hitter.
- Ranked T3rd in extra-base hits (3) and T9th in hits (9).
- Hit a two-run homer (4/2) off Milwaukee's Zach Davies in the 5th inning for his first Major League hit. Was St. Louis' first pitcher to achieve the feat since Mark Worrell (June 5, 2008 at Washington, Game 2 of DH).
- Hit safely in four straight starts (4-for-8) from 7/28-8/13. His 4-game hit streak was T2nd-longest for a pitcher (Max Scherzer, 6G).
- Hit two-run home run in 7-5 win at Coors Field (8/24), his second career home run. His 426-ft blast was the 4th-longest tracked from a pitcher in 2018 and the longest hit by a Cardinals pitcher since Statcast began tracking in 2015.
- Recognized as having the "3rd-Best Control" in the National League by managers, coaches, scouts and executives in Baseball America's 2018 "Best Tools" survey following the season, trailing Zack Greinke and Jacob deGrom.

- Led the Japanese Central League in innings pitched (188.0), strikeouts (187), games started (27), strikeout/walk ratio (8.13) and hit batsmen (11).
- Ranked 3rd in the Japanese Central League in wins (14) and ERA (2.25) and 2nd in WHIP (0.98).
- Won Central League MVP of the Month for August.

2016

- Missed the start of the season with right shoulder tightness, which required Platelet Rich Plasma Therapy in the United States. Rejoined the Yomiuri Giants on June 21 for the start of his season.

2015

- Led the Japanese Central League in winning percentage (.818, 13-3) of pitchers with 10 or more decisions, and WHIP (0.90) among qualifying starting pitchers.
- Won Central League MVP of the Month for June.

2014

- Made 10 Major League starts for the Texas Rangers and 16 appearances (6 starts) for Round Rock (AAA).
- Pitched 8.0 scoreless innings of three-hit ball at SEA (8/25) in what would be his final start with Texas.
- Was scratched from his start at HOU (8/30) with shoulder fatigue and did not pitch the remainder of the season.
- Was 2-1 with a 2.63 ERA in six starts on the road and 0-4 in four starts at Globe Life Park in Arlington.
- Made 10 relief appearances at Round Rock before moving into a starting role on May 30 vs. New Orleans, in which he threw 5.0 scoreless innings of two-hit ball for the win.

- Made a team-high 54 appearances for Tucson (AAA), his most since his career-high of 60 in 2010.
- Made two appearances in the Major Leagues with San Diego, both scoreless outings covering a total of 1.2 innings, vs. SF (7/11, 1.0 IP) and vs. CIN (7/31, 0.2 IP).
- Ranked 3rd in the Pacific Coast League with 26 saves, T5th in appearances (54) and 2nd in games finished (50).

- Pitched in 12 games for San Antonio (AA) before getting purchased by San Diego (5/5). Did not allow a home run in 12 relief appearances nailing down 4-of-5 save attempts.
- Made his Major League debut vs. MIA (5/5) and surrendered a home run to Giancarlo Stanton for his first batter faced. Struck out John Buck (looking) for his first MLB strikeout.
- Earned his first MLB win vs. LAA (5/20) tossing 2.0 scoreless innings in relief, retiring all six batters faced as the Padres won in walk-off fashion in the 13th inning.
- Made 25 relief appearances and earned two wins while posting a 3.62 ERA.
- Did not allow a run from 5/18-6/3, a span of 9.1 innings over seven appearances.
- Made 13 appearances in San Diego before being optioned to Tucson (AAA) on June 5.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranked 3rd in the Pacific Coast League with 26 saves for Tucson in 2013.
- Led the Midwest League with 60 appearances in 2010 while with Fort Wayne (A).
- Named a Midwest League Mid-Season All-Star in 2010 with Fort Wayne.
- Allowed just one home run over his last 57 appearances of the 2010 season, and finished the season on a 13.0-inning scoreless streak (13 app.).

CAREER NOTES

- He and Adam Wainwright have been a starting battery for 242 career games, the most in Cardinals history (surpassed Bob Gibson & Tim McCarver's 198 on 6/15/16) and the most for any tandem since Tom Glavine and Javy Lopez had 248 games together for the Braves (1994-2002).
- Made 14 straight Opening Day starts at catcher (2005-18), the most ever by a Redbirds backstop and the most consecutive starts at a single position by a Cardinal. His 14 consecutive Opening Day starts are 3rd-most in franchise history behind only Stan Musial (21, 1942-1963) and Lou Brock (15, 1965-1979).
- Is Major League Baseball's 3rd-toughest catcher to strike out (once every 9.95 PA's) since his MLB debut in 2004, and ranks 21st overall among all Major Leaguers during that time span.
- Since 2008, his 397 hits with runners in scoring position ranks 1st among MLB catchers and his .308 BA (397-1290) ranks 2nd (Buster Posey .315, 333-1056); his .285 average (177-620) with runners in scoring position and two outs, leads all catchers.
- Started and played the duration of 130 career extra-inning games, 2nd-most among catchers in Cardinals history behind Ted Simmons (134).
- Yadier (2006, 2011) and his two older brothers, Bengie (2002 Angels) and Jose (2009 Yankees), are the only trio of brothers to have all won a World Series ring.
- Signed a three-year contract extension on April 2, 2017, that runs through 2020.

Defensive Accolades

- Ranks among MLB all-time catching leaders in innings caught (11th, 15,388.1), games (12th, 1,836), starts (10th, 1,773), putouts (5th, 12,518) and total chances (4th, 1 13,531).
- Since 2005, leads all Major League catchers with a 40.6 caught stealing percentage, 114 double plays, 926 assists, and 15,044.1 innings caught (14 seasons total).
- Since 2005, has caught 280 attempted base stealers, ranking 2nd just behind Russell Martin (283).
- His 50 career pick-offs leads all catchers from 2004-18 with the next closest at 22 (Salvador Perez).
- Has caught 100+ games in 14 straight seasons (2005-present), the only Major League catcher to do so in that span. His 14 seasons of 100 or more starts behind the plate are 3rd-most in MLB history behind Bob Boone (15) and Ivan Rodriguez (17).
- Has been the starting catcher in 142 team shutout wins during his career, T5th highest total among all Major League catchers dating back to 1908.

St. Louis Cardinals Leaders

- Enters the 2019 season ranked among Cardinals all-time leaders in games played (1,870, 4th), hits (1,850, 10th), doubles (355, 7th), RBI (859, 9th), at-bats (6,551, 6th), extra-base hits (508, 11th) and sacrifice flies (65, 3rd).

- On St. Louis disabled list (left oblique strain), June 21 to end of season 2018; included injury rehabilitation assignments to Palm Beach (A) and Springfield (AA).

CAREER NOTES

- Earned 2015 Major League All-Star selection (manager's selection) for the National League.
- His .624 winning percentage (53-32) over the past six seasons (2013-18) ranks 10th among National League pitchers.
- Of his 127 career starts, 77 have been 6.0 innings or more, and 71 of those have been quality starts.
- Is a lifetime 29-13 with a 3.54 ERA in 72 games (66 starts/39 quality starts) at Busch Stadium.
- His .690 home win percentage is the 8th-best mark across Major League Baseball.
- In 2015, became the first Cardinals pitcher since Joe Magrane (18 in 1989) to win 17 or more games in a season under age 24.
- Named 2013 National League Championship Series MVP throwing 13.2 scoreless innings, allowing seven hits, and striking out 13 for a 2-0 record…pitched opposite Dodgers N.L. Cy Young winner Clayton Kershaw in both starts.
- Joined Livan Hernandez (1997) and Mike Boddicker (1983) as only rookies to have won an LCS MVP award.
- Is one of 20 pitchers in MLB history to record four or more wins in a single postseason and only the third rookie pitcher joining Livan Hernandez (4, 1997) and Francisco Rodriguez (5, 2002), and the only American-born rookie pitcher to win four games in a single postseason.
- Holds the Major League rookie strikeout record for one postseason with 33 in 2013.
- Threw 30.2 innings in the 2013 postseason, marking the most by a rookie in a single postseason since the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela set the mark with 40.2 in 1981.
- Became the first Cardinals pitcher to strike out the first nine batters of a game on April 23, 2014 at NYM…also became one of eight MLB pitchers in the last 100 years to strike out 10 batters in a start that lasted 4.0 innings or fewer.
- Also became just the 4th Cardinal to strike out 10 batters in first 4.0 innings, joining Bob Gibson, Steve Carlton, and Pete Vuckovich.

CAREER NOTES

- He and Yadier Molina have been a starting battery for 242 career games, the most in Cardinals history (surpassed Bob Gibson & Tim McCarver's 198 on 6/15/16) and the most for any tandem since Tom Glavine and Javy Lopez had 248 games together for the Braves from 1994-2002.
- Enters his 14th season in a Cardinals uniform, T9th-most by a Cardinal in franchise history and T4th-most by a pitcher behind Jesse Haines (18), Bob Gibson (17), Bob Forsch (15) and Bill Sherdel (14).
- Has faced every MLB team except St. Louis in his career.
- Entering the 2019 season, he and Andrew Miller are the tallest pitchers in franchise history at 6-foot-7.

St. Louis Cardinals Career Leaders

- Ranks 5th among Cardinals pitchers in franchise history in wins (148), 6th in ERA (3.32), innings pitched (1,932.0) and win pct. (.635), while his 1,623 strikeouts trail only Bob Gibson (3,117) (minimum 1,500 innings pitched).

St. Louis Cardinals Postseason

- Among Cardinals in postseason history, ranks 1st in strikeouts (96), T1st in games (24), 2nd in innings pitched (89.0) and fewest walks/9 IP (1.52), and T5th in saves (4) and wins (4) (minimum 20 innings pitched).
- In 2006, earned saves in both the World Series and National League Championship Series clinching wins and was on the mound for final out in all three postseason series.
- Sent the Cardinals to their 17th World Series after striking out Carlos Beltran (called) to end Game 7 at Shea Stadium.
- Fanned Tigers Brandon Inge (swinging) in World Series Game 5 to clinch the Cardinals 10th World Championship - the first time since 1988 that the WS ended with a strikeout.
- During the 2013 postseason, his team-leading 34 strikeouts were one fewer than Bob Gibson's franchise single-postseason record (35) from 1968, tied Detroit's Max Scherzer for most among pitchers during the postseason, and T9th-most in MLB single-postseason history at the time.
- Went 2-0 in the 2013 Division Series vs. Pittsburgh. Pitched a complete game in the Game 5 win, allowing one run on 8 hits in the decisive 6-1 win at Busch Stadium.

Busch Stadium III

- Owns the most career wins (79) and strikeouts (864) at Busch Stadium III and is T3rd in ERA at 2.85 (min. 200 IP).
- Has 82 wins since 2012, ranking T6th among National League pitchers.
- Has a career .648 home win pct. (79-43), 6th among active National League pitchers. The 79 home wins rank 2nd to Clayton Kershaw (83).
- Became the first pitcher to throw 1,000 career innings at Busch Stadium III on Sept. 16, 2018, and the 5th Cardinal to throw 1,000 innings at home stadiums, joining Bill Sherdel (1,087.1 at Sportsman's Park), Jesse Haines (1,554.0 at Sportsman's Park), Bob Gibson (1,182.0 at Busch Stadium II) and Bob Forsch (1,402.1 at Busch Stadium II).

- His 69 career road wins rank 5th all-time in franchise history (one shy of Bob Forsch) and trail only Clayton Kershaw (70) among active N.L. pitchers.
- Ranks 2nd in MLB with 19 complete games since 2010 (Kershaw 25), including a career high five in 2010, 2013 and 2014.
- Since 2010, ranks 16th in MLB in ERA (3.39) and 2nd in shutouts (10), T15th in wins (102) despite missing the entire 2011 season to injury and most of 2015 and 2018.
- Posted a sub-3.00 ERA in 2009 (2.63), 2010 (2.42), 2013 (2.94) & 2014 (2.38).
- Has two 20-win seasons (2010 & 2014) and two 19-win seasons (2009 & 2013).
- Has had three 200+ strikeout seasons (2009, 2010, 2013).
- He's the first STL pitcher since Steve Carlton to have three seasons with 10 or more road wins (RHP, Bob Gibson-7). Only C.C. Sabathia (5), Bartolo Colon (3), Roy Halladay (3) Jon Lester (3), and David Price (3) have had three or more seasons of 10+ road wins since 2000.
- Missed the entire 2011 season after elbow ligament replacement surgery on his right elbow on 2/28/11.

Awards

- In 2014, finished 3rd in the National League Cy Young vote after placing 2nd to Clayton Kershaw in 2013. Also finished 2nd in 2010 behind Roy Halladay.
- Finished third in the National League Cy Young vote after the 2009 season, despite receiving the most first-place votes of any player. His finish was just four points shy of teammate Chris Carpenter for 2nd place and 10 behind Cy Young winner Tim Lincecum (SF Giants) for the second-tightest vote in the history of the award.
- Selected as the starting pitcher for the National League in the 2014 All-Star Game in Minnesota. It was his third time selected to the All-Star Game, second appearance in the game (2010) and first as the starting pitcher. He was the first Cardinals pitcher to start the All-Star Game since Chris Carpenter in 2005.
- In his first All-Star Game appearance in 2010 in Anaheim, pitched a perfect 7th and fanned two in the N.L. win. Was named to the 2013 N.L. All-Star team by his peers, but did not pitch.
- Two-time Comeback Player of the Year (2012 & 2015) and Baseball Man of the Year (2013 & 2014) by St. Louis chapter of BBWAA.
- Was the 2015 recipient of the prestigious Hutch Award, presented annually to the active player who perseveres through adversity.
- Recipient of the 2008 Darryl Kile Award, voted on by his teammates.

Batting

- Won his first Louisville Silver Slugger award following the 2017 season in which he led N.L. pitchers with a .262 average with 11 hits,11 RBI (T1st) and 2 home runs.
- Leads active MLB pitchers in career hits (128), RBI (69), doubles (34), and extra base hits (46), is 4th in homers (10), T4th in triples (2), 7th in sacrifice hits (54), 2nd in BA (.202), 3rd in OBP (.228) and 4th in slug. (.309) (min. 200 AB).
- Is the only active Major League pitcher with multiple 10-plus RBI seasons (2016-17).
- Collected 29 RBI over the past two seasons (2016-17), including 27 in games in which he was pitching. That RBI total marks the most by a pitcher over two consecutive seasons since Steve Carlton had 28 for the Phillies in 1977 and 1978, and the most by a Cardinals pitcher since Bob Gibson had 29 in 1970 and 1971 (Elias).
- Has driven in at least two runs in 15 career starts (St. Louis is 15-0), most among active pitchers (Madison Bumgarner is second with 13). Eight of those starts have come since the beginning of the 2016 season. The last pitcher with at least eight starts of this type over a two-season span was Bob Gibson in 1970-71 (St. Louis 8-0) (Elias).

Defensive Accolades

- Winner of the 2009 and 2013 Rawlings Gold Glove awards as voted on by N.L. managers & coaches.
- Was flawless in his N.L.-leading 61 total chances in 2013 and had 56 errorless chances in 2009. Has committed one error or less in 9 of 10 full seasons (most was 2 in 2007).

2018

- Made eight starts in an injury-shortened season, four of which came in September.
- Missed a total of 129 games with three stints on the DL: left hamstring strain (3/26-4/4) and right elbow inflammation (4/20-5/12 and 5/14-9/9).
- St. Louis was 4-4 in his starts. Since 2016, the Cardinals have sported a 41-24 record in his appearances.
- Pitched at least 6.0 innings on three occasions, and 7.0 innings once (two quality starts).
- Threw his curveball 35.8% of the time (262 of 732 total pitches), limiting the opposition to a .152/.146/.197 slashline.
- Activated on 4/5 and started the Cardinals home opener vs. Arizona (the 5th of his career). Took the loss after tossing 3.2 innings, his second-shortest home Opening Day start (2012 vs. Chicago).
- Passed career 1,900 innings pitched in his 4/11 start vs. Milwaukee, becoming the 15th active pitcher to do so.
- Earned his first win of the season in a 5-3 victory at Chicago (4/17) at Wrigley Field, allowing one unearned run with five strikeouts in 5.0 IP. Temperature at first pitch was 35°.
- Marked his 15th career win vs. the Cubs (T10th all-time in Cardinals history) and his 11th career win at Wrigley Field (3rd all-time in Cardinals history).
- Reached 1907.1 career innings in 4/17 start at CHI, passing Slim Sallee (1905.1) for 6th all-time in franchise history.
- Made six rehab appearances across three levels (8/13-9/1) while recovering from right elbow inflammation. Scattered 12 hits with 23 strikeouts over 17.0 scoreless IP between Palm Beach (High-A) Springfield (AA) and Memphis (AAA).
- Activated from the 60-day disabled list (right elbow inflammation) on 9/10 vs. Pittsburgh and made his first start for St. Louis in 121 days. Allowed four runs in 5.0 frames in the Cardinals' 8-7 comeback win.
- Surpassed Todd Worrell (1985-89, '92) with his 349th career game, moving into 8th place all-time in Cardinals history. Struck out Corey Dickerson (swinging) for his 1,600th career strikeout.
- Struck out season-high nine batters over 6.0 scoreless frames in a 5-0 win over the Dodgers at Busch Stadium on ESPN Sunday Night Baseball (9/16). Has pitched 6.0 or more innings in 12 consecutive starts vs. the Dodgers (8/10/07-present), currently T3rd-longest active vs. Los Angeles and trailing Curt Schilling (19) and David Cone (16).
- Became the first pitcher to throw 1,000 career innings at Busch Stadium III on 9/16, and the 5th Cardinal to throw 1,000 innings at home stadiums, joining Bill Sherdel (1,087.1 at Sportsman's Park), Jesse Haines (1,554.0 at Sportsman's Park), Bob Gibson (1,182.0 at Busch Stadium II) and Bob Forsch (1,402.1 at Busch Stadium II).
- Logged a season-high 10.0 inning scoreless streak from 9/1-9/22.
- Made four starts in September, striking out 25 in his 22.1 innings pitched while going 1-1 with a 4.84 ERA (Cardinals were 3-1). Despite making fewer September starts than his teammates, finished 3rd on the team in innings pitched and strikeouts.

- Named National League Louisville Silver Slugger award winner, his first career. Co-led Major League pitchers in RBI (11, Carlos Martinez) and runs scored (7), ranked T2nd in extra-base hits (4) and home runs (2), T4th in doubles (2), and T7th in hits (10).
- Shared the team lead in wins (12) while making 24 appearances (23 starts) during an injury-shortened season.
- Was 8-1 with a 3.08 ERA in 11 home starts (64.1 IP). His .889 home win pct. ranked T2nd in the N.L. Was 5-0 with a 1.16 ERA (31.0 IP/4 ER) in five day starts at home.
- Was one of 12 N.L. pitchers to record a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage (37 total chances).
- Won 10+ games prior to the All-Star Break for the 5th time in his career despite beginning the year with three-straight losses for the the third time (2012, 2016-17) in his career.
- Fanned Jacoby Ellsbury (4/16 at NYY) for his 1,500th career strikeout; part of a strike-them-out, throw-them-out double play as Yadier Molina nabbed Aaron Hicks attempting to steal second base.
- Joined Bob Gibson as the only Cardinals pitchers in history to reach 1,500 strikeouts. Is one of 24 active pitchers with 1,500 strikeouts.
- Collected career win No. 135 at MIL on 4/21, pushing him past Dizzy Dean (1930, '31-37) for 6th place on St. Louis all-time leaderboard.
- Matched career-high 4 RBI in win 4/21 at MIL (2nd of career, 9/20/16 at COL), highlighted by go-ahead, 2-run HR into leftfield second deck off Wily Peralta. Also added two-run single for his 19th career 2-hit game (9th all-time among Cards pitchers). The only other Cardinals pitcher with two wins in which he had at least four RBIs was Bob Gibson, (four times) (Elias).
- Picked up 2nd straight win in Game 2 of St. Louis 4/27 doubleheader sweep of TOR, while passing Harry Brecheen's (1940, '43-52) 1790.1 innings pitched for 8th all-time in Cards franchise history.
- Was 3-0, 2.64 ERA (30.2 IP) in five May starts, one of five pitchers with perfect win pct (min 4 GS).
- Allowed one run over a 4-start stretch (26.1 IP, 0.34 ERA) from 5/14-6/1 that included a 16.1 IP scoreless streak.
- Had six-game win streak 4/21-6/1 which was tied for the longest win streak in National League at the time.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on 10/3 to trim a small piece of cartilage from his right elbow (same procedure following 2014 season).
- For the third straight year, named Cardinals nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, which recognizes a player from each MLB Club who best represents the game of Baseball through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy and positive contributions, both on and off the field.

- Made a team-leading 33 starts, his most since 34 starts in 2013.
- Ranked among National League leaders in batters faced (847, 5th), innings pitched (198.2, 7th) and starts (T3rd). Also paced N.L. pitchers in hits (220) earned runs (102) and doubles allowed (48).
- Notched 8th career season with 10 or more wins, tying Bill Sherdel (1920-29) and Bill Doak (1914-22) for 4th-most in Cards history (Bob Gibson leads with 14). Has posted 10 or more wins in each season with 10 or more starts.
- Pitched at least 6.0 innings in 21 of 33 starts, and 18 were quality starts. St. Louis was 22-11 in his starts.

2016 CONTINUED…

- Finished 7th among N.L. pitchers with a 55.6% stolen base rate, allowing five steals in nine attempts.
- Named 2016 Rawlings N.L. Gold Glove Award finalist. Was one of six qualified N.L. pitchers to record a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage (41 total chances) (min. 30 TC/162 G).
- Ranked 3rd in the N.L. in double plays induced (27) and 2nd in GDP/9 IP (1.22).
- Ranked 11th among National League pitchers in fewest HR/9 IP (1.00), yet yielded a career-high 22 home runs. Did not allow a home run over a nine-start stretch from 6/3-7/21 (66.2 IP), the longest homerless streak by a N.L. pitcher in 2016.
- Went 5-0 over a seven-start span (4/27-5/28), his five-game win streak tied for the longest by a Cardinal in 2016 (Wacha).
- Allowed seven runs (six earned) over 5.0 IP for a win in STL's 12-10 victory at Angels (5/12), marking the 13th career outing allowing seven or more runs, but first occurance picking up the win (Cards are 2-11). It was also just the 4th time since 1984 a Cardinals starter had allowed seven or more runs and still received the win; since 1931, only teammate Lance Lynn (2013) did so pitching 5.0 innings as well.
- Went 3-1 with a 1.77 ERA (35.2 IP/ 7 ER) in July, ranking 7th in MLB ERA during the month.
- Was one of 18 N.L. pitchers to record a complete game shutout, firing a three-hit shutout (120 pitches) vs. MIA (7/16).

SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

The scouting department has employees devoted to seeking baseball talent in four unique areas: professional, college, high school and international. Professional Scouts analyze major and minor league players from other organizations and compile reports for potential trades and signings. Area Scouts live and work within an assigned geographic area of the United States and scout the amatuer ranks for talent. Each area scout is assigned a collegiate conference within their region to analyse and report. Crosscheckers verify top talent from coast to coast.

BEN JOHNSON — MANAGER

Ben Johnson enters his first year as manager of the Memphis Redbirds and first as a coach in the Cardinals organization. Johnson comes to the Cardinals from the Durham Bulls, the Triple-A International League affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, where he spent the 2018 season as the third base coach working with the outfielders and base running.

The Bulls led the International League in home runs, slugging percentage, runs scored and finished second in hits on their way to the league championship.

Prior to his time with the Bulls, Johnson was a scout with the Arizona Diamondbacks (2014-17), coached high school baseball at Millennium High School in Goodyear, Ariz. (2011-13), and managed Independent League baseball in Arizona.

No stranger to the city of his new role, Johnson was born in Memphis, Tenn., and played high school baseball at Germantown High School with 10-year veteran Major League pitcher Paul Maholm. The high school also produced current New York Mets manager Mickey Callaway.

Upon graduation from high school, Johnson was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 4th round of the June 1999 First-Year Player draft. During the 2000 season, he was traded with RHP Heathcliff Slocumb to the San Diego Padres in exchange for veteran catcher Carlos Hernandez and minor league infielder Nate Tebbs.

Johnson made his Major League debut on June 26, 2005, vs. Seattle and would play 98 games over the next three seasons as a member of the Padres and Mets. He posted a career batting average of .230 with seven home runs and 26 RBI while playing all three outfield positions.

He was named the Padres Minor League Player of the Year in 2005 when he hit a career-high .312 with 25 home runs and 83 RBI as a member of the Portland Beavers. Johnson played 901 games over parts of 10 minor league seasons with the Cardinals, Padres, Mets and Tigers organizations batting .262 with 115 career home runs and 473 RBI. He played his final season in professional baseball in 2010 with the Erie Seawolves of the Eastern League in the Tigers organization.

Johnson, 37, is married to his wife Elizabeth and the couple has two children, Ethan (15) and Ruby (2). They reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

JOBEL JIMENEZ — HITTING COACH

Jimenez enters his first season as the Mempis hititng coach after the last two seasons in the same role with Springfield. The 2019 season marks his 14th in the Cardinals organization. Prior to Springfield, he served as hitting coach at Peoria (A) for three seasons (2014-16)

The 2017 Springfield offense led the Texas League with 120 stolen bases, including a league-leading 38 from Oscar Mercado. The 2016 Peoria squad led the Midwest League with 1,255 hits and co-led the circuit with a .266 average, thanks to three different Chiefs finishing in the Top 10 in batting average. The 2015 Chiefs were tied for second in the league with 157 steals, paced by Mercado's 50, which also led the league and Cardinals minor league organization.

Jimenez served as hitting coach for the Gulf Coast Cardinals in 2013 and began his career with St. Louis prior to the start of the 2007 season, when he began as hitting coach for the Venezuelan Summer League Cardinals from 2007-09.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Jimenez worked for six years (2001-06) with the Red Sox as a scout, outfield instructor and hitting coach in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic. Jimenez, 41, also served as a Venezuelan scout and outfield instructor for the Marlins organization from 1999-2000.

A minor league outfielder in the Dodgers system for two seasons (1993-94), Jimenez moved to the scouting and coaching ranks and spent four seasons as an outfield instructor and VSL scout for the Dodgers from 1994-98.

DERNIER OROZCO — PITCHING COACH

Orozco enters his second season as pitching coach with Memphis and 14th in the Cardinals organization, serving at five different levels of player development.

The 2018 Redbirds led the Pacific Coast League with a 3.54 ERA out-distancing second place Oklahoma City (3.92) and allowed the fewest hits, en route to the league championship and Triple-A National Championship. The Redbirds pitching staff was led by Dakota Hudson, the PCL Pitcher of the Year and 2018 Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

Orozco previously spent three seasons as pitching coach with Peoria (A), all of which included trips to the Midwest League playoffs, following two seasons with State College (A) in the New York-Penn League.

The Chiefs pitching staff combined for at least 10 shutouts in each of Orozco's three seasons, and the 2015 Peoria squad led the league in strikeouts (1,149) while boasting the league leader in ERA (Matt Pearce, 2.43), wins (Austin Gomber, 15) and strikeouts (Gomber, 140). In 2014, his State College pitching staff ranked second in the league in ERA (2.97) en route to the league championship while posting an outstanding 0.87 ERA over six postseason games, including two shutouts. The 2013 State College squad led the New York-Penn League in ERA (2.80).

Orozco began his time with the Cardinals as a coach in the Venezuelan Summer League from 2006-08 before receiving the title of pitching coach in Venezuela in 2010. He was the pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2009 and 2011.

Orozco played six pro seasons in the Red Sox organization as a right-handed pitcher. He posted a 1.88 ERA in 14 Venezuelan Summer League outings (three starts) in 2002, and went 4-2 over 14 games (29.2 IP) for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 2003, his final season.

Orozco, 37, resides in Venezuela in the off-season.

JOE KRUZEL — MANAGER

Joe Kruzel begins his first season as manager in Springfield, after serving in the same role for the last two seasons in State College. This is his sixth year managing in the Cardinals organization, previously serving as manager three years at Peoria (A) from 2014-16 and the 2013 season at Johnson City (R). Prior to managing, he spent five seasons (2008-12) as hitting coach for the Cardinals' Class-A affiliate in Quad Cities. The 2019 season marks his 12th season in the Cardinals organization.

In 2017, Kruzel led the Spikes to their fifth straight campaign of at least 40 wins and was the manager of the winning South club in the New York-Penn League All-Star Game. He also managed Peoria (A) to the Midwest League postseason in back-to-back seasons from 2015-16. Across five seasons as a manager in the Cardinals organization, Kruzel's squads have a record of 332-302 (.524), and he holds a career mark of 363-333 (.522), including one season in the Reds organization.

As hitting coach in Quad Cities in 2012, the team ranked third in the Midwest League in batting and led the league in home runs (109) and RBI (649). In 2011, Quad Cities finished tops in the Midwest League in doubles (281), walks (550), on-base percentage (.346) and slugging percentage (.395).

Kruzel came to the Cardinals after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the Reds organization. In 2006, Kruzel was the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds before moving on to the manager position at Billings (R) in 2007.

Prior to his time with the Reds, the veteran collegiate coach served as the assistant baseball coach at Miami (Ohio) University in 2005 as the Redhawks tied the school record with 45 wins and advanced to the Austin Regional. He also spent 15 seasons (1989-2003) at the University of Toledo, where he served as the assistant baseball coach from 1989-92 and then moved on to head coach from 1993-2003. Kruzel was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 1999 and coached Mitch Maier in 2003, who was the only first round draft pick (Kansas City Royals) in Toledo history and consensus first-team All-American. In addition to his coaching career, Kruzel played second base at Toledo from 1985-1988.

Kruzel, 53, was recently elected into the Toledo City Athletic League Hall of Fame in 2018. He resides in Hamilton, Ohio, with his wife Amy and three children A.J. (26), Jaime (22) and Abby (20). A.J. was drafted by the Cardinals in the 37th round of the 2013 draft, but did not sign. Jaime is a member of the University of Cincinnati dance team.

BRANDON ALLEN — HITTING COACH

Allen enters his third season in the Cardinals organization and his first as a hitting coach in Springfield (AA) after serving in the same capacity in Palm Beach (A) in 2018 and Johnson City (R) in 2017.

In 2017, Allen mentored a 2017 Johnson City lineup led by first baseman Luis Bandes, who tied for the Appalachian League lead in RBI (49) and finished tied for third in the league with 10 home runs while batting .301 with a .520 slugging percentage in 50 games.

Allen played professionally for 13 years that included parts of four seasons in the Major Leagues. The former left-handed hitter batted a combined .203 with 12 home runs and 41 RBI in 116 games between Arizona (2009-11), Oakland (2011-12), Tampa Bay (2012).

In 2011, Allen became only the second player in history to homer into the upper deck at the New Yankee Stadium (Russell Branyan being the first). In 2012, Allen was the Opening Day first baseman for the eventual A.L. West champions, starting the MLB opener on March 28 in Tokyo against the Mariners.

Allen, who earned a football scholarship to Rice as a linebacker and defensive end and had a baseball scholarship at the University of Houston, was originally drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the fifth round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft out of Montgomery (Texas) High School. The 33-year-old resides in Indiana, Pa.

DARWIN MARRERO — PITCHING COACH

Marrero enters his second season as pitching coach with Springfield following three seasons (2015-17) as pitching coach with State College (A) and two years in the same role with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals (2013-14).

This past winter, Marrero was the pitching coach for Panama which won the Caribbean Series and posted the lowest ERA in the tournament.

In 2016, State College recorded a league-low 1.76 ERA in the New York-Penn League Playoffs on their way to capturing the league championship. State College led the league with nine shutouts and had the second fewest runs allowed (285) as a staff. Two of the last five seasons, Marrero's pitching staffs have led the league in shutouts and ranked first or second in runs allowed.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Marrero was a pitching coach for the Sioux City Explorers in the American Association (2008). The Explorers staff boasted the Pitcher of the Year winner and the closer established a new league saves record. In 2005, he was pitching coach for the Capitales de Quebec in the Can-Am League.

Marrero's playing career lasted from 1998-2004 with the Montreal Expos organization, attaining his highest level at Double-A, as well as pitching eight seasons in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Marrero, 38, a Venezuela native, resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Monica, and their three children, Darwin, Jr. (14), Nikary (11) and Sophia (10).

DANN BILARDELLO — MANAGER

Bilardello returns for his fourth season as manager of Palm Beach, 10th year managing in the Cardinals organization and 14th overall as a minor league manager. Bilardello has led Palm Beach to back-to-back playoff appearances for only the second time in franchise history. The club won the 2017 Florida State League South Division title, and were named co-champions of the league, as Hurricane Irma forced the cancellation of the league finals. Over the past two seasons with Palm Beach, Bilardello has posted a 149-118 mark (.558).

From 2012-16, Bilardello advanced a coaching level each season, starting with his third and final year in Batavia (A) in 2012, Peoria (A) in 2013, Palm Beach (High-A) in 2014 and Springfield (AA) for the 2015-16 seasons.

Bilardello piloted Springfield to winning the Texas League First Half North Division Championship at 41-29 in 2016. The club's 41 victories set a franchise record for most in the First Half in team history. He and his Springfield staff of Jason Simontacchi and Ramon Ortiz also managed the North Division in the 2016 Texas League All-Star Game.

In 2012, Bilardello's Batavia squad posted a 44-32 record, finishing one game out of the wild card and two games behind the division leader after pulling off a nine-game win streak. His 2010 Batavia squad won the Pinckney Division crown in his first season at the helm.

The former Major League catcher brought four years of minor league managing experience from the Dodgers and Red Sox organizations. He coached Boston-affiliate Wilmington (High-A) in the Carolina League during the 2005 season after three years managing Dodgers affiliates, including a Pioneer League Championship with Great Falls (R) in 2002 before moving to South Georgia (A) in 2003 and Columbus (A) in 2004.

In 14 years of managing, Bilardello has a career record of 846-773 (.523) between his time with the Dodgers, Red Sox and Cardinals.

Bilardello played all or part of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Cincinnati (1983-85), Montreal (1986), Pittsburgh (1989-90) and San Diego (1991-92). He signed with the Dodgers after being chosen in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1978 June amateur draft. He played a career-high 109 games during his rookie season with the Reds, posting career bests in home runs (9) and RBI (38). He hit his first MLB home run off Tom Seaver.

Bilardello, 59, resides in Naples, Fla., and has three children (two sons, Davis and Trey, and a daughter, Kammie). Davis was a left-handed pitcher drafted by the Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2007 draft and played as high as Palm Beach (High-A). Trey is a professional golf caddie on the PGA Tour. Kammie was a two-sport athlete at Webber International University, playing tennis for four years and volleyball for three years.

TYGER PEDERSON — HITTING COACH

Pederson begins his first season as hitting coach with the Palm Beach Cardinals and in the Cardinals organization. Most recently, Pederson was the manager of the Duluth Huskies in 2018, leading the team to the Northwoods League Division Championship setting franchise records in wins, runs scored and stolen bases.

Other coaching experience includes working as assistant coach for Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo's baseball team in 2018 and as the graduate assistant coach at Hawaii Pacific in 2017. Pederson was a coach in Taiwan for Major League Baseball and managed the Orange County Riptide to a California Collegiate League championship in 2017 earning CCL Manager of the Year honors.

The former multi-sport standout at Palo Alto High School, played college baseball at the University of the Pacific where he was team captain his senior year playing second base. In 2013, the Los Angeles Dodgers selected him with their 33rd round pick in the June 2013 First-Year Player Draft.

Pederson played one year of professional baseball in the Arizona League before competing in Independent League baseball from 2014-16 with the San Rafael Pacifics and Vallejo Admirals.

Pederson, 30, comes from an athletic family. He is the son of former Dodgers' outfielder Stu Pederson, and the older brother of Los Angeles Dodgers All-Star outfielder Joc Pederson. His sister, Jacey, plays soccer for UCLA. He resides in Palo Alto, Calif.

WILL OHMAN — PITCHING COACH

Ohman enters his second season as pitching coach for Palm Beach and in the Cardinals organization.

The Palm Beach team posted 75 wins, the 2nd-most in the Florida State League in 2018 en route to their second straight playoff appearances and also tied for the league lead in saves with 10 different players recording a rescue.

The former left-handed reliever appeared in 483 career games in the Major Leagues over parts of 10 seasons from 2000-12. He missed the entire 2002-03 seasons because of Tommy John surgery. The Chicago Cubs drafted him in the eighth round of the 1998 draft out of Pepperdine University. He made his Major League debut with the Cubs in 2000 and posted career marks of 12-16 with a 4.28 ERA over 353.0 career innings.

He set a career highs in 2008 making 83 appearances with the Braves, the 2nd-most in Major League Baseball that season and 5th-most in franchise history for a single season.

He also spent time in the Dodgers, Marlins, Orioles, White Sox, Reds and Nationals organizations before retiring in 2013.

Ohman, 41, resides in Mesa, Ariz., with his wife Allyson and their two 13-year old children, Annabel and Jack. He was born at the Army Base in Frankfurt, Germany, 97th General Hospital/Clark Kaserne.

ERICK ALMONTE — MANAGER

Erick Almonte begins his first season as manager of the Peoria Chiefs and second year as a manager in the Cardinals organization, serving as the Gulf Coast League manager in 2018. The 2018 GCL squad led the league with 40 wins while averaging a league-best 6.2 runs per game. The team advanced to the GCL Championship defeating the Phillies before losing in three games to the Tigers.

Almonte enters his sixth year in the Cardinals organization previously working as the hitting coach with 2017 Florida State League Co-Champion Palm Beach, which had the fewest strikeouts in the league (919). He also served as a coach with the Dominican Summer League entry from 2014-16.

Almonte played professionally for 17 years, which included parts of three seasons in the Major Leagues. He played in 55 Major League games batting .233 with two home runs and 14 RBI, and he was a member of the American League Champion New York Yankees teams in 2001 and 2003. He also played in 16 games for the National League Central Division Champion Milwaukee Brewers in 2011. Internationally, Almonte played for the Nippon Ham Fighters in 2005.

He was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Yankees in 1996 out of the Dominican Republic. His career included four MLB organizations: Yankees (1997-03), Rockies (2004), Tigers (2007-08) and Brewers (2009-12).

Almonte, 41, and his wife Nicole Noesi, reside in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic with their three children, Erick Manuel (14), Luis Gabriel (9) and Evan Lucia (5). His brother, Hector, pitched in parts of two seasons with the Marlins, Red Sox and Expos.

RUSS CHAMBLISS — HITTING COACH

The 2018 Chiefs squad made it to the Midwest League championship series while boasting the second highest batting average in the league showcasing two of the league's best hitters in batting champion Elehuris Montero and Yariel González, who finished third in the league in batting.

He previously served as an assistant coach at the collegiate level with SUNY-Maritime from 2014-15 after coaching in the high school ranks in Paramus, N.J., in addition to teaching hitting and fielding clinics in the area.

Chambliss was drafted by the Yankees as an outfielder in the 54th round of the 1997 First-Year Player Draft out of Washington University in St. Louis. He remained in the Yankees system for three years, reaching Tampa (High-A) in 1999.

He also played for Canton in the Frontier League and Newark in the Atlantic League before retiring after the 2000 season. Chambliss was previously drafted by the Padres in the 64th round in 1993 and the Yankees in the 52nd round in 1996, but did not sign.

His father, Chris, played in the Majors for parts of 17 seasons from 1971-88 with the Indians, Yankees and Braves, including winning the 1971 American League Rookie of the Year award and hitting a walk-off home run in the 1976 ALCS to send the Yankees to the World Series. Chris also served as a hitting coach for the Cardinals (1993-95), Yankees (1996-2000), Mets (2002) and Reds (2004-06).

Chambliss, 43, resides in Old Westbury, N.Y.

CALE JOHNSON — PITCHING COACH

Cale Johnson enters his second season as pitching coach for Peoria and fifth in the Cardinals organization following two seasons in the same position for Johnson City (R), including an Appalachian League title in 2016.

The 2018 Chiefs squad made it to the Midwest League Championship before falling to Bowling Green in the finals.

Johnson coached a 2017 Johnson City staff that ranked second in the league with 611 strikeouts and was led by Alvaro Seijas and his league-high 63 strikeouts. Johnson's 2016 pitching staff recorded the lowest ERA as a team in the postseason on their way to the championship, and he coached Frederis Parra to a league-best 2.53 ERA. In 2015, Johnson was the pitching coach at the Gulf Coast League level. The GCL Cardinals boasted three pitchers in the Top 10 in ERA, the wins leader in David Oca (7) and four of the top six strikeout leaders.

Johnson was originally drafted by the Cardinals in the 41st round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft out of McKendree University in Lebanon, Ill. While at McKendree, Johnson was named the American Midwest Conference Pitcher of the Year in back-to-back seasons in 2008 and 2009 and posted a 21-7 record over his final three seasons with the Bearcats, including 24 complete games.

He pitched three seasons in the Cardinals organization, starting with the GCL Cardinals and Johnson City in 2009, Johnson City in 2010 and the Midwest League Champion Quad Cities team in 2011. Johnson compiled career marks of 8-9 with a 3.81 ERA over 55 appearances and 15 starts.

Johnson, 31, and his wife, Jessica, reside in Greenville, Ill., with their two children Maclin (4) and Sadie (2) .

JOSE LEON — MANAGER

Leon begins his first season as manager of the State College Spikes after spending 2018 as the hitting coach of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals. This marks his second season in the Cardinals organization.

The DSL Cardinals led the league in batting with their red squad finishing with a .273 mark and the blue squad at .268. Malcom Nunez won the DSL batting crown hitting a remarkable .415 on the season.

The Cardinals drafted Leon in the 22nd round of the 1994 First-Year Player Draft as a right-handed hitting infielder out of Albergue Olimpico School in his hometown of Cayey, Puerto Rico. Leon remained in the Cardinals minor league system until 2000, including the 1998 season with Prince William (High-A) when he batted .291 with a career-high 21 home runs and 74 RBI.

He was traded to the Baltimore Orioles organization late in the 2000 season following an appearance for the World Team in the Major League Baseball All-Star Futures Game.

His MLB debut came with the Orioles in 2002, batting .247 with three home runs and 10 RBI in 36 games. Leon also played for the Orioles from 2003-04 before spending parts of the next five years in the Pirates and Reds organizations, in addition to the Mexican League, Atlantic League and Chinese Professional Baseball League.

Leon, 41, lives in Puerto Rico in the off-season and has a son Luis (13).

CODY GABELLA — HITTING COACH

Gabella enters his first season as hitting coach for State College after serving in the same role for Johnson City in 2018. This marks his fourth season in the Cardinals organization serving two seasons as coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals (2016-17).

Johnson City led the Appalachian League with 75 home runs in 2018.

The 2017 GCL Cardinals hit a club-record 29 home runs, surpassing the previous high of 25 set in 2012 and 2010. Gabella also coached Dylan Carlson in 2016 as the center fielder tied for second in the league with 13 doubles on a club that won the GCL Championship.

Before joining the Cardinals in 2015, Gabella was a hitting and third base coach for the Watertown Bucks, an independent league team in Watertown, N.Y.

Gabella played 47 games across two seasons of professional baseball in the San Diego Padres organization as an infielder from 2011-12, reaching as high as Lake Elsinore (High-A) in the California League.

He was selected by the Padres in the 43rd round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft, out of Southeastern Iowa Community College. In 2010, he was selected in the 50th round by the Atlanta Braves, but did not sign.

Gabella, 27, graduated from MLBSB Scout School in 2014 and is the son of current San Francisco Giants scout Jim Gabella. He resides in Orlando, Fla., with his wife Cassandra and son Devin (1).

ADRIAN MARTIN — PITCHING COACH

Martin begins his second season as pitching coach for State College and third as a coach in the Cardinals organization. He served as a coach with the Pacific Coast League champion Memphis Redbirds (AAA) in 2017.

The Toronto Blue Jays selected Martin, a former right-handed pitcher, in the 19th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft out of South Fork High School in Stuart, Fla. He pitched professionally for 12 seasons primarily in the Toronto and San Francisco organizations. He compiled a 36-16 record with a 3.74 ERA in 200 outings from 2003-10, reaching Las Vegas (AAA) in the Blue Jays system in 2009.

He also appeared in 22 games with Auburn in the New York-Penn League in 2005, going 1-1 with a 3.05 ERA.

ROBERTO ESPINOZA — MANAGER

Espinoza enters his third season as manager in Johnson City and sixth in a coaching role in the Cardinals organization.

Over two seasons in Johnson City, Espinoza has compiled a 64-71 record and was hitting coach for Appalachian League Champion Johnson City (R) in 2016.

In 2015, Espinoza was hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals following a year as the bullpen assistant in St. Louis when he helped catch bullpens and translate for Spanish-speaking players who needed to talk to the media.

The 2018 Johnson City squad led the league home runs, while the 2016 squad led in batting average (.281), hits (651), doubles (132), fewest strikeouts (469), and on-base percentage (.350) while boasting four hitters in the top seven in batting, which included batting champion Allen Cordoba (.362). Espinoza's 2015 Gulf Coast squad led the league as a team in total bases (692), triples (22), RBI (239) and fewest strikeouts (345). The 2015 GCL Cardinals also produced their second straight batting champion in Cordoba (.342) and boasted two players in the top five in batting, hits and runs scored.

The former Cardinals minor league catcher was originally signed by the Cardinals as a non-drafted free agent out of Palo Negro, Venezuela, in March 2006.

He played five seasons in the Cardinals organization before an injury sidelined him during the 2011 and 2012 seasons, when he pursued a career in coaching. Espinoza played in 202 games, advancing as far as Palm Beach (High-A) in 2010.

Espinoza, 30, resides in Jupiter, Fla., in the off-season and is the youngest manager in the Cardinals organization.

BRIAN BURGAMY — HITTING COACH

Burgamy enters his first season as hitting coach for Johnson City after serving as a 4th coach in the Cardinals organization in 2018.

The veteran of nine minor league seasons and seven years in foreign and Independent League baseball brings a wealth of experience to the organization.

Burgamy played in 1,952 games in his travels including 841 games as a member of the Padres, Phillies, Mets and Dodgers organizations compiling a career .253 batting average with 81 home runs, 369 RBI and an on-base percentage of .355 while slugging .400. He advanced as high as Triple-A Oklahoma City with the Dodgers in 2015.

Originally drafted by the San Deigo Padres in the 9th round of the June 2002 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft out of Wichita State University, Burgamy led the Shockers with a .400 batting average in 2002 as they advanced to the Regionals. He was a teammate of current Chicago Cubs pitching coach Tommy Hottovy on that team.

Burgamy, 37, resides in Binghamton, N.Y., with his wife Suzanne and daughter Evelyn.

RICK HARIG — PITCHING COACH

Harig begins his second season as pitching coach for Johnson City and as a coach in the Cardinals organization. He joined the Cardinals baseball operations department in 2016 after more than 30 years as a coach at the amateur level, as well as work in player development and scouting for several MLB teams.

The 2018 Johnson City squad issued the fewest walks in the league, allowing just under three total per game (2.87).

Harig amassed more than 1,300 wins and nine state championships as an American Legion and high school coach, and he was a 2015 inductee of the Colorado Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. A University of Colorado Boulder graduate, Harig taught high school math at Fairview High School from 1985-2016 to pupils such as former MLB pitcher Jesse Crain and Cardinals President of Baseball Operations John Mozeliak.

He also worked part-time for the San Diego Padres player development department in the mid-2000s and was a regional scout for various MLB teams for 15 years.

Harig also started his own company in 2007, working as a performance coach and keynote speaker who focuses on performance development. He resides in Boulder, Colo., with his wife Traci and his two sons, Joey (21) and Jackson (17).

GULF COAST LEAGUE CARDINALS (ROOKIE)

Cardinals Complex at Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium
4795 University Drive
Jupiter, FL 33458
(561) 775-1818

Director of Operations: Luis Morales
Athletic Trainer: Justin Wilson

JOSH LOPEZ — MANAGER

Lopez begins his first season as manager of the Gulf Coast League Cardinals after serving as the hitting coach for the team in 2018. This marks his third overall season in the Cardinals organization. He spent the 2017 campaign as a 4th coach for Peoria (A) in the Midwest League, assisting with pre-game preparation and worked for the Cardinals Pro Scouting Department by scouting opposing Midwest League teams.

The 2018 GCL Cardinals advanced to the league championship after leading the league in wins, hits and runs scored, averaging 6.2 runs per game.

Lopez spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Stetson University, helping guide the Hatters to a 2016 Atlantic Sun Conference Championship and a berth in the Coral Gables Regional.

Previously, Lopez served as an assistant coach at Palm Beach State College for two seasons, and assisted in leading them to a 2013 NJCAA Regional 8 State Championship. They finished the year as the national runner-ups at the World Series. Prior to Palm Beach State, Lopez spent one year at Florida Christian College as an assistant coach.

Lopez began his coaching career at Deltona High School as the head JV and assistant Varsity coach for six years. In 2011, he helped his team to a FHSAA 6A State runner-up finish.

A graduate of the University of Central Florida with a Bachelor's Degree in Sport and Fitness, and a Master's Degree from Ohio University in Recreation and Sport Sciences, Lopez, 32, is married to his wife Stacy. The couple resides in West Palm Beach, Fla., with their son Bentley (8) and a newborn daughter Gracelynn.

JOE HAWKINS — HITTING COACH

Hawkins enters his first season as a hitting coach with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals and in the organization.

He comes to the Cardinals after serving as an assistant coach for the Saint Louis University baseball team in 2018 working as a hitting coach and recruiter. The Billikens won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Regionals leading the conference in batting, slugging, on-base percentage, runs and RBI.

Prior to his time with Saint Louis University, Hawkins was a hitting coach and recruiting coordinator for Jefferson College.

Hawkins played college baseball at Missouri State University where he was a four-year letterwinner as a shortstop and team captain. The Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2015 set school records for assists and fielding percentage.

Following his time in college, Hawkins was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 40th round after previously being drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 42nd round out of high school.

GIOVANNI CARRARA — PITCHING COACH

Giovanni Carrara returns for his fourth season as pitching coach in the Gulf Coast League and his fifth season in the Cardinals organization, serving as pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals in 2015.

The 2018 GCL squad, which advanced to the league championship, led the league with 40 wins and had the league ERA champion in Perry DellaValle. The 2016 club captured the GCL Championship behind five wins and a 2.32 ERA from Franyel Casadilla, who also tossed five shutout innings in a game one, 3-0 win in the finals vs. the GCL Phillies.

Carrara was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela by the Blue Jays in 1990. He pitched in parts of 10 Major League seasons (1995-2006), appearing in games with the Blue Jays (1995-96), Reds (1996-97), Rockies (2000), Dodgers (2001-02, 2004-06) and Mariners (2003). He posted a 29-18 career record with a 4.69 ERA in 313 games (18 starts).

He posted a career-best 2.18 ERA in 2004 when he went 5-2 with two saves in 42 appearances as an integral part of the Dodgers bullpen. The Dodgers claimed the National League West Division that season, and Carrara made three post-season appearances before his team fell to St. Louis in the National League Division Series. Carrara pitched in a career-high 72 games at the age of 37 in 2005, winning a career-high seven games in a relief role.

Carrara, 51, represented Italy in the 2007 Euros due to his parents heritage from Italy. He resides in El Tigre, Venezuela, in the off-season.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE CARDINALS BLUE (ROOKIE)

Cardinals Academy
Jubey, La Malena
Boca Chica, Dominican Republic

Academy Administrator: Aaron Rodriguez
Athletic Trainer: Shoki Hioki
Strength & Conditioning: Luis Polanco

FRAY PENICHE — MANAGER

Peniche begins his ninth season as manager of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals Blue and has compiled a 320-318 record (.502).

The 2018 DSL Cardinals Blue squad made their first postseason appearance while running off a franchise best 51 wins while boasting the league batting champion in Malcom Nuñez.

Prior to his time with the Cardinals, Peniche spent 12 seasons in the Detroit Tigers organization, most recently as manager of the DSL Tigers (2007-10). Peniche began his coaching career with the Oneonta Tigers (SS) in 1999, then moved on as a coach with the DSL Tigers from 2000-06. He was promoted to manager of the DSL Tigers in 2007 and led the team to a 45-20 record and a second place finish in their division.

Peniche was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Tigers and played four seasons in their minor league system. He spent three seasons (1995-97) with the Gulf Coast League Tigers and one season (1998) in the New York-Penn League with the Jamestown Jammers (R). Peniche, 42, resides in Santo Domingo Este, Dominican Republic, with his wife, Sandy, and two children: Aaron (19) and Fray Antonio (15).

ISMAEL CASTRO — HITTING COACH

Castro begins his first season as hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League Blue team and in the Cardinals organization.

An 11-year minor league veteran, Castro signed with the Seattle Mariners in 1999 out of Colombia and played as high as Triple-A Tacoma in 2006 where he batted .303 with 4 HR and 21 RBI in 49 games.

Overall in his minor league career, he played in 381 games carrying a .280 career batting average with 28 home runs, 164 RBI and was successful in 35 stolen bases out of 58 attempts. From 2007-10, Castro played Independent League ball for Macon, Nashua, Yuma and Chico.

In 2010, Castro helped Colombia win a Silver Medal at the South American Games and batted .333 for Colombia in the 2010 Pan American Games Qualifying Tournament.

He made two plate appearances for Colombia in the 2013 World Baseball Classic qualifying tournament, recording a pinch-hit single off Brazil. Castro, 35, resides in Cartagena, Colombia in the off-season.

BILL VILLANUEVA — PITCHING COACH

Villanueva returns for his fourth season as pitching coach of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals. He was in Johnson City (R) for the 2015 season, and previously served in the same capacity for the DSL Cardinals from 2008-14. Villanueva joined the Cardinals organization in 2005. After serving as an assistant pitching instructor at the Cardinals' complex in Jupiter, Fla., in 2008, he returned to coaching in 2009.

Villanueva was the pitching coach when current St. Louis Cardinals pitcher Carlos Martinez won the 2010 Dominican Summer League ERA title with a 0.76 ERA.

A former right-handed pitcher, Villanueva signed with the Marlins in 1995 and pitched six seasons in their minor league system. Overall, Villanueva was 14-28 with a 3.95 ERA in 77 career minor league games (61 starts). Villanueva also played for the Tigres de Licey from 1998-2001 in the Caribbean Baseball Series.

LUIS CRUZ — COACH

Cruz will be serving his first season as a coach for the Dominican Summer League Blue team.

The former Cardinals catcher and first baseman was signed out of the Dominican Republic as an 18-year old and played 287 career minor league games in the Cardinals organization over seven seasons.

He batted .264 with 14 home runs and 101 RBI playing as high as Triple-A Memphis in 2016, making an appearance in two games.

The last two years, Cruz played Independent League baseball in York of the Atlantic League and participated in the Dominican Winter League for Toros del Este.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE CARDINALS RED (ROOKIE)

Cardinals Academy
Jubey, La Malena
Boca Chica, Dominican Republic

Academy Administrator: Aaron Rodriguez
Athletic Trainer: Kiomy Martinez
Strength & Conditioning: Mateo Londono

JOHN MATOS — MANAGER

Matos begins his second season as manager for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals Red and 10th season with the Cardinals organization after being hired prior to the start of the 2010 season.

Matos most recently served as hitting coach for the DSL Cardinals Red and has worked all of his previous nine seasons as a coach for that club. One of his main responsibilities included work with the infielders of the DSL team.

A former infielder, Matos signed with the Cincinnati Reds in 1999 and played two seasons in their minor league system. The 42-year-old is a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

B.J. ROPER-HUBBERT — HITTING COACH

Roper-Hubbert enters his first season with the Dominican Summer League Red team as the hitting coach and in the Cardinals organization.

The Bermuda-native played college baseball at Alcorn State University where he was Southwestern Athletic Conference Newcomer of the Year in 2006 with a .404 batting average.

He was drafted by the New York Mets in the 32nd round of the June 2006 First-Year Player Draft and played three professional seasons in the Mets organization. Over those three years, Roper-Hubbert batted .224 with 11 home runs and 41 RBI over 132 games. The outfielder and catcher advanced as high as Advanced-A Port St. Lucie in the Florida State League.

In 2012, he was an outfielder for the Great Britain National team in the 2012 World Baseball Classic Qualifier team. Roper-Hubbert, 33, resides in Ellenwood Ga.

RENEE CORTEZ — PITCHING COACH

Cortez enters his second season as pitching coach for the DSL Cardinals Red and in the Cardinals organization.

Cortez was orginally signed as a non-drafted free agent by Seattle and pitched parts of seven minor league seasons in the Mariners organization (2001-07). The former right-hander split the 2011 season between Petroleros de Minatitlan of the Mexican League, and Edinburg Roadrunners and Rio Grande Valley WhiteWings of the Independent North American League.

NABO MARTINEZ — COACH

Martinez returns for his second year as a coach in the Dominican Summer League with the Cardinals organization.

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, Martinez was an international area scout in Colombia with the Baltimore Orioles organization from 2016-17.

He graduated from Doane University with a bachelors degree in Business Administration in 2015.

Martinez resides in Cartagena, Colombia.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:
Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:
Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:
Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:
Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":
A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:
A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:
A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:
7-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is seven calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. Created specifically for players with concussion symptoms. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

10-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 10 calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father and a humble man.

A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

TALE OF 10,000 TRIUMPHS

On June 25, 2018, the St. Louis Cardinals won their 10,000th regular-season game as a member of the National League with a 4-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians at Busch Stadium.

The Cardinals became the sixth N.L. franchise to reach that plateau, following the Braves, Cubs, Dodgers, Giants, and Pirates. The Yankees also boast 10,000 wins.

After playing in the American Association from 1881-91, St. Louis became a charter member of the newly reorganized N.L. in 1892. The club was known as the Browns (1892–98) and Perfectos (1899) before becoming the Cardinals in 1900.

Since 2011, the Cardinals won four Division Series from 2011-14 with a 13-10 record in those games. Chris Carpenter threw a 1-0 shutout in Game 5 over Philadelphia in 2011 (upper left). The Cardinals rallied from a 6-0 deficit to defeat Washington at Nationals Park in Game 5 of 2012 (upper right). Adam Wainwright threw a complete game over Pittsburgh in 2013 (lower left) Game 5. Matt Carpenter homered in three straight games in the 2014 NLDS including a bases clearing triple (shown) off Clayton Kershaw to rally the Cardinals from a 6-1 deficit to a 10-9 win at Dodger Stadium in Game 1 (lower right).

HISTORY

THE PLOT
The St. Louis Cardinals won the first ever National League Wild Card game rallying to defeat the Atlanta Braves 6-3 at Turner Field in Atlanta. The Cardinals faced Braves starting pitcher Kris Medlen, who entered the game 10-1 with a 1.57 ERA, winning his last nine decisions with the Braves having won the last 12 games he started. Cardinals staring pitcher Kyle Lohse brought a 16-3 record into the game, the highest winning percentage (.842) by a pitcher in Cardinals history.

BRAVES STRIKE FIRST
The Braves struck first as David Ross hit a two-run home run in the bottom of the 2nd inning.

CARDINALS TAKE ADVANTAGE
St. Louis would break into the run column in the 4th inning, plating three runs courtesy of a Chipper Jones error that put two Cardinals on base for consecutive RBIs on a double by Allen Craig, a ground out from Yadier Molina and a sacrifice fly by David Freese.

HOLLIDAY'S HOME RUN
Matt Holliday smacked a solo home run in the 6th inning to give St. Louis a 4-2 lead. The Cardinals bullpen came on in relief of Lohse in the bottom of the 6th and wouldn't relinquish the lead.

CARDINALS CAPITALIZE ON MORE ERRORS
Errors by the Braves led to two more Cardinals runs in the 7th as Freese reached on a Dan Uggla error to lead off the inning. Daniel Descalso bunted pinch-runner Adron Chambers into scoring position and an error by Andrelton Simmons on Pete Kozma's ground ball scored Chambers and kept the Cardinals in scoring position. Rookie Matt Carpenter hit a pinch-hit infield single and Kozma, running on contact, scored all the way from second to give the Cardinals a 6-2 lead.

BRAVES INCH CLOSER
The Braves scored in the bottom of the seventh as Jose Constanza tripled and scored on a Michael Bourn ground out.

THE INFIELD FLY

MOTTE PITCHES THE CARDINALS INTO THE NLCS
The Cardinals held the Braves scoreless in the 9th inning and won the game 6-3 to advance to the National League Division Series against the top-seeded Washington Nationals who they defeated in five games.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

In the 127-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 14 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owner's box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (20 numbers/21 individuals) have recognized more individuals among Major League Baseball franchises, while the New York/San Francisco Giants also have honored 14. The honored Redbirds' uniform numbers appear in two areas at Busch Stadium – on the left-field wall and below the main scoreboard in right-center field.

Uniform No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. The Cardinals subsequently retired No. 42 for Hall of Fame relief pitcher Bruce Sutter in 2006.

The most-recent Redbird so honored was manager Tony La Russa, who returned to Busch Stadium on May 11, 2012, for a pregame ceremony during which his No. 10 was retired before a sellout crowd. He also was presented a key to the city by St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay.

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 150 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: December 26, 1954 at Mobile, Alabama
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But, after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success in the 1980s, and he became one of the city's most-popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly improved that figure to .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career-high six home runs and 54 RBI. He stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast – on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer – was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Glove Awards between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 5, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Among shortstops, Smith is baseball's career leader in assists (8,375) and total chances (12,905) and ranks second in double plays (1,590). He led the N.L. in fielding percentage seven times and had a career .978 mark. In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove team, selected to honor the 50th anniversary of the Gold Glove Award.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games and started 11 of them. At the time of his retirement following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Midsummer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). On the Cardinals' career lists, Smith ranks third in games played (1,990), at-bats (7,160), walks (876) and stolen bases (433) and seventh in runs (991) and hits (1,944).

Held in high esteem for his civic-mindedness, Smith received the Lou Gehrig Award (presented to the player who best exhibits the character and integrity of Lou Gehrig both on and off the field) in 1989, the Branch Rickey Award (in recognition of his exceptional community service) in 1994 and the Roberto Clemente Award (presented to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team) in 1995.

Smith was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 2002, earning 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America, and an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

RED SCHOENDIENST
SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

2

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: February 2, 1923 at Germantown, Illinois
DIED: June 6, 2018 at St. Louis, Missouri
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and was involved with the organization for a total of 67 years.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club to fill in for left fielder Stan Musial, who was serving in the U.S. Navy. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. The following year, Musial returned to the Cardinals, and Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average – second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers (.344), 15 home runs and 79 RBI. In a surprising trade, Schoendienst was dealt to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman on June 14, 1956.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. On the Cardinals' career lists, Schoendienst ranks fourth in at-bats (6,841) and pinch-hits (54); sixth in games played (1,795), runs (1,025) and hits (1,980); eighth in doubles (352); and tied for eighth in total bases (2,657). He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times he either led or tied for the league lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory over the Red Sox in 1967 and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, the longest in franchise history until Tony La Russa surpassed him in 2008. Schoendienst ranks second in franchise annals with 1,041 wins.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Midsummer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. From 1996 to 2018, Schoendienst served as special assistant to the general manager. Schoendienst was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1987.

OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

6

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Left THREW: Left
BORN: November 21, 1920 at Donora, Pennsylvania
DIED: January 19, 2013 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63
NUMBER RETIRED: 1963

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games played (3,026), at-bats (10,971), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,950), walks (1,605) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fourth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) and Joe Medwick (.335). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks eighth with 35 pinch-hits.

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season, beginning a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples en route to earning the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of four World Series teams (1942, 1943, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Midsummer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch-hit double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He still has the fourth-most hits in baseball history – behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Following his playing days, Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the Cardinals and served as general manager when they won the 1967 World Series over the Boston Red Sox.

Musial was the first player in Cardinals history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1969, receiving 93 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. In 2015, Musial was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Bob Gibson and Rogers Hornsby as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

More than anything else, the personable Musial was a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight." In 2010, Musial was chosen by President Barack Obama to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian honor for a United States citizen.

OUTFIELDER

9

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter
HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right
BORN: April 27, 1916 at Roxboro, North Carolina
DIED: August 12, 2002 at Durham, North Carolina
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained at first base as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of four straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average – second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves (.330) – and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history. The Cardinals won the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1949 and topped the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On the Cardinals' career lists, he ranks third in triples (135) and RBI (1,149); fourth in walks (838); fifth in games played (1,820), at-bats (6,775), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); and sixth in doubles (366). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1985, and he was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

TONY La RUSSA

10

FULL NAME: Anthony La Russa Jr.
BORN: October 4, 1944 at Tampa, Florida
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1996-2011
NUMBER RETIRED: 2012

Tony La Russa was tantamount with winning.

As manager of the Cardinals from 1996 to 2011, La Russa amassed 1,408 victories. He became the winningest manager in franchise history Aug. 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. La Russa also won championships in St. Louis: eight division titles, three National League pennants and the 2006 and 2011 World Series. All told, the Cardinals made nine postseason appearances in La Russa's 16 seasons at the helm, and his teams finished first, second or third in the N.L. Central Division 13 times.

His finest hour may have been his last. Trailing the Texas Rangers three games to two in the 2011 World Series – and twice down to their final strike in Game 6 – the Cardinals rallied to force Game 7 and went on to capture the franchise's 11th world championship. It capped a magical two-month odyssey for the ball club, which had been staving off elimination seemingly at every turn since Aug. 25, when it trailed the N.L. wild card race by 10 1/2 games, and made the playoffs on the season's final day.

When La Russa announced his retirement Oct. 31, 2011, his 16 years of continuous service were the most among active managers/head coaches in the four major professional sports leagues.

Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he totaled 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755).

La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of two to win a World Series title in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

In Oakland, La Russa piloted the A's to four division titles, three American League pennants and the 1989 World Championship. He is the A's franchise leader with 798 wins. The 1983 White Sox won the A.L. Western Division to make their first postseason appearance in 24 years.

La Russa and Leo Durocher are the only managers in major league history to win 500 games with three different teams. La Russa was named Major League Manager of the Year in 1983 and 1996; A.L. Manager of the Year in 1983, 1988 and 1992; and N.L. Manager of the Year in 2002. La Russa is the only manager to win an All-Star Game in both leagues, and he had a 4-2 record in the Midsummer Classic.

A native of Tampa, Fla., La Russa played second base, shortstop and third base in the majors for parts of six seasons with the Kansas City A's (1963), Oakland (1968-71), Atlanta (1971) and Chicago Cubs (1973).

Nineteen years before becoming manager of the Cardinals, La Russa served as a player-coach for the organization's New Orleans Triple-A affiliate in 1977. He began his managerial career a year later in the White Sox minor league system with Double-A Knoxville.

La Russa is a 1978 graduate of the Florida State University College of Law. He passed the bar exam in 1979 and became one of five lawyer/managers in baseball history, joining Monte Ward, Hughie Jennings, Miller Huggins and Branch Rickey.

In 2014, La Russa was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Elaine, are the founders of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation, which saves abandoned dogs and cats and finds them homes.

KEN BOYER
THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: May 20, 1931 at Liberty, Missouri
DIED: September 7, 1982 at St. Louis, Missouri
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

Only one player in Cardinals history has hit for the cycle twice. Ken Boyer accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove Awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory and contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game, 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Midsummer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals' career lists, Boyer ranks third in home runs (255), fifth in RBI (1,001), sixth in total bases (3,011), seventh in at-bats (6,334), eighth in runs (988) and hits (1,855), and ninth in games played (1,667) and walks (629). His seven grand slams are tied for third in club history behind Albert Pujols (12) and Stan Musial (9).

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club on April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division the following year. But, in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got on track, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age. He was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

DIZZY DEAN
PITCHER

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean
BORN: January 16, 1910 at Lucas, Arkansas
DIED: July 17, 1974 at Reno, Nevada
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the "Gas House Gang." The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout in an 11-0 Game 7 win.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On the Cardinals' career lists, Dean ranks third in games started (387) and strikeouts (1,095), fourth in winning percentage (.641), sixth in complete games (141) and shutouts (23), seventh in wins (134), and 10th in innings pitched (1,738.1).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a double-header against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1953 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

LOU BROCK

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: June 18, 1939 at El Dorado, Arkansas
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he owns the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering Maury Wills' mark of 104 during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases, making him the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), becoming the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium. Brock's 3,023 career hits rank 28th on baseball's all-time list through 2018.

Upon his arrival in St. Louis, Brock paid immediate dividends, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) ranks as the third-best in World Series history, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all-time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox. Brock holds the Fall Classic record for stolen bases in a single series (7 in both 1967 and 1968).

On the Cardinals' career lists, Brock ranks first in stolen bases (888 – Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games played (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427) and hits (2,713); third in doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); sixth in walks (681); and 10th in RBI (814). His 21 career leadoff home runs are the second-most in club annals.

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a base-running consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (base running and outfield play) since 1995.

The six-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1985 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Brock was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Bob Gibson, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

WHITEY HERZOG

24

FULL NAME: Dorrel Norman Elvert Herzog
BORN: November 9, 1931 at New Athens, Illinois
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1980-90
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,408) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his on-field managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October. At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 37th on baseball's all-time list through 2018. He was named the 1982 Major League Manager of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and 1994.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963).

As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Herzog was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2010 by the Veterans Committee. Two days before the enshrinement ceremonies July 25, Cardinals chairman Bill DeWitt Jr. announced that Herzog's number 24 would be retired by the organization. Herzog wore No. 3 in 1980, but infielder Ken Oberkfell gave up No. 24 after the season and Herzog took it. Herzog was voted the manager on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

BRUCE SUTTER PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: January 8, 1953 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84
NUMBER RETIRED: 2006

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made the split-fingered fastball famous, was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969. Chants of "Bruuuuuce!" bellowed throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck out Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as "a fastball that winds up like a dead fish" because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and tied for 28th through 2018. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolaids Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth behind Jason Isringhausen (217), Lee Smith (160) and Todd Worrell (129). Sutter was voted the relief pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

BOB GIBSON
PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: November 9, 1935 at Omaha, Nebraska
NUMBER RETIRED: 1975

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander ranks first in wins (251), games started (482), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,885.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for ninth in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente on July 15 broke Gibson's right leg. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18. In the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox, Gibson went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts to again be named series MVP.

The postseason dominance was a sign of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered merely two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight distance-going performances. Gibson totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, socking 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Glove Awards. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1981 and an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and voted the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Gibson was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

"Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

PROMINENT CARDINALS WHO WORE NO. 45

- Von McDaniel, 1957-58

Retired Numbers

ROGERS HORNSBY
SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: April 27, 1896 at Winters, Texas

DIED: January 5, 1963 at Chicago, Illinois

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933

NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure.)

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby. And only two players have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, Hornsby batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On June 1, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees. He tagged out Babe Ruth attempting to steal second base for the final out of Game 7, calling the play that clinched the 3-2 victory "the biggest thrill of my baseball career."

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 26, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Hornsby ranks first in batting average (.359), second in triples (143), third in hits (2,110), fourth in runs (1,090) and total bases (3,342), fifth in doubles (367), seventh in home runs (193) and walks (662), and 10th in at-bats (5,881). His 30 career inside-the-park home runs are the most in club annals, while he is tied for third with seven grand slams.

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1942. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. In 2015, Hornsby was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Bob Gibson and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR.
PRESIDENT

85

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.
BORN: March 28, 1899 at St. Louis, Missouri
DIED: September 29, 1989 at St. Louis, Missouri
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of Busch Stadium II. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious for the ball club to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 9, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the city of St. Louis' most-popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996. August Jr. was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

"That's a winner!"

JACK BUCK
BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck
BORN: August 21, 1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts
DIED: June 18, 2002 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-59, 1961-2001
NUMBER RETIRED: 2002

He never swung a bat or threw a pitch, yet Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals – perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the "Voice of the Cardinals" on KMOX Radio for 47 years (1954-59 and 1961-2001). He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise's most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson's no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock's 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire's 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith's game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy," still sends chills up Cardinals fans spines every time it is replayed.

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked alongside another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cardinals third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the pleasure of calling games with his son, Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck received the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals baseball. He broadcast seven World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland A's. "Unbelievable!" Buck exclaimed. "I don't believe what I just saw." Buck was CBS television's lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1995, working with Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram. Buck called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS television. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler's Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of "At Your Service" on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck's popularity extended well beyond his trademark gravelly voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis' Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community. Late in his life, Buck became interested in writing poetry, and he authored a piece called "For America" that he read to the crowd at Busch Stadium prior to the Cardinals' first game following the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks. Buck passed away June 18, 2002, and some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

CARDINALS IN HALL OF FAME GAME

1942.....Cardinals 5, Philadelphia Athletics 2
1957.....Chicago White Sox 13, Cardinals 4
1966.....Cardinals 7, Minnesota Twins 5
1983.....Cardinals 4, Baltimore Orioles 1

Red Schoendienst is inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York in 1989.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

A key factor in the Cardinals' consistent success has been the leadership of outstanding field managers. For proof, look no further than the franchise's 10 winningest skippers – eight of them have been inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

While it is recognized that some of the managers earned induction into baseball's ultimate shrine for their accomplishments away from St. Louis or for their playing careers, the fact remains that the Cardinals have regularly employed Cooperstown-worthy individuals.

Following is a thumbnail sketch of each of the eight Hall of Famers, listed by victories in a St. Louis uniform:

TONY LA RUSSA

La Russa became the winningest manager in franchise history August 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. The Cardinals won eight division titles, three National League pennants as well as the 2006 and 2011 World Series in his 16-year tenure, the longest in franchise history. Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he amassed 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755). La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of just two to win a World Championship in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

RED SCHOENDIENST

Schoendienst served as a coach on the Cardinals' 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 followed by another National League pennant in 1968 and went on to occupy the manager's office for 12 years. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Previously, Schoendienst played for the Cardinals from 1945 to 1956 and again from 1961 to 1963, becoming one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time. A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic.

WHITEY HERZOG

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Herzog. His teams won three National League pennants (1982, 1985 and 1987) and the 1982 World Series, the franchise's first championship in 15 years. Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980, and that December, in the dual role of field manager and general manager, he began to transform the ball club with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. Fans subsequently flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79).

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

BILLY SOUTHWORTH

4th – 620 wins / 1929, 1940-45 / Hall of Fame 2009

Southworth piloted Cardinals teams that won the World Series in 1942 and 1944, sandwiched around a third National League pennant in 1943. St. Louis won a franchise-best 106 games in 1942, followed by back-to-back 105-win seasons, marking the best three-year run in team annals. Furthermore, a Redbird won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award each of those years: pitcher Mort Cooper in 1942, outfielder Stan Musial in 1943 and shortstop Marty Marion in 1944. Southworth's winning percentage of .642 tops the Cardinals' record book. After leaving St. Louis, Southworth managed the Boston Braves from 1946 to 1951, capturing the N.L. pennant in 1948. His lifetime winning percentage of .597 (1,044-704 record) ranks fifth on baseball's all-time list, trailing Joe McCarthy (.615), Jim Mutrie (.611), Charlie Comiskey (.608) and Frank Selee (.598).

FRANKIE FRISCH

T6th – 458 wins / 1933-38 / Hall of Fame 1947

The 1934 Cardinals – the collection of swashbuckling players dubbed the Gas House Gang – won the World Series with a roster that featured seven future Hall of Famers. The leader of the posse was Frisch, who filled the two-fold role of second baseman and manager for six seasons. The 1931 National League Most Valuable Player posted a winning record in each of his four full campaigns, recording 95 victories in 1934 and 96 the following year. Frisch, who played in the major leagues for 19 years with the New York Giants (1919-26) and Cardinals (1927-37), finished with 2,880 career hits and a .316 batting average, the highest ever for a switch-hitter. He played on two World Championship teams with each organization and was a member of the first three N.L. All-Star teams from 1933 to 1935. Frisch later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates (1940-46) and Chicago Cubs (1949-51).

BRANCH RICKEY

T6th – 458 wins / 1919-25 / Hall of Fame 1967

Certainly, Rickey is most known for his role in Jackie Robinson breaking Major League Baseball's color barrier and for creating and sustaining the first significant farm system. But during his quarter-century as manager and vice president of the Cardinals from 1917 to 1942, Rickey transformed the once-downtrodden franchise into a bona fide winner. With Rickey as manager, St. Louis finished as high as third in the National League in 1921 and 1922, but a foundation was being laid that led to the franchise's first four World Championships (1926, 1931, 1934 and 1942) and two additional N.L. pennants (1928 and 1930). Rickey, who previously was manager of the St. Louis Browns from 1913 to 1915, went on to hold executive positions with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1943-50) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1950-55). He handpicked Robinson to become the first African American to play in the big leagues in 1947.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

JOE TORRE

9th – 351 wins / 1990-95 / Hall of Fame 2014

Torre was a standout catcher, first baseman and third baseman for the Cardinals from 1969 to 1974 and later manager during a time of transition. In 1971, he topped the National League with a .363 batting average and 137 RBI en route to being named Most Valuable Player. Torre batted .297 over the course of his 18-year career. Following managerial stints with the New York Mets (1977-81) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84), Torre returned to St. Louis to replace Whitey Herzog. He piloted the Cardinals to three winning seasons, including a second-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division in 1991. Toward the end of his tenure, Anheuser-Busch made plans to sell the franchise, and Torre moved on to the New York Yankees (1996-2007). His Bronx teams made the playoffs in each of his 12 seasons and won four World Series: 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000. Torre subsequently managed the Los Angeles Dodgers (2008 to 2010). His 84 postseason victories are the most all time.

MILLER HUGGINS

10th – 346 wins / 1913-17 / Hall of Fame 1964

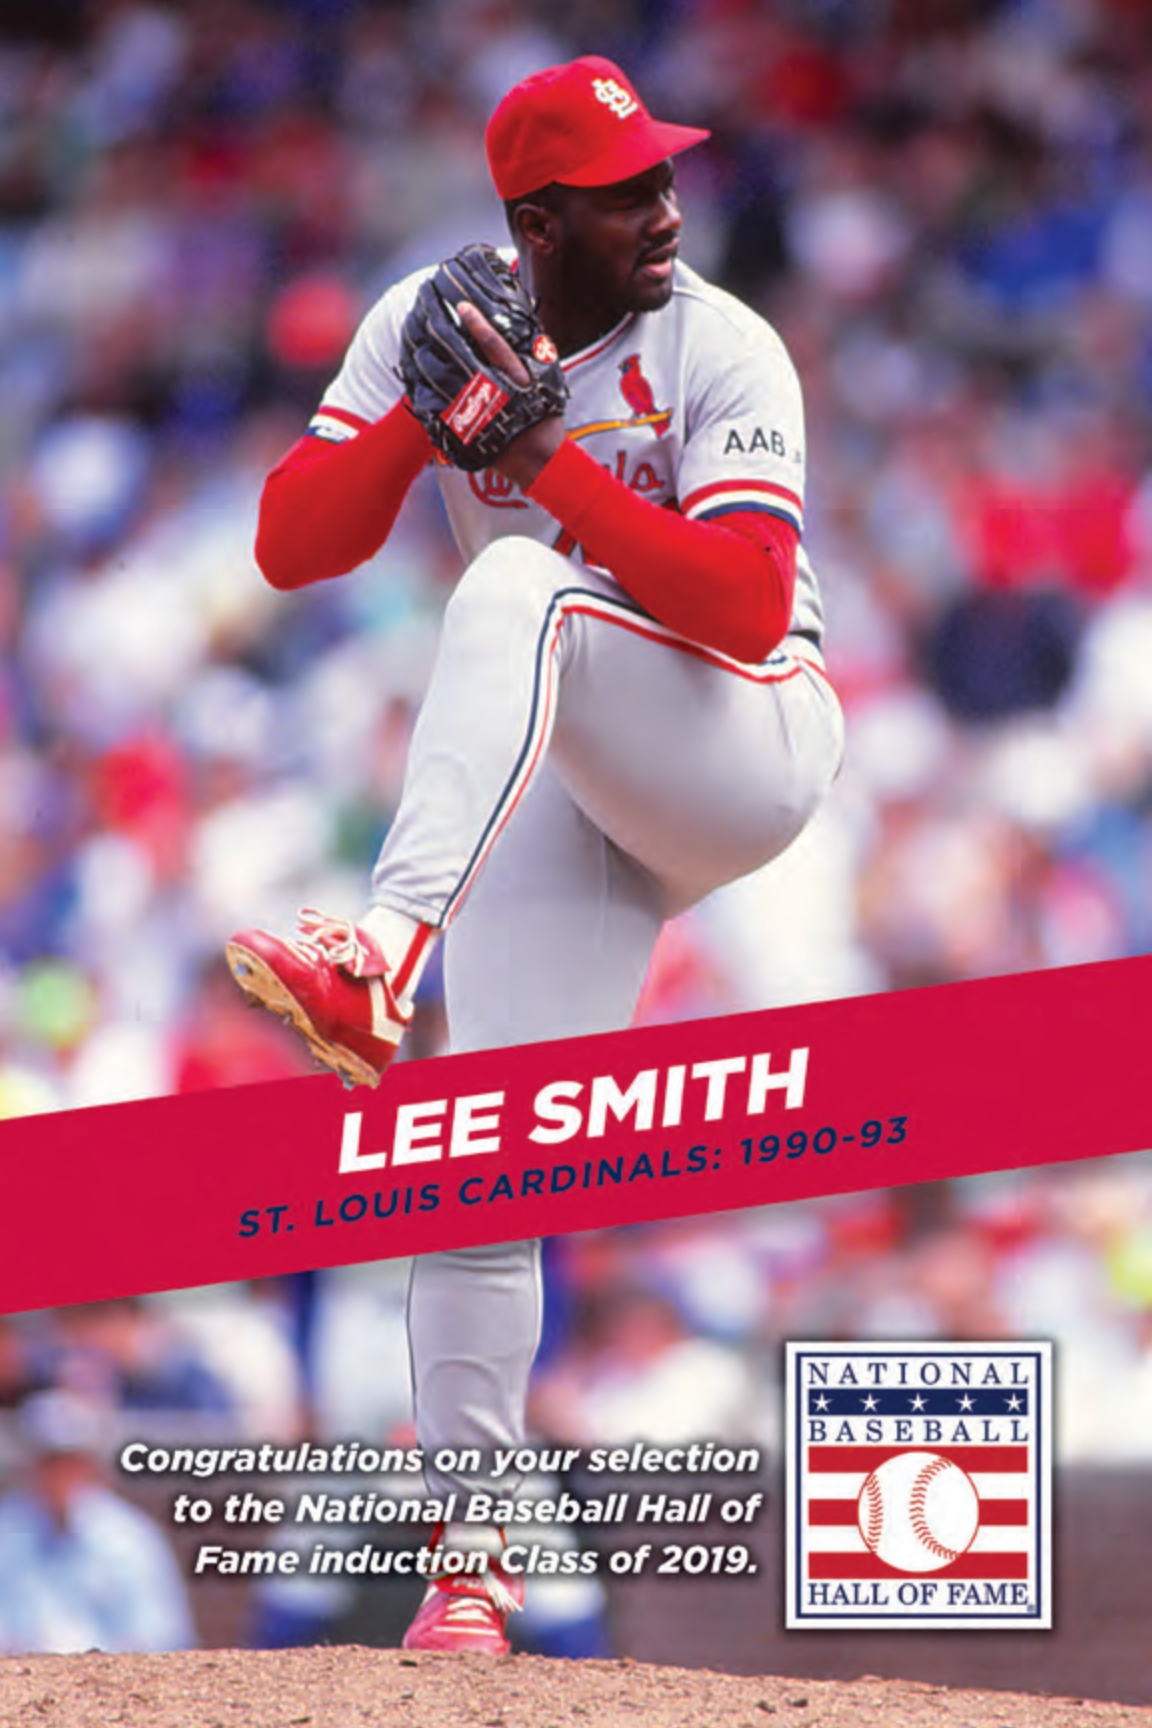
Like Joe Torre, Huggins enjoyed his ultimate success as manager of the New York Yankees. A second baseman for the Cardinals from 1910 to 1916, Huggins took on managerial duties as well in 1913. The following year, St. Louis wound up in third place in the National League with an 81-72 record, its best finish since 1891. Huggins went on to manage the Yankees from 1918 to 1929, winning the franchise's first World Series in 1923. Under Huggins, New York won six American League pennants and two additional World Championships (1927 and 1928) with their Murderer's Row lineup that included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. It was Huggins who inserted Gehrig into the starting lineup on June 2, 1925, beginning his streak of 2,130 consecutive games played.

The two non-Hall of Famers on the Cardinals' top 10 wins list are Mike Matheny and Eddie Dyer.

In six-plus seasons from 2012 to 2018, Matheny amassed 591 wins to rank fifth. He became the first manager in Major League Baseball history to take teams to the postseason in each of his first four full campaigns. The Cardinals won three consecutive National League Central Division championships from 2013 to 2015 and captured the N.L. pennant in 2013

Dyer ranks eighth with 446 wins after piloting the Cardinals from 1946 to 1950. His .578 winning percentage is topped only by Billy Southworth among St. Louis managers at the helm for more than two seasons. Dyer's first team, which welcomed back players who served in World War II, captured the franchise's third World Championship in five seasons, and each of his next three squads finished second in the N.L. Dyer did not manage again after leaving the Redbirds.

Five other individuals who served as manager of the Cardinals are Hall of Famers: Roger Bresnahan (1909-12), Roger Connor (1896), Rogers Hornsby (1925-26), Bill McKechnie (1928-29) and Kid Nichols (1904-05).



LEE SMITH

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS: 1990-93

NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

CARDINALS HALL OF FAME

The Cardinals Hall of Fame was established in January of 2014 to honor those individuals who have had a significant impact on the tradition-rich franchise.

Twenty-two individuals were automatically selected for the Hall of Fame in conjunction with its formation. Members of the inaugural class included those Cardinals enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame, primarily as members of the Cardinals organization, and those individuals whose numbers have been retired by the franchise.

The Hall of Fame currently consists of 40 members.

To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played for the Cardinals for at least three seasons and have been retired from Major League Baseball for at least three years. Eligible players are divided into two categories – modern players and veteran players. A veteran is a player who retired more than 40 years prior to the induction year.

Annually, the Cardinals convene a "red-ribbon committee" of experts to select six to 10 players to be placed on a ballot on Cardinals.com, where fans have the opportunity to vote for a period of six weeks. The two players with the most online votes will be inducted. The committee also picks a veteran player to be inducted. In addition, the Cardinals organization may choose from time to time to induct an important figure in franchise history, such as a coach, broadcaster or member of the front office, without a vote or committee selection.

Each member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame is permanently recognized in the Hall of Fame Gallery, located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, just outside the entrance to the Cardinals Museum. The Hall of Fame Gallery is free and open to the public.

The fifth induction class of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame included outfielders Ray Lankford (1990-2001, '04) and Vince Coleman (1985-90) and pitcher Harry Brecheen (1940, '43-52) on Saturday, August 18, 2018.

CARDINALS IN THE HALL OF FAME

A total of 49 players, managers and executives with ties to the St. Louis Cardinals organization have earned election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, including 2019 electee Lee Smith, who pitched for the Cardinals from 1990-93. Sixteen of the 49 spent the majority of their careers in a Cardinals uniform, including Lou Brock, Bob Gibson, Rogers Hornsby, Joe Medwick, Johnny Mize, Stan Musial, Red Schoendienst, Enos Slaughter and Ozzie Smith. For a complete list of St. Louis Cardinals in the Hall of Fame, visit the "Hall of Famers" team pages at www.baseballhall.org.

2011 ST. LOUIS CARDINALS WORLD SERIES ARTIFACTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

- Bat used by Allen Craig to hit the go-ahead home run in Game 7.
- Jersey worn during Chris Carpenter's Game 7 win and a cap from the ace pitcher worn throughout the 2011 postseason.
- Jersey that was torn from Series MVP David Freese's back after hitting a walk-off 11th inning home run in Game 6 and Freese's bat from his game-tying ninth inning triple.
- Caps worn by longtime colleagues: manager Tony LaRussa and pitching coach Dave Duncan during the World Series.
- Bat used by Lance Berkman during the World Series.

OTHER NOTABLE CARDINALS ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

- Jersey worn by Yadier Molina during game in Williamsport, Pa., on Aug. 20, 2017.
- Helmet worn by Matt Holliday when he returned from the disabled list with an emotional pinch-hit home run on Sept. 30, 2016 against the Pirates.
- Bat and batting gloves used by Albert Pujols to record 30th homer of 2011 on Aug. 16th, making him the first player to hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first 11 seasons.
- Cap worn by manager Tony La Russa's 4,770th game on Oct. 1, 2009 and a ball to mark LaRussa passing John McGraw for second place all-time in games managed.
- Cap worn by Adam Wainwright in the first Civil Rights Game on March 31, 2007.
- Jacket worn by manager Tony La Russa throughout the 2006 World Series.
- Cap worn by 2006 World Series MVP David Eckstein throughout the postseason.
- Catcher's mask worn throughout the 2006 postseason by Yadier Molina.
- Bat used by Scott Rolen in the 2006 World Series-clinching victory in Game 5.
- Cap from Tony LaRussa's 2,000th career managerial win in 2003.
- Spikes worn by Hall of Famer Lou Brock on Aug. 29, 1977, when he stole his 893rd base, breaking Ty Cobb's record.
- National League Most Valuable Player trophy presented to Hall of Famer Stan Musial in 1946.

A LOOK AHEAD TO 2020

Ballots for the 2020 Hall of Fame/BBWAA election will be distributed following the 2019 season with results from the voting scheduled to be announced in January 2020. A partial list of first-year candidates for election includes: Derek Jeter, Paul Konerko, Cliff Lee and Alfonso Soriano. Historical information on past BBWAA elections and the election process can be accessed at www.baseballhall.org or by contacting the Hall of Fame Communications department.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

MEDIA WEBSITE

CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued to legitimate news-gathering agencies only and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made online at https://credentials.mlb.com. Requests should be made at least two working days prior to the game. Credentials are issued to working members of the press; no spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations could result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available four hours prior to the start of the game at the media window, 424 South 7th St., located at the southwest corner of the stadium, near Gate 2. Photo identification is required. The press entrance is to the right of the media window.

ADMISSION: All media should enter the stadium through the press entrance at the southwest corner of the stadium, Media / VIP Entrance. The stadium will be open to media four hours before game time. If an earlier entrance to the ballpark is necessary, please contact a member of the communications staff.

PRESS BOX: The broadcast level of the pressbox is located on Level 3 (Loge Concourse) and the upper pressbox is located on Level 4 (Terrace Concourse) of the stadium. The media elevator is located in the lobby of the media entrance and is designated for employees and press only. Media should take the elevator to either the third level (broadcast) or fourth level (writers/radio) to reach the pressboxes. The press box is for working members of the media only and is a non-smoking area.

MEDIA DINING: The media dining facility is on the main service level of the stadium. It is open for meal service one-and one half hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately one hour after the game begins. The dining facility is located down the hallway off the media entrance lobby, on your left at the end of the hall. A media meal is $10.

CLUBHOUSES: Both the Cardinals and visitors clubhouses are located on the lower level of the stadium. The Cardinals clubhouse is on the first-base side while the visitors area can be found on the third-base side of the stadium. All working media with clubhouse credentials have access to the clubhouses 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until the beginning of batting practice. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than 10 minutes following the game's conclusion.

FIELD: No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges. All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

PRESS NOTES: Game notes and statistics are available in the press box approximately two hours prior to game time and on www.CardinalsPressbox.com. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available by request in the press box from club communications representatives. Digital versions of media guides can be viewed and are available for download at www.mlbpressbox.com.

MLBPRESSBOX.COM: Gamenotes, team headshots, logos, press releases and MLB information can all be found at this site. Accredited media agencies can sign up for an account to have access at all times to regular season and postseason data.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • RADIO

KMOX Radio begins their 62nd year overall and ninth consecutive as the Voice of the Cardinals. The station's 50,000-watt signal at night can reach more than 40 states and parts of Canada. The station carried Cardinals games for 52 years through 2005 and returned as the team's flagship station in 2011.

The club boasts a radio network of 150 stations covering 8 states (Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Tennessee). KMOX will broadcast all 162 of the 2019 games and 18 of the team's spring training games and 11 additional streamed only games. Mike Shannon and partner John Rooney will continue to provide play-by-play commentary for home games. Rooney and partner Ricky Horton will broadcast on the road.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon will be broadcasting his 48th season on the Cardinals radio network. Throughout his years as a broadcaster for the Cardinals, Shannon has also made appearances for the Cardinals television broadcasts, including as a pre-game analyst for FOX Midwest. He also has worked with NBC's Baseball Game of the Week and called Cardinals football games on radio.

A St. Louis native, Shannon broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and became the regular right fielder during the 1964 World Championship season. During the 1964 Series opener vs. New York, he hit a game-tying, two-run homer as St. Louis went on to defeat the Yankees in seven games. In 1967 Shannon was moved to third base to make room for newly acquired right fielder Roger Maris, as the Cardinals went on to win two straight National League pennants in 1967 and '68 as well as the 1967 World Series.

Mike's career was cut short by a kidney disease in 1970. He joined the Cardinals front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales and entered the broadcast booth in 1972, where he has remained. His many years with the organization give Shannon a unique insight in his commentary. He was honored at the end of the 2007 season for his 50 years of service with the club.

Shannon has received numerous awards and honors throughout his career. A gifted athlete, he was a High School All-American football player, and in 1957 was named the Missouri prep Player of the Year in both basketball and football - the only player ever to receive both in the same year. He was named St. Louis Ambassador's 1993 Sportsman of the Year, received the 1985 Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting, St. Louis chapter, and received the Sportscaster of the Year award for the state of Missouri from the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) in 2002, 2003 and 2014. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his on air career and as a player on the field, and in May 2013 the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame named Mike a Missouri Sports Legend, the 26th such honor given. In 2009 he was selected to be a member of the Academy of Missouri Squires and was honored as St. Louis Press Club Media Person of the Year in 2010. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

JOHN ROONEY

John Rooney is in his 14th season of broadcasting Cardinals games. A Richmond, Mo. native, Rooney came to St. Louis from the Chicago White Sox where he spent 18 years (1988-2005) - one in TV followed by 17 seasons in the radio booth. The Cardinals World Championship crown in 2006 gave John the privilege of working with the World Champion team in back-to-back seasons, following the White Sox win in 2005.

Rooney, 64, called his first major league game in 1983 with Shannon and Hall of Fame Broadcaster Jack Buck during a three-game series between the Cardinals and host Cincinnati Reds. He began his baseball broadcasting career at the class AAA level, spending the 1981-82 seasons with the Oklahoma City 89ers and the 1983-84 campaigns with the Louisville Redbirds.

John juggled two stints in the 1980's as a sports reporter for KMOX around his baseball broadcasting and serving as the voice of Missouri Tigers football and basketball on radio and TV for 20 seasons. Rooney's National Assignments over the years include the MLB Division Series, League Championship Series and World Series, Saturday Afternoon and Sunday Night Baseball for CBS Radio, the Fox TV Saturday Baseball Game Of The Week and ESPN Radio Saturday and Sunday night baseball assignments. Rooney has worked 20 MLB All Star Games on National Radio, called NFL games on CBS and Sports USA Radio and has broadcast 19 NCAA Tournaments on the National Radio Network, including 10 National Championship Games.

Over the years Rooney has been an announcer on various college basketball telecasts including the Big 10, Conference USA, Big East and has been the Voice of the Missouri Valley Conference telecasts for the past five seasons. He has broadcast College Football Bowl Games including the Cotton, Orange, Fiesta, Sun, Independence and Capital One Bowls.

Rooney was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2004 and recipient of the 2018 Tom Hammond Sports Media Award for the Kentucky Bluegrass Sports Commission. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters: Colleen and Rachel.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • RADIO

MIKE CLAIBORNE

Mike Claiborne will be covering his 36th year of St. Louis sports in 2019. He began his time at KMOX in February of 1981 co-hosting "Sports Open Line." His various duties in St. Louis have consisted of being a color analyst, providing play-by-play, a studio analyst and sideline reporter for St. Louis University Basketball, UM St. Louis Basketball, St. Louis Blues Hockey, St. Louis Rams, Fox Sports Midwest and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mike currently lives in St. Louis and is the father of two daughters, Taylor and Alyx.

JIM JACKSON

Jim Jackson, the man who "turns the knobs and pulls the levers" for Cardinals radio, has served as the chief engineer and production coordinator for Cardinals radio since 1998 and has been part of three World Series (2006, 2011 & 2013) with the Cardinals radio broadcast team.

Jackson, a St. Louis native who graduated from Mehlville High School, has served in his same capacity for the St. Louis Blues, St. Louis University Billikens and the St. Louis Rams and he has also worked for the Anheuser-Busch Bud Sports Productions group. In addition to working with current announcers Mike Shannon, John Rooney, Ricky Horton and Mike Claiborne, Jackson has worked alongside Hall of Fame announcer Jack Buck, Joe Buck, Joel Meyers and Wayne Hagin.

Jackson, who has five grown children and eight grandchildren, lives in St. Louis with his wife, Fran.

The Cardinals continue their partnership in 2019 with WIJR AM 880 La Tremenda to carry Cardinals Radio Spanish broadcasts. Polo Ascencio and Bengie Molina will continue to provide play-by-play commentary for 53 games this season.

POLO ASCENCIO

Polo Ascencio enters his 4th season as a Cardinals Spanish broadcaster. On September 29, 2016, he became the first Spanish play-by-play broadcaster in Cardinals history in a game that ended in dramatic fashion with a Yadier Molina walk-off single over the Cincinnati Reds.

Polo's career began in 2004 in radio and later on TV as a sports anchor for Univision. In 2006, he was a writer for the Los Angeles Dodgers Spanish website. Ascencio was a producer/reporter for the Los Angeles Dodgers and Time Warner Cable (2008-14), where he created and hosted of "Cubriendo Las Bases." In the winter of 2014, Ascencio was appointed play-by-play announcer for Aguilas de Mexicali in the Mexican Baseball Winter League.

The 2015-16 seasons were spent inside the radio booth with the Dodgers as a producer and statistician for both Spanish and English radio alongside MLB Hall of Fame members Vin Scully and Jaime Jarrin, doubling as a fill in for postgame shows. In 2017, Polo became the first announcer for Ke Buena Radio and the Saint Louis FC soccer organization of the United Soccer League.

In his career of over a decade now, Ascencio has covered all editions of the World Baseball Classic, NCAA football, BCS games, Copa America Centenario de Futbol, Liga MX soccer games, Major League Soccer, International soccer challenge matches and world championship boxing.

BENGIE MOLINA

Molina begins his 4th season with the Cardinals serving as Color Analyst for the Cardinals Radio Spanish Broadcasts. Molina was the Assistant Hitting Coach for the Cardinals in the 2013 season and the First Base/Catching Coach for the 2014 Texas Rangers.

Molina concluded a 13-season Major League career in the 2010 World Series. He posted a .274 career batting average with 144 HRs and 711 RBI. Molina spent most of his career with the Anaheim Angels, after signing in 1993 as a non-drafted free-agent. He made his Major League debut in 1998 with Anaheim and in his two best seasons for the Angels, 2000 and 2003, he had almost identical numbers: hitting .281, 14 home runs and 71 RBI. He signed as a free agent with Toronto in 2006, hitting 19 home runs and batting .284. He signed with the San Francisco Giants in 2007 and again hit 19 home runs with 81 RBI and then in 2009 he smacked a career-high 20 home runs with 80 RBI. He had a career-high 95 RBI with 16 HR in 2008.

Molina won a World Championship with the Anaheim Angels in 2002, playing in all seven World Series games while hitting .286. He also had the unique experience in 2010 of beginning the season with San Francisco before a mid-season trade to Texas, the two eventual World Series teams. Molina was a Gold Glove recipient in both 2002 and 2003.Molina is the older brother of Cardinals catcher Yadier Molina and two-time World Champion 15-year MLB catcher Jose Molina. The trio's father, Benjamin, Sr., was inducted into Puerto Rico's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame as a second baseman on October 27, 2002, the same day as Game 7 of the 2002 World Series in which Bengie started.

Molina, a Dorado and Vega Alta, Puerto Rico native, currently resides in Gilbert, AZ with his wife, Jamie, and daughter, Jayda. He also has two older daughters, Kyshly and Kelssy.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • TELEVISION

FOX Sports Midwest is the television home for Cardinals broadcasts again in 2019, the second year of a new long-term media rights agreement that keeps Cardinals baseball on the regional sports network for years to come. FOX Sports Midwest will televise all regular-season Cardinals games and 15 Cardinals spring training games in 2018.

Play-by-play and color commentary will be provided by Dan McLaughlin, Jim Edmonds, Brad Thompson, Ricky Horton and Tim McCarver, with Al Hrabosky and studio analyst and Jim Hayes, Scott Warmann and Erica Weston as pregame and postgame hosts and in-game reporters.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin will be entering his 22nd season as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals television broadcasts on FOX Sports Midwest. A St. Louis native, McLaughlin called his first major league game at the age of 23 and his work in 2013 earned him an Emmy Award for outstanding play-by-play. His baseball assignments have included national telecasts of FOX Saturday Baseball. Dan has previously filled in on numerous Cardinals radio broadcasts working alongside Mike Shannon and Hall of Fame announcer Jack Buck, and he continues to produce daily radio and television features on the Cardinals Network and cardinals.com.

During the baseball off-season, McLaughlin has worked play by play for "FOX NFL Sunday" as well as calling college football and basketball for ESPN and FOX Sports. McLaughlin has done work as the studio host of St. Louis Blues hockey on both radio and television broadcasts and this past off-season became the television voice of St. Louis University Billikens Basketball.

A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood University where he played baseball, Dan began his professional broadcasting career at KMOX Radio and in 2001, he won the A.I.R. Award as St. Louis' best sportscaster. He is a two-time winner of the Mid-America Emmy Award for play-by-play. McLaughlin, 45, was inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame in 2005, and in 2016 he received the prestigious Burnes/Broeg Award from the Missouri Athletic Club for his contributions to the city of St. Louis through sports.

Away from the booth, he serves on the boards and is active in numerous local charities including "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament" which has raised over $3 million dollars for children with disabilities. He also formed the Dan Macnificent Kids" program, which provides tickets, food and items at select Cardinals games to special needs and underprivileged children and their families.

He and his wife, Libby, make their home in St. Louis with their son Luke, daughter Avery, and twins Olivia and Barrett.

JIM EDMONDS

Jim Edmonds will enter his fourth season with the Cardinals television broadcast team serving as game analyst broadcasting select games alongside Dan McLaughlin on FOX Sports Midwest. Edmonds will also return for his seventh season as a studio analyst on the Cardinals Live pre-game and post-game shows.

An eight-time Gold Glove recipient and four-time All-Star, Edmonds was one of the best outfielders to play centerfield for the Cardinals. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in the inaugural year of the Hall opening in 2014. Edmonds played parts of 17 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Angels, Cardinals, Padres, Cubs, Brewers and Reds, and holds a career .284 batting average after playing in over 2,000 games. He ended his career just shy of 500 doubles (437), 400 homers (393) and 1,200 RBI (1,199). The bulk of Edmonds career was spent wearing a Cardinals uniform, as he played for eight seasons with St. Louis (2000-07), hitting .285 with 241 home runs and 713 RBI. He helped lead the team to six playoff appearances, including the 2006 World Series Championship, and in 2000 and 2004 finished in the top five in National League MVP voting.

The left-handed hitting Edmonds was known for his highlight reel catches, perhaps none bigger than his diving catch in Game 7 of the National League Championship Series vs. the Houston Astros at Busch Stadium in 2004. One night after Edmonds forced Game 7 with a 12th-inning, two-run, walk-off homer, he snared a line drive in the left-centerfield gap with a diving catch and his back to the plate.

Edmonds, 48, has four children, daughters Lauren, Hayley and Sutton, and a son, Landon. He and his wife, Meghan, split their time between St. Louis and Orange County, California.

RICKY HORTON

Ricky Horton will continue his work as a broadcaster on Cardinals telecasts for a 16th season and will join the radio broadcast team for all road games. He will provide play-by-play and color commentary on FOX Sports Midwest and on KMOX/Cardinals Radio Network. Horton provided color commentary on all KSDK broadcasts during the 2007-10 seasons, as well as working as a baseball play-by-play announcer and analyst, and Cardinals Live pre- and post-game analyst for FOX Sports Midwest. He provided color commentary on KPLR telecasts from 2004-2006. Horton has been a part of the Cardinals Radio broadcast team since 1997.

A former left-handed pitcher for the Cardinals, Ricky spent seven years in the Major Leagues, playing for St. Louis, the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chicago White Sox. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1984 and participated in the 1985 and 1987 World Series with the Redbirds and won the Series in 1988 while with the Dodgers. Horton was both a starter and relief pitcher for the club and had one of his best years in 1987 when he went 8-3 in 67 games, pitching 125 innings. In 1991, he spent the season as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians minor league system.

After retiring from his Major League playing career, Horton remained in the St. Louis area where he has been active in the Greater St. Louis Area Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as the Director of the St. Louis FCA since 1993. Horton has assisted with Baseball Chapel with the Cardinals and he also worked with the St. Louis Rams football team in leading chapel and Bible studies. He received the National Sportsmanship Award in 2008, the Mid American Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting in 2011 and he was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

Horton, 59, and his wife, Ann, reside in St. Louis and have two children, Jen and Drew.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky will be part of the Cardinals television team for the 35th season and 23rd season on FOX Sports Midwest. He began working as a commentator on telecasts for the team in 1985.

Hrabosky made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals 1970's bullpen, to the broadcast booth. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

Hrabosky, 69, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2003, the Fullerton College Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Savanna High School Hall of Fame in 2011. Away from the booth he is active in many charities, including the St. Louis Zoo, Angel Arms and FOX Sports Midwest's work with The Mission Continues.

He and his wife, June, reside in St. Louis.

TIM McCARVER

Tim McCarver will be in his sixth year of broadcasting with FOX Sports Midwest as an analyst on select Cardinals telecasts. McCarver worked 28 consecutive MLB postseasons on network television dating back to 1984, providing analysis for a record 23 World Series and 20 All-Star Games. His work earned him three straight Emmy Awards for "Outstanding Sports Event Analyst" (2000-02) and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's 2012 Ford C. Frick Award.

McCarver teamed with Joe Buck a record 17 seasons as MLB on FOX's lead national baseball broadcast team. No baseball broadcasting tandem called more World Series (15) and All-Star Games (14).

He began his broadcasting career in 1980 and has the distinction of being the only MLB analyst to have worked for all four major broadcast networks. McCarver caught 12 seasons with the Cardinals and played in two All-Star Games (1966, 1967) three League Championship Series (1976-78) and three World Series (1964, 1967, 1968), winning championships in 1964 and 1967. He also played for Philadelphia, Montreal and Boston.

BRAD THOMPSON

Former Cardinals pitcher Brad Thompson serves as a game, pregame and postgame analyst for Cardinals telecasts on FOX Sports Midwest.

Thompson first joined FOX Sports Midwest in 2015 as part of the network's studio team, and he called regular-season games in the booth, alongside Dan McLaughlin, for the first time in 2018.

Thompson pitched in 201 games over six Major League seasons, primarily out of the bullpen, with the Cardinals and Kansas City Royals. He was an integral part of the Cardinals bullpen during the team's 2005 and 2006 playoff seasons, with a 2.95 ERA over 40 appearances in 2005 and a 3.34 ERA in 43 games in 2006.

Thompson has been a host of the afternoon drive-time show on St. Louis sports radio station ESPN 101 for five years.

A native of Las Vegas, Thompson attended Dixie State University. He resides in St. Louis with is wife, Andrea, son Dylan and daughter Lexi.

JIM HAYES

Jim Hayes serves as a host and reporter for FOX Sports Midwest, covering the Cardinals and St. Louis Blues for the network's pregame and postgame shows and live game coverage. In his 19 years in St. Louis, Hayes has become one of the city's most well-liked sportscasters, known for his wit and interviews with athletes.

Hayes came to FOX Sports in 2000 and began covering St. Louis-area sports in 2001. Hayes is a 1984 graduate of the State University College at Geneseo, N.Y. and a Mid-America Emmy Award winner. Hayes also co-hosts a morning radio show on St. Louis sports talk station KFNS 590 AM.

SCOTT WARMANN

Scott Warmann has served as the primary host of St. Louis Cardinals and St. Louis Blues pregame and postgame shows on FOX Sports Midwest since 2016. He also handles play-by-play duties for college sports, including the Missouri Valley Conference, Saint Louis University and SIUE events.

A St. Louis native, Warmann was also a sportscaster on KMOX Radio and a studio host for five seasons on the St. Louis Rams radio network, including the 1999 Super Bowl championship season.

Warmann is a Lindenwood University alumnus.

ERICA WESTON

Erica Weston serves as a reporter and anchor for St. Louis Blues and St. Louis Cardinals telecasts on FOX Sports Midwest. She joined the network in June 2018.

Weston came to St. Louis after nearly two years in Tucson, Ariz., where she worked as a sports anchor and reporter for ABC affiliate KGUN. Prior to this, Weston spent four years in Los Angeles where she worked in production for Dodgers, Lakers, Galaxy and Sparks telecasts on Spectrum SportsNet LA and Spectrum SportsNet. Weston also hosted Dodgers programming.

Weston received her BA in public relations from Loyola Marymount University.

The Cardinals and Busch Stadium hosted the 2009 MLB All-Star Game, the first time St. Louis had hosted the mid-summer classic since 1966.

BALLPARK VILLAGE

Ballpark Village, located on 10-acres just north of Busch Stadium, is the first master-planned development designed around a new MLB ballpark. The $100 million first phase of Ballpark Village opened in March 2014 and represents one of the top restaurant and entertainment districts in the region. The 100,000 square foot, multi-story project is visible beyond the left center field wall and compliments the energy and excitement of the game day experience.

The first phase of Ballpark Village is anchored by Cardinals Nation, Budweiser Brew House, Fox Sports Midwest Live!, PBR St. Louis – A Cowboy Bar, Howl at the Moon and Drunken Fish. Ballpark Village features five live performance stages, the largest retractable roof of its kind, the biggest indoor TV screen in the Midwest and an outdoor festival space that recreates the infield of the previous Busch Stadium in its exact historical location. Other food and eating locations at The Village include Tengo Hambre and The Fudgery.

Cardinals Nation is a 34,000 square foot venue comprised of four key elements: a two-story restaurant and bar, an 8,000 square foot world-class Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum, a Cardinals Authentics retail store featuring game used memorabilia and a 334-seat roof top deck with spectacular game views and an all-inclusive experience unlike anything in baseball today. The Cardinals Nation restaurant is a high-energy, memorabilia-infused space that sets a new standard for sports-inspired restaurants with three separate patios, two large bars and large flat screen televisions. The Cardinals Nation rooftop seating deck is a ticketed seating location looking into Busch Stadium that includes food and beverage, a complimentary ticket to the Cardinals museum, Busch Stadium audio/visual feeds and access to other areas within Ballpark Village. Cardinals Nation allows Cardinals fans to stay connected to the team year-round.

The new Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum within Cardinals Nation hosts the largest team-held collection in baseball and is second only to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in terms of size with over 16,000 memorabilia items and hundreds of thousands of archival photographs. With over 8,000 square feet on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, the Museum celebrates the rich history of baseball in St. Louis and the legacy of one of baseball's most storied franchises.

In the winter of 2018, the Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum opened a special one-year exhibit on the topic "Pain, Protection and Performance: The Evolution of Baseball Equipment, presented by Rawlings." The Museum showcases some of its incredible collection by hosting rotating unique exhibits each year.

The initial class of the Cardinals Hall of Fame was inducted Saturday, August 16, 2014. The plaques that adorn the gallery are located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation just outside the entrance to the Cardinals Museum. The Cardinals Hall of Fame Gallery is free to the public, so fans of all generations can celebrate players that represent the best of the 127-year history of one of baseball's most iconic teams. More info on the Cardinals class of Hall of Fame inductees and election process can be found in the history section.

At the heart of Ballpark Village is a central gathering place: Fox Sports Midwest Live!, which is a 20,000 square foot entertainment marketplace that features a 40-foot diagonal LED screen that provides St. Louis sports fans with the best sports viewing experience in the country. Also under the one-of-a kind 100 foot long retractable glass roof is a stage for live concerts, a 200-seat restaurant and a VIP seating area. FOX Sports Midwest, the television home of the Cardinals, produces more than 200 shows per year in its studio on the second level overlooking FOX Sports Midwest Live!.

BALLPARK VILLAGE PHASE II

The St. Louis Cardinals and The Cordish Companies are currently underway with the construction of a $260 million 700,000 square foot second phase expansion of Ballpark Village. The development includes the construction of One Cardinal Way, a 29-story luxury high-rise residential tower, a ten-story Class-A office building anchored by PriceWaterhouseCoopers (PwC), the construction of an upscale Live! By Loews Hotel, the development of a three-story spectacular glass retail pavilion that will be anchored by the 31,000 square foot Onelife Fitness, a nationally recognized, state-of-the-art health and fitness club, and the development of additional street level retail, dining and entertainment.

Ballpark Village's second phase will complete the full build-out of Clark Street, transforming it into one of the most unique city streets in all of major league sports. The expansion will create a vibrant 24/7 urban neighborhood for downtown St. Louis.

The residential apartment tower called One Cardinal Way will be a modern, 29-story, 230 foot tall, luxury high-rise at the corner of Clark and Broadway. One Cardinal Way will be one of the most luxurious, amenity-rich apartment communities in the country. Its views of Busch Stadium, the Mississippi River, the St. Louis skyline and the Gateway Arch, and integration with Busch Stadium, offer a completely unique residential experience. Apartments are now leasing for Summer 2020 occupancy. Visit onecardinalway.com for more information.

The 10-story Class A-Office building anchored by PwC, which will be the first "new construction" office building built in downtown St. Louis since 1989, will sit at the corner of 8th Street and Cardinal Way, a new street that will run through Ballpark Village between 8th and Broadway.

Phase II also features a signature three-story glass retail pavilion that will include both the two story Onelife Fitness, and additional dining and retail amenities to support the new office, residents and visitors to the project.

The second phase of Ballpark Village stands to create 1,500 construction jobs and more than 1,000 permanent new jobs when it opens. More than 1,000 permanent new jobs were created as part of the first phase of Ballpark Village that opened in 2014.

The construction of Ballpark Village represents the next step in the Cardinals' vision for downtown St. Louis that began with the opening of the new $411 million privately-financed Busch Stadium in 2006. The second phase project will bring the team's total investment in new construction in downtown St. Louis to well over $750 million since 2005.

CARDINALS CARE

Caring For Kids In The Community

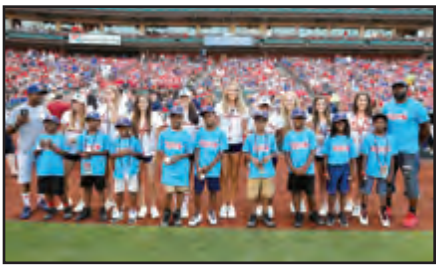
Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation with the mission of Caring for Kids in the St. Louis community. Established in 1997, Cardinals Care, with the help of Cardinals players, the Cardinals organization and the faithful fan base, has invested over $24 million to support child-focused programs. Cardinals Care focuses on three key initiatives:

Redbird Rookies

Redbird Rookies, the flagship program of Cardinals Care, is a free baseball/softball league for kids who otherwise might not have the opportunity to play. In addition to providing uniforms and all equipment needs including gloves, bats and balls for each team, Redbird Rookies provides extensive off-field support in the areas of health, education, mentoring and the cultural arts.

This season marks the 16th anniversary of Redbird Rookies, which serves nearly 2,500 kids in 14 leagues across the greater St. Louis community and parts of rural Missouri and Illinois.

Through the program, participants receive on-field coaching, support and character development, and coaches and parents take part in clinics and workshops that introduce methods to support players on and off the field.



Redbird Rookies participants build literacy skills in a reading program, learn about healthy eating, attend a health fair and enjoy music and cultural events. Mentorship opportunities and the ability to earn college scholarships are an integral part of the program.

Cardinals Care Grants

Each year, Cardinals Care awards grants during a spring and summer cycle to local non-profits and community based organizations that support area children. In 2018, Cardinals Care granted over $470,000 to nearly 200 organizations.

To date, the foundation has awarded over $12 million in grants to worthy organizations.

Learn more at cardinals.com/grants.

Cardinals Care Funding

Cardinals Care is funded through the generosity of our fans, players and team, individual donations and various annual events.

- Winter Warm-Up, held over three days January, is the largest Cardinals Care fundraiser.
- 50/50 Raffle, presented by Hollywood Casino, is held every Friday, Saturday and Sunday home game. 2018 was a record-setting year with $1.056 million raised half of which went to Cardinals Care and the other half to fans holding each game's winning ticket.
- In-stadium Silent Auctions are held every Tuesday and Friday home game and in 2018 raised $75,000.

Visit cardinals.com/community to learn more about Cardinals Care programs or to make a donation.

Cardinals Care Youth Ball Fields

As part of the Cardinals' commitment to the Redbird Rookies program and overall beautification of the greater St. Louis area, Cardinals Care has successfully built and revived 23 youth baseball fields in the St. Louis community to date. The 24th field is currently under construction and will be unveiled later this year.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In addition to the charitable work of Cardinals Care, the Cardinals are committed to making a difference in the community and in the lives of those who call the St. Louis region home through a variety of programs and initiatives.

The Cardinals host an annual blood drive with the American Red Cross that last year collected 1,400 pints of blood with the ability to save 4,000 lives. Support of the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure through a Cardinals race team raised $23,000 in 2018. Complimentary tickets are distributed to clergy members, and thousands of tickets and items are distributed to local organizations seeking fundraising assistance.

Player Involvement

Throughout the season, Cardinals players and coaches spend quality time in the St. Louis community bringing smiles to the faces of fans in need through a variety of outreach opportunities.

Player Ticket Program

Through the Player Ticket program, players like Adam Wainwright, Dexter Fowler and Carlos Martinez host groups of kids from area non-profit and community-based organizations at Busch Stadium.

On 24 Player Ticket Program dates in 2018, players hosted 600 local children. In addition to meeting with a player and watching batting practice, participants received a t-shirt and meal voucher, thanks in part to the support of Scott Credit Union.

Cardinals Wives

While the Cardinals players compete on the field, their generous wives, fiancés, and girlfriends join together to make a difference throughout the St. Louis community. Each year, the Cardinals Wives give back through a variety of fundraisers and events for area charities:

- The annual hospital visit day spread joy to 500 children last season
- Grab Bag fundraisers, held on two dates in 2018, raised $60,000 that was divided equally between four deserving organizations (GRAB BAG LOGO)
- Support of Make-A-Wish® Missouri and, in particular the annual Wives for Wishes event, raised $120,000 last June to help grant 12 wishes for local children battling life-threatening medical conditions.

Fredbird and Friends Elementary School Program

Each year, the Cardinals visit thousands of students at area schools through the Fredbird & Friends Elementary School Program.

Presented by FOX Sports Midwest, Fredbird and Friends is a free, traveling assembly designed to educate and entertain St. Louis area students in grades K-5.

Hosted by Fredbird and a Cardinals personality (Mike Claiborne, Al Hrabosky, Kyle McClellan and Brad Thompson), the program helps students answer the question, "What makes a good teammate?" through three key messages: Be Active! Be Responsible! and Be Yourself!

Community Ticket Program

The Community Ticket Program annually distributes over 40,000 complimentary tickets to non-profit and community-based organizations that may not otherwise have the resources or opportunity to attend a Cardinals game.

Learn more at cardinals.com/communitytickets.

MLB Community Initiatives

Throughout the season, the Cardinals participate in a number of Major League Baseball league-wide initiatives that encourage youth participation in the game including PLAY BALL, the PLAY Clinic and Pitch, Hit & Run. Awareness and/or funds are raised for the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Jackie Robinson Foundation, military appreciation and to help find a cure and support those fighting or who have battled prostate, breast and childhood cancer.

Learn more at mlb.com/community.

Cardinals Kids Club

Beginning in 2019, the Cardinals will wear powder blue alternate uniforms during select Saturday road games, similar to the "Victory Blue" uniforms that the team wore from 1976-84. The Cardinals will be the 21st MLB team with at least two alternate uniforms.

Similar to the team's first Saturday alternate uniforms unveiled before the 2013 season, the front of the powder blue jersey features "St. Louis" in script along with the player's number. The jersey and matching pants have red piping and will be complimented with a red hat.
